

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, May 3, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

EXCOMMUNICATED.

Louis Y. Ferguson, Vilate Y. Decker, Elmira A. Young, Doris Y. Dunford and Marinda Y. Conrad have been cut off from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by the Bishop's courts of their respective wards, and Elizabeth Y. Ellsworth, by the High Council of Salt Lake State of Zion, which High Council also unanimously sustained the action of the Bishop's Courts in the other cases.

The above action was taken for their joining together and making a complaint, entering and prosecuting the same in the Third Judicial District Court of Utah Territory, wherein they falsely charged their father's Executors and the authorities of the Church with defrauding the heirs of our late President Brigham Young, out of one million dollars, and for causing the imprisonment in the Penitentiary of the Executors, and jeopardizing the liberty of President John Taylor, Trustee-in-Trust for the Church, and for refusing to make restitution.

James Ferguson (commonly known as Harry) was also excommunicated for encouraging and inducing his wife in her course.

WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, Clerk of the High Council.

To the Seventies.—A general meeting of the Seventies will be held at the Council House, on Wednesday evening, May 6th, at 7 o'clock p.m. It is desirable that there should be a general attendance.

JOSEPH YOUNG, Sen., JOHN VAN COTT, W. W. TAYLOR, ROBERT CAMPBELL, Clerk. Salt Lake City, May 3, 1880.

Condolence.—In another column will be seen a notice of the death of Joseph M., a ten year old son of officer Andrew Smith. The boy fell a victim to the dread disease diphtheria, which attacked him the most malignant form. He was a bright intelligent lad, beloved by all who knew him, and we sympathize with his parents in their great bereavement.

Utah Southern Arrivals.—Bishop Myron Tanner, of the Third Ward, Provo, came to town last evening and left this morning for Ogden, where he goes to attend court as a member of the grand jury of the First District, which begins its labors in Ogden to-morrow, Judge Emerson presiding.

Mr. John C. Graham, editor of the Register, came to this city on business also.

Mr. James Dunn, superintendent of the Provo Woolen Mills is in town.

Mrs. James Currie, representing H. B. Clawson's wagon, wool and hide establishment, of this city, returned from a business trip to the south.

The Parker Murder Verdict.—Following is the verdict of the coroner's inquest on the body of Mrs. Parker, who was foully murdered near Springdale, Kane County, on the 23d ult., notices of which we have published before:

Verdict of the coroner's inquest on the body of Mrs. Parker, who was foully murdered near Springdale, Kane County, on the 23d ult., notices of which we have published before:

An inquisition holden in Rockville Precinct, County of Kane, on the 26th and 27th days of April, A. D. 1880, before John Langston, Justice of the Peace, in Rockville Precinct, said County, upon the body of Mary Elizabeth Parker, there lying dead, by the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed, the said jurors upon their oaths do say, after inspecting the body, and hearing the testimony adduced, that we find the deceased came to her death on the 23d day of April, 1880, by having her throat cut and from receiving several blows about her head from stones or other hard substances.

And we further find, that we believe Jared Dalton to be the person by whose act the death of the said Mary Elizabeth Parker was occasioned.

In testimony whereof, the said jurors have hereunto set their hands and the day and year aforesaid.

ALMA MILLER, THOMAS E. FLANNAGAN, WILLIAM R. CRAWFORD, JOHN LANGSTON, Justice of the Peace.

Returned Missionaries.—We received calls, on Saturday, and today, from Elders John L. Blythe, Henry Walsh and Lars Svendsen, who returned with the last company from Europe. Elder Blythe, who is an old resident of Salt Lake, has been absent about two years. In Great Britain, during the greater part of the time, he was in the same country, in the district of Ayrshire, where he was born. When he reached there, two branches of the Church were in existence, when he left, two more had been organized. Much kindness was shown him by his relatives, whom he visited, and other friends, and the Saints with whom he associated, for which he expresses himself as very grateful. The people generally treated the elders very well, it was "Christian" ministers and their immediate followers, who did all the persecuting. There was but one traveling elder in Ayrshire, when Brother Blythe left, but ample room for many others.

Elder Walsh left here on the 7th of May, 1878, for England, and during his mission was principally occupied in the Nottingham Conference. He closed his missionary work on the 3rd of September, 1879, on a mission to Denmark, where he remained until on account of ill health he was released to come home. The first year his health was good, but afterwards failed. The last seven months his field of labor was in the Ayrshire Conference. The mission was prospering and the outlook encouraging.

Sabbath Services.—The Saints assembled yesterday afternoon in the Tabernacle.

The first speaker was Elder Jas. L. Bentley. Two years ago he was called to leave home and family to go on a mission to Europe. He spent two months, after his arrival, among his relatives, bearing testimony of the truth, after a sojourn of 20 years in Utah, in which the Lord had blessed him with a large family. He was never permitted to return. He had told them the truth as he understood it, but had not exaggerated anything, and he was called Israel. He was subsequently appointed to labor in the Liverpool Conference, in which he traveled for some time alone, but about a year ago, others were appointed to labor with him. There was a disposition to hear about the "Latter-day Saints," and many openings were made. The prospects were more encouraging than 20 years ago; the people could be better approached, and those who were in faith, relying on the power of God, would reap a harvest of souls. He had not suffered an hour's sickness since he came to England, and he was resolved to stay there until he was called to return. There was a falling off of the faith of people in the "Christian" sects, and the tendency was to divide into sects. He bore testimony to witnessing the power of God in healing the sick, expressed his pleasure at being called among the Saints, and felt that this was the happiest day of his life; his family had lived and prospered; he had labored with pleasure, a new generation had sprung up since 20 years ago, and he desired to preach the gospel that all might hear. He exhorted the Saints to live the lives of Saints, for all who obtained the benefits of Christ's atonement, must be co-workers with him.

Elder John L. Blythe had also just returned from a two years' mission to Europe, in which he had had joy and satisfaction. He was appointed to labor in Scotland; at first in Ayrshire; the land of his birth, which he had left over thirty years ago. Not one of his friends could recognize him until he made himself known. Received a hearty welcome and bore to them a faithful testimony, to which they listened attentively. Found two branches of the Church in Ayrshire numbering but few members, but they were faithful and true. He had been poor, so that he had not been able to do much out-door preaching, but had labored to the best of his ability. The Lord had blessed him, and he had seen many honest ones come forth and bow to the gospel. He had baptized fifty himself, and there was a better opening than when he went there. He had been in England and Ireland, as well as Scotland, and could say that everywhere the condition of the mission was improving. This was his first mission, but he felt that those two years were the best of his life; there was a joy and satisfaction in performing his duties that no other position could give, and he exhorted every young man to seek to the Lord that they might be qualified for the work of the ministry.

Elder George E. Emerson, late of Salt Lake two years ago and was assigned to labor in the Welsh Conference. Traveled at first in North Wales, where there were very few Saints; but he held meetings in the open air. Afterwards went to South Wales, and from thence to the Manchester Conference where he labored at the time of his return. He remained until his return, he had previously no experience in public speaking. He thanked God he had been called on a mission and that he had faith to fill it, also that he had been spared to return home among the Saints. He bore testimony to the gospel, and said that he was good for an extensive work in Great Britain. If we endeavored to do the will of God we should be blessed and go on to perfection.

Elder Henry Walsh felt very thankful that he had been permitted to perform a mission to England, his native land. Found that in order to succeed in the mission, the principles he went to teach. Arrived in Liverpool on May 27th, 1878. Labored in the Manchester Conference at first among his relatives, and then in the Nottingham Conference. Nottingham was a very liberal, infidel town, where Mr. Bradlaugh had a society. Many of its members were in other places. He was a short time in the city, and then he was in the Bible, the Latter-day Saints had it. He opened the work in Normanton, Derbyshire, preached in the market place, and in a short time had a branch of three of Eastwood eight miles from Nottingham, a young girl had the joyous news of her father's face and neck; her sister had died of the same disease. By the administration of the elders in three days she was able to get up, and promised in the gospel were enjoyed by the saints. After laboring 18 months in the Nottingham Conference, was sent to the Norwich Conference, a far more liberal place, the saints were poor and scattered and the persons still told the foolish stories about the "Mormons" that had been told in other places. He had enjoyed his mission and would not sell his experience for any amount of money. While he was in the Mansfield District over 30 while he was in the Norwich Conference. A great work would be done in the British Mission. He desired to continue in the work, and as a Seventy, always to be a minute man.

Elder Olson Pratt referred to the testimony of the elders just returned from their missions, and called the attention of the congregation to promises made by the Lord 47 years ago, through Joseph Smith, to the Elders sent on Missions. Quoted a revelation given 23d September, 1838, in which the Lord promised to be with the Elders, who were to go without purse or scrip, and He would provide for them. These Elders he was assured would testify that these promises had been fulfilled to them. And the many thousands of Elders who had been sent forth would, if they were true, testify the same testimony, although sent out among a people who hated and despised us. The promise was also given that every soul which would obey the testimony of the Elders should receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. This had been fulfilled to the very letter, in all parts of the earth. It was also promised that certain signs should follow those who received the gospel. These signs and gifts had been bestowed according to the promise. And it was in consequence of this that the Saints had come from their native lands to dwell in Zion in these mountains. These promises of God would continue to be fulfilled and this work go on until the earth was prepared for the advent of our Lord.

Passenger car, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., etc. The passenger cars pass through Iowa and Illinois, and into Chicago. The demand for JACQUES' Extracts steadily increases.

Should Menstrual Pain be relieved. For all the bitter opposition of jealous rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kaiser's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even the grossest suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their surprise, that this medicine, which it being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the face-like signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.
