

Christmas Opening, Second Floor

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house,
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care
In hopes that Saint Nicholas soon would be there.
The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar plums danced in their heads.
And Mamma in kerchief and I in my cap
Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap.
