for Irish Troops.

GEN. ROBERTS' POPULARITY

What Butler Would Have Got for Same Delay—Newspaper and Theatrical News in London.

[Early Dispatches.]

London, April 23.—(Copyright, 1900, by the Associated Press.)—Though the news has returned to England and the remarkable visit to Ireland is now a matter of history, the latest fad shows no signs of abatement. Royalty's presence in Erin failed to make Irishmen flauntingly English; but, curiously enough, made Englishmen annoyingly Irish.

At this phase, which began by the removal of the shamrock, there have been several striking examples this week. The lower house of the Irish convention, composed of several clergy and laymen of the church of England's northern diocese, has adopted resolutions to put St. Patrick upon the pages of the prayer book, from which he was unaccountably missing. St. Andrew is there, but Erin's patron saint was omitted when the reformers redrafted the liturgy.

KILTS FOR IRISHMEN.

On a par with this action is the agitation in England over Irishmen's right to wear kilts. Upon this momentous question Lord William Russell, son of the Duke of Bedford, lord chancellor of Ireland, has been lecturing to large audiences in London, dressed in the picturesque, abbreviated garb generally associated with Scotchmen. He makes an impassioned plea for the divine right of Hibernians to wear kilts. Mr. Russell is a learned young man, who married a French woman and consistently resides in France.

KIN-DEEP FRIENDSHIP.

The canonizing and killing would be truly humorous could the impartial observer forget the misery, poverty and degradation of industries that produce the goods of the South and western Ireland. In view of the conditions that exist in that portion of the British Isles, the so-called shamrock craze in England can scarcely be considered anything but another instance of the part of a majority of England's people of their complete failure to grasp the nature of Ireland's needs, however well meant and generous may be these outpourings of the signs of friendship.

ENGLISH LADIES STAY AT HOME.

The effects of Sir Alfred Milner's proclamation requesting ladies to stay at home instead of going out to the clubs and to the theatres, has been widely discussed. Lady Henry Benckley and many others returning to London. Lady Randolph Churchill was not expected to return with the hospital ship Maine. Among those who had planned to go to the Cape and have cancelled their passages on account of the proclamation of the high commissioner are Lady Lifford and several other ladies of title. Sir Alfred Milner has not increased his social popularity by his frank utterances. Most society women preferred the better and expense of cancelling their arrangements rather than to be the criticisms attached to a trip to South Africa.

LORD ROBERTS' KINDNESS.

According to the stories reaching London, Lord Roberts' great kindness and sympathy have been finding many outlets. During the week in London he has visited every man in the capital, carrying with him many little comforts, doing up to one of the things he is asked, "Can I do anything for you?" "Yes, I like you to keep me out of the casualty list." This name did not appear, and his kindness was appreciated.

WEAK NEWSPAPER VENTURES.

Dr. Parker, London's well known broker, reported this week Rev. Chas. Stedman's weekly paper, "The English Illustrated Weekly News." The paper seems to have been a failure. The late editor of Dr. Parker's said, "The paper was a failure from the start. The editor's effort is attracting comparatively little comment or attention. Dr. Parker recently celebrated his seventieth anniversary of his birth, which occasion he was the recipient of many gifts. The editor of the new half-penny paper, London's, raised little or no stir after the first issue was sold. The entrance of a new energetic man as Mr. Cyril was naturally looked forward to with interest. But the paper was disappointed. One noticeable difference on the first page of the new paper was that it was devoted to the first

"I Would Not Have Catarrh for a Million Dollars," Says Mrs. Carter—Pe-ru-na her Safeguard.

MRS. LESLIE CARTER, THE GREAT ACTRESS, OF NEW YORK CITY.

Mrs. Leslie Carter, probably the most prominent actress in America, says the following of Pe-ru-na: "Pe-ru-na is sure to prevent a cold. It will stop a cough before it becomes settled. It cures all catarrhal affections like magic. No money could tempt me to be without this remedy for even a day. It is just the remedy that all women need, especially such women that are exposed to the vicissitudes of climate, as I am."

"I never neglect an opportunity to recommend this remedy to my friends. It is America's greatest remedy for America's greatest enemy, catarrh and catarrhal affections. I would not have catarrh for a million dollars, and as long as I have Pe-ru-na at hand to promptly check the slightest symptoms of its approach, I feel perfectly safe from this disease."

N. Leslie Carter. Mrs. M. Dooley, Mount Airy, Habersham county, Ga., in a recent letter says: "I suffered five years more or less with catarrh of the stomach and pelvic organs. I tried a good many remedies of my own, and bought medicine from a doctor that was highly recommended, although the medicine did me no good whatever. Finally, I concluded to submit my case to Dr. Hartman. I wrote him, and he readily advised me. I bought some Pe-ru-na, and a few days after was taken with la grippe. I took Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin and I can say without a doubt that it has entirely relieved me of all my ailments. I feel better and stronger than I have in many years. My appetite is all right, I have no symptoms of my former troubles remaining. I am able to do my usual work without fatigue, and have every reason to believe that my health is the direct result of the use of Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin, without which I should have been dead by this time. There is no medicine that can equal Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin. I find it a sure cure for all catarrhal affections; as for la grippe there is no other remedy that can compare with it. I can scarcely find words to express my gratitude for Dr. Hartman's good advice and kindness to me.

The peculiar ills to which women are subject are often very dangerous. It frequently happens that the victim lives far from competent medical assistance. What shall she do? She is not wealthy enough to go to some distant city for treatment, and cannot procure skillful assistance at home. This is what she should do: write Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., tell him the whole story, and he will do the rest. Mrs. Margaret Flett, Wilcox, O. T., writes: "I extend my sincere thanks for the good advice you have given me. I do not believe I would be living now if it were not for you. I had suffered with hemorrhage for four months and the doctors could help me but little. They operated on me three times. It was very painful, and I only obtained a little relief. As long as they worked at me, the hemorrhage stopped; but just as soon as they closed the door it would commence to flow again. I was so weak I could not turn in bed. At last my neighbors began to speak of patent medicines. Then I applied to Dr. Hartman. I did not know whether he could help me or not; but I followed his advice and only used three bottles of Pe-ru-na. Now I am well and as strong as I ever was."

Every woman should have Dr. Hartman's free book to women. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

page to advertisements. So insured, however, is London becoming an American method that a paper which had not a ghost of a chance of succeeding five years ago, may now become a successful and popular medium.

DISASTROUS TO PLAYS.

This week has been disastrous for new theatrical productions. Edward Vroom's "Marsae of Gascony," at the Drury Lane theater, has been mercilessly scored by the critics, who also object to Mr. Vroom's American accent. In spite of this, the play has been drawing fair houses all the week. The press has also been unanimous in condemning an "American Beauty," which was produced at the Shaftesbury theater Wednesday, and of which so much was expected.

The crusade against a certain class of plays continues. Mr. Samuel Smith, member of parliament from Flintshire, has given notice of his intention to offer a resolution in the house of commons, May 15, calling attention to the depraving character of some of the plays performed in London theaters. Meanwhile "Zaza" flourishes at the Garrick theater. Mr. Charles Frohman has renewed his tenancy of the theater, so that the run of the play may be continued. He is also organizing a company for Australia.

Trade Conditions Favorable.

New York, April 27.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: "Evidences of the fact that there are now two sides of the general trade situation where for a year past there was but one, come to sight each week. Different sections of the country and lines of business return different reports but that the situation as a whole is a favorable one, and suffers merely by comparison with the enormous and almost feverish activity of some time ago is also evident. Excluding the great speculative centers, the aggregate of business is undoubtedly larger than a year ago, and the business done even in several industries reporting reduced activity would seem very large even to those bearishly inclined had it not been for the enormous aggregate done some short time ago."

SPORTING NOTES.

Manager Midgley of the Salt Lake Business College has received replies from his challenge that he sent out several days ago. The Ogden High School has no team organized and therefore were compelled to reject the challenge. The Brigham Young Academy team of Provo also rejected the challenge.

The probabilities are that W. B. McCandless, the catcher, will yet play with the Short Line. He has been released by Omaha and will come to Salt Lake at once.

Manager White of the Fort Douglas team is very anxious to arrange a game with one of the school teams.

The vacancy which has been created in the High School aggregation is to be filled by Paul Tarpey. Manager Tarpey will undoubtedly make a good showing.

Dan Hughes is unable to appear on the diamond and the probabilities are he will not be able to play for several days as he is suffering from an abrasion in his left ear.

In the Ninth Inning Orth Was Hit Safely Four Times.

Philadelphia, April 27.—Orth was mainly responsible for Philadelphia's defeat by Brooklyn today. The local club, however, lost an opportunity in the eighth inning when, with three men on base and none out, they failed to score. In the ninth inning Orth was hit safely four times and gave three bases on balls, netting Brooklyn four runs. Attendance, 4,400.

The Idaho team arrived at 9:30 this morning and remained quiet until the afternoon. ## A BUSY FACTORY.

Never Closes Its Doors, Day or Night.

The famous "white city," as the pure food factories of the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., of Battle Creek, Mich., are called never shuts down day or night. The great ovens once heated up are kept going as are the grinding mills, blending machines, mixing machines, and the entire plant, the day laborers, men and women, are placed at six o'clock in the evening by a night force. The name "white city" was given by the citizens to the location owing to the color of the numerous factory buildings which are painted pure white with very dark bronze green trimmings.

The utmost cleanliness is observed throughout, and the appetizing odors from the foods in preparation, permeate the air in all directions. Their products, Grape-Nuts breakfast food and Postum Cereal Food, go all over the world to the breakfast tables of the well-to-do Japanese and Chinese, and to the high caste Brahmins of India, to the emperor of Germany, to royalty in Italy, Great Britain, South America, and they are found in practically all of the best homes in America.

By scientific selection of the certain parts of grains which supply Phosphate of Potash and other important elements for quickly rebuilding the most delicate parts of the human body (brain and nerve centers), and making up therefrom a most delicious food, Grape-Nuts, and a breakfast food-drink, Postum Cereal Coffee, this firm has become known as the foremost producers of Health Foods in the world, and their name affixed to a package of food is sufficient evidence of its purity and excellence.

A. T. MOORE.

140 Third St., Salt Lake City, Utah,
April 17th, 1900.

Doctor Shores, City:

Dear Sir—I have great pleasure in bearing testimony to the value of your treatment for catarrh of the head and throat, from which I have suffered for several years. I may say that I have tried nearly all of the so-called cures without any permanent good results.

I commenced your treatment on the 10th of March last, and now I am entirely free from all unpleasant consequences of the disease, and believe you have effected a perfect cure.

Fearing the possibility of a relapse I intend to continue the treatment for another month, although I scarcely think it necessary.

With very many thanks, I remain, dear sir,

Very truly yours,
A. T. MOORE.
