OGDEN NEWS.

OGDEN, UTAH, Jan. 10, 1902.

THOMAS WEIR JR. MISSING

Leaves a Letter to His Father, in Which He Threatens Self-Destruction.

Had Carefully Planned His Departure and Disposed of Personal Effects—Academy of Medicine.

Thomas Weir, a well known resident of Hooper, Weber county, is in Ogden with a very painful task to perform and to solve a problem that has been bothering him. His son Thomas, a young man, 18 years of age, who has been attending the Ogden high school during the last three years, mysteriously disappeared on Sunday last and no trace of him has been found. He visited his father in Hooper during the holidays and appeared to be in good spirits. He came back to Ogden again to resume his studies, but was observed by the people with whom he boarded not to be so happy as usual, as it was thought perhaps his studies were perplexing him. On Tuesday his father received a postal card from him, which read as follows: "Father—When you get this call at Miss Kelly's and get her for that which she has for you. The article will imply what I want done. Your loving son, Tom."

Accordingly Mr. Weir came to Ogden and called on Mrs. Kelly, who gave him and his son's trunk. Upon going to the Crocker lodging house, where his son roomed, Mr. Weir opened his trunk and found the following letter:

"Jan. 5, 1901.

"Dear Father—Please take my things and give them to those who you think should have them. I will not return to the Crocker lodging house, where I am now, but I will leave my things to you. I am going to leave Ogden. I will either go a long way off or but a few miles. If I do either, do not inquire after my presence, as I will let you know if possible. There is no one, not even you who knows the reason of my disappearance, but I have a cause."

"No, I am not insane. If I were, I should not make such preparations, and I should leave myself at the mercy of others and live off other people. I shall dispose of myself in a manner so that no one will weep over my body, and no other labor except my own will be needed."

"I shall not put myself in water to pollute such a necessity and luxury. I shall not leave myself dead in other people's way. But—what? It shall be a unique method. I shall hang myself to a tree under which I have lighted a great amount of wood, and no one will be able to disturb my remains."

"This relieves my conscience and does not disturb it. As to whom I have met here, I have been kinder than the mercy of others and live off other people. I shall dispose of myself in a manner so that no one will weep over my body, and no other labor except my own will be needed."

"There is a book at Spargo's, price $1.50. Ask for Mr. Scriven. Tell him Thomas Weir sent you to get a book he ordered. Take the book and give it to Mr. August Patton. He loaned me one just like it. It got partly spoiled. I ordered one in its stead. The old one is at Mrs. Keller's, whom I wish I could do as much for as she has tried to do for me. I have everything I desired, except a character, hence the result. Tell Wallace there is a suit of clothes and a pair of trousers at Bolstead's near the P. O., which he may have by paying the charges of repairing and cleaning."

"Good-bye."

"The fifty cent piece in my pocket-book is the subscription money of Miss Mendenhall for the C-C-M. Tell Wallace to give it to T. H. R. The conclusion I come to is not happy. It took a long time, more than months."

"The father of the young man immediately went to the police station and secured the assistance of Detective Pennington and the police officers to aid in discovering the whereabouts of his son. Mr. Weir has gone up into the hills to look for his son, as he is of the opinion that the young man would put into execution his threats, but cannot advance any theory that should prompt him to take his own life."

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

The case of the state vs. Albert Chisholm is still before the district court.

The evidence is much the same as at the former trial.

The case of J. C. Graham vs. Samuel Rork et al was dismissed at plaintiff's cost. It was a suit for damages for loss of a mission to Great Britain from Mr. Rork, manager of the company which played "The Rounders" in the Provo opera house in February, 1901, for the reason that Thomas G. Seabrooke did not appear with the company in the performance. A compromise was made between the parties before the suit was dismissed.

Comfort Powell has commenced suit against Byron and Fred Price to collect $750 damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of defendant's grazing 3,000 head of sheep on plaintiff's lands situated in section 14 and 15, township 10 north, range 6 east, Salt Lake meridian.

LOGAN.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES NAMED.

Message of Mayor Hansen—Wedded and Left on a Mission.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Jan. 9.—Miss Annie Miller, of Wellsville, and Mr. Levi Dunn, of College, were married in Logan temple Wednesday, and Elder Dunn left for Germany today to fill a mission. A party in honor of the marriage was held at College last evening at which about 800 were taken for the departing Elder.

Miss Gertrude E. Libby, of Portland, Me., was united in marriage to Claus S. Anderson, of Smithfield, Utah, in the Salt Lake City temple, December 19, 1901.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES.

Following are the committees appointed by President E. W. Robinson, of the city council for the ensuing two years:

On Laws—Thoresen, Baker, H. B. Smith.

Streets—T. H. Smith, Benson, Thoresen.

Public Grounds—Baker, Hoffman, Hansen.

Waterworks—Quayle, T. H. Smith, Robinson.

Licenses—Benson, Thoresen, Baker.

Claims—Quayle, Burris, Hansen.

Cemetery—Hoffman, H. B. Smith, Benson.

Prison—Burris, Hoffman, Hansen.

Finance—Robinson, Thoresen, T. H. Smith.

Printing—Burris, Hoffman, T. H. Smith.

Electric Light—Thoresen, Benson, H. B. Smith.

Police and Fire—Benson, Baker, Quayle.

In his message to the council, Mayor Hansen calls attention to the fact that there is a deficit of $331 to be met. He recommends that two policemen be employed instead of one as heretofore; that the water rates be raised to provide enough revenue to meet interest on the waterworks system; that the streets and bridges be kept in as good repair as possible, etc.

The council decided to employ two policemen in future, as it has been felt that Logan was inadequately protected.

Do you suffer from piles? If so do not turn to surgery for relief. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will act more quickly, surely and safely, saving you the expense and danger of an operation.—God-Pitts Drug Co., corner First South and Main streets.

PRICE.

DEATH OF JUDGE E. W. MCINTYRE

One of the Builders of the State and Pioneer of Dixie.

Special Correspondence.

Price, Utah, Jan. 10.—Judge Erasmus W. McIntyre is dead at his home in this city of cancer of the stomach, in the sixty-second year of his life. The funeral services will be held from the town hall tomorrow forenoon at 10 o'clock under the direction of Bishop E. S. Horsley, and interment had at Price cemetery.

Deceased was born August 4, 1839, in Indiana county, Pa. He was the son of William and Ann Patterson McIntyre, who were living in Nauvoo at the time of the martyrdom of Joseph and Hyrum Smith. He remembered quite vividly his father lifting him up to see the dead lying in the caskets.

Judge McIntyre came to Utah with his parents in 1849 by ox team. During his early manhood he made three trips back to the Missouri river after emigrants. Later he served as a soldier in Echo canyon during the Johnston army episode. After this he went to California three times after supplies for the pioneers.

He moved to Dixie, now St. George, in Washington county, in the year 1861, and there passed through all the trials incident to its early settlement. He filled a mission to Great Britain from the 18th of April, 1875, to the 15th of May, 1878. Two months after his return home he was sent from St. George to Paragonah to preside as Bishop of that ward.

He remained there until October, 1888, when he came to Price. At the organization of Price ward he was chosen first counselor to Bishop George Frandsen, acting in this capacity until July, 1896. He filled the office of justice of the peace of Price precinct for six or seven terms and was serving as such at the time of his death.

He ably assisted in all the labors necessary in the settlement and the up-building of Price, taking a prominent part therein. He was never endowed with very much of this world's goods, and therefore was under the necessity of laboring hard for the maintenance of his family.

He leaves behind a wife and nine children, six girls and three boys, two children having preceded him to the great beyond. During his illness he suffered much, but when the final summons came passed away as does the little child into the sleep.

De Witt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They are safe, prompt, gentle, effective in removing all impurities from the blood and bowels. Small and easy to take. Never gripe or distress. God-Pitts Drug Co., corner First South and Main streets.

MORGAN.

DIPHTHERIA CASES.

Little Snow Causes Apprehension—Bishop Anderson Ill.

Special Correspondence.

Morgan City, Morgan Co., Jan. 9.—The New Year's festivities are over and the people are pursuing the even tenor of their way.

The new city council was duly installed last Monday, and we hope under their administration to see some public improvements. If nothing else that the numerous drunks will be dealt with according to the ordinances.

The general health of the people is better than for two years past, so says Dr. Osgood. The doctor has bought a place in North Morgan.

The weather is like spring. There is no snow and the frost is fast coming out of the ground, very poor prospect for water for the summer, as there is very little snow in the hills.

DIPHTHERIA CASES.

In the family of James H. Tucker of South Morgan the dread malady has again made its appearance, the second case of diphtheria being the victim, William Hazel Svald. Beware of all counterfeits. It instantly relieves piles.—God-Pitts Drug Co., corner First South and Main streets.

Bishop Anderson of North Morgan has been quite sick of late through overwork. He has a daughter down with the measles.

W. T. Wesson, Goshen, Vt., says his cold was completely cured of a bad case of cold by the use of De Witt's Cough Cure. Beware of all counterfeits. It instantly relieves piles.—God-Pitts Drug Co., corner First South and Main streets.

HUNTSVILLE.

OLD FOLKS FESTIVAL.

School Will Resume on Monday—Special Meeting of Seventies.

Special Correspondence.

Huntsville, Weber Co., Jan. 7.—We are having one of the mildest winters ever witnessed in this valley. There is no snow in the valley and but very little in the hills, so at present the prospects for water are very poor.

OLD FOLKS FESTIVAL.

One of the most pleasing features of the recent holiday festivities was a picnic and party given by the old people's committee. Sister Anna Lund, who is 98 years of age, received a beautiful little present which was presented to her by the primary association.

Last Friday the little daughter of J. H. Jorgensen was carried to its last resting place.

Presidents Rubin S. Wells and J. G. Kimball were here on Sunday and held a special meeting with the Seventies.

The stage and scenery is being moved from the house to Wansard's hall. The first play will be presented by the home dramatic company on Friday, the 17th.

SCHOOL WILL RESUME.

Arrangements have been made by the school board to resume school on Monday, the higher grade to be at the residence of G. C. Mortensen, and the other grades to be at the Rock house. During the vacation the smaller boys are busy cleaning and piling up the brick of the school house, which was recently destroyed by fire.

ROBINSON.

SMALLPOX ABATING.

Improvements in Meeting House—Beautiful Springlike Weather.

Special Correspondence.

Robinson, Jan. 8.—The camp is rather quiet at present. With all the Latter-day Saints meeting house has been greatly improved in its interior. The walls are neatly papered, the floor carpeted. The stand is well arranged and fittingly draped. It has also a commodious and neatly furnished vestry. On the whole the improvements bespeak the interest taken by the people in their place of worship, which is well attended on the Sabbath. Attention will later be given the exterior and the grounds.

The Y. M. C. A. will give a grand ball on the 24th of the present month.

"SMALLPOX" ABATING.

There are one or two light cases of "smallpox" in the town, but the quarantine will soon be declared off. The excitement attending the outbreak of the disease has abated and the disease is met and overcome without the flurry that once held sway.

The roads are dusty yesterday was like a summer's day. Although there is a light coating of snow on the north sides of the hills the air is mild and warm; no fog, but bright, beautiful day.

The hotels are doing a fair business. The tables of the Kirkendall house were filled at supper time last night; the popular young dining room girl, Miss Simpson, of Freedom, Sanpete county, has been succeeded by Miss May Opendshaw of Santiquito.

The people here are interested in the great mining suit now pending between the Mammoth and Grand Central mining companies, as the prospects of the camp depend to a great extent upon the solution of the difficulties that have arisen between the parties litigant.

"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeBel, Cedar City, Mo. "Like others I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me good until I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One bottle cured me. A friend who had suffered similarly I put on the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. He is gaining fast and will soon be able to work. Before he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure he had lost all his appetite and was unable to eat. He has now gained his appetite and is able to eat a total of 100 pounds of food."
