fine music finely rendered; second, because they were anxious to com-pare the Melville version of "H. M. S. Pinafore" with that given by the local combination two years ago. In a majority of features, Saturday evening's performance far excelled the other, but in several particulars we consider the latter quite a diswe consider the latter quite a distance ahead. One thing very noticeable in the Melville performance was the ease, not to say carelessness with which the players went through their business. It conveyed the impression, doubtlessly correct, that the troupe had played the piece so often, they did not feel the necessity of care or forethought. For this reason, several trivial hitches occurred, but were not at all prominent. As to the characters, Miss Melville's "Josephine" was the best we have ever seen or heard. Her acting was true to nature and her singing, as ever, beautiful. Miss Plaisted's "Buttercup" was good

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fail of 1876 I was taken with a VIOLENT BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a se-verse cough I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I hughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.
