

MILITIA ATTACK BALL'S BLIND TIGER

Shelby Ball, Brother of Jack Ball, Wanted for Murder, Thought to Have Been Shot.

ASSAULT IS TO BE RESUMED

Reign of Terror is Said to Exist at Middlesboro, Ky.—More Troops Are Needed.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—A bulletin to the Courier-Journal from a staff correspondent sent to Middlesboro reads as follows: "Militia and a sheriff's posse attacked Shelby Ball, a brother of Jack Ball, who is wanted for murder, in thought to have been shot. "Attacking party fell back slowly toward Middlesboro. "A party of Indianapolis tourists had a narrow escape from flying bullets. The balls have cut telegraph wires to Cumberland Gap. The Louisville & Nashville railroad officials have been asked for arms and ammunition by a citizens' committee. Attacks on Ball's stronghold will be renewed tonight."

MORE SOLDIERS NEEDED. Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 5.—A special to the Journal and Tribune from Middlesboro, Ky., tells of a reign of terror in that border line city that threatens to rival in violence the bloody feud of Breathitt county. The Middlesboro militia company spent Sunday afternoon in the mountains after a lawless gang, said to be headed by Frank Ball, a brother of the murderer of John Bowen, a soldier. Ball is reported to have with him a crowd of at least 40 men, who intend to resist his arrest to the last. Four miles from Middlesboro the soldiers today attacked a "blind tiger" and killed it with steel bullets. They succeeded in capturing nine of the men. Returning to town a police of the company showed the absence of three men, whose whereabouts is unknown. "Thought the town is comparatively quiet, but all telephone wires have been cut except the line to Knoxville. Gov. Beckham has been asked to send more soldiers and another company is expected tomorrow, as the local militia men are worn out by constant duty of the past three days. The Middlesboro company is in charge of Capt. George W. Albrecht, a leading citizen, who, in September last, was editor of the Middlesboro News. Secrecy is preserved by both citizens and soldiers and it is reported that a telegrapher has been warned not to send out news of the disturbance to any papers.

MYAR OPERA HOUSE.

Finest Building in El Paso Destroyed by Fire.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 5.—The Myar opera house, erected in 1887 and considered by many as the finest building between San Antonio, Texas, and Los Angeles, was totally destroyed by fire last night. Beside the playhouse and a hotel there was a number of stores located in the building. The total loss is over $100,000. The guests of the hotel were unable to save anything. The Crawford theatrical circuit company of Topeka, Kan., held a lease on the theater. The theater was owned by Henry Myar of Camden, Ark.

Morris cannot be elected. Beat Kearns' Americans with Lynch.—Advertisement.

A TERRIBLE MISTAKE.

A Father Shoots His Daughter Thinking Her a Burglar.

Edinburg, Pa., Nov. 5.—Believing that he was shooting at a burglar, Hayden B. Craft, a well known hardware merchant of this place, killed his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Coddington, at their home in apartments over the hardware store in West Main street today.

TORNAD KILLS EIGHT PERSONS.

Thirty Others Were Injured, Four Of Them Fatally, Down in Mountain View, Okla.

NO DAMAGE DONE OUTSIDE.

Pathway of Storm About a Hundred Yards Wide and Only a Mile In Length.

Mountain View, Okla., Nov. 5.—Eight persons were killed and 30 injured, four fatally, by yesterday's tornado. Following is a revised list of the dead:

DEAD. W. T. White, Frank W. Clark, J. S. Warkley, Mrs. Jennie Jones, Mrs. W. M. Holt and two small children, Mrs. Robert Hulme.

FATALLY INJURED. Ed. Hollis, Mrs. E. McBride, Child of W. M. Holt, Mrs. J. M. Barkley.

No damage was done outside of the town. The pathway of the tornado is one hundred yards wide and only one mile long, but within this small area the havoc was great.

The Farmers' cotton gin, with heavy machinery and massive timbers, is a complete wreck. In this building J. S. Barkley, employed as baker in the gin, was crushed to death. His body was found pinned under the debris near the press, his head and shoulders crushed into the ground. The Barkley home, which was near the gin, was carried about 200 yards and dropped. Mrs. Barkley was found imbedded in the mud in the street, her head and face covered with wounds.

Further to the northeast was the Shaw feed yards, where five horses were crushed to death. Adjoining the feed yard was the Hulme home, where Mrs. Hulme and her brother, Frank Clarke, were found dead. The North Side hotel, near the point is a mass of broken timbers. Directly east, in the edge of town, is the wreck of a carriage in which seven members of the Hollis family, who were just leaving town, were struck by timbers. J. E. Hollis, Joseph T. Hollis, Ed. Hollis and John Gudon were severely injured by flying timbers from the gin.

Ed. Hollis is thought to be fatally injured, as portions of the splintered timbers penetrated his body. The large two-story schoolhouse was lifted straight up in the air, turned completely over and crashed down upon the roof of the Methodist church. The Methodist church is also a complete wreck. The Christian church, which was used as a school building, was totally destroyed. Many residences were unroofed. The sides of some houses were crushed in.

HEAD OF SUSAN GEARY PROBABLY HAS BEEN FOUND

Recovered From a Leather Handbag From the Bottom of Boston Harbor—Still Hunting for People Wanted.

Boston, Nov. 5.—What is confidently believed to be the head of Susan A. Geary, the dress suit case victim, was recovered in a leather handbag from the bottom of the harbor today. It was dragged to the surface very near the point where Lewis W. Crawford and William Howard, who have confessed to disposing of the dismembered body of the girl, said they dropped it from the stern of an East Boston ferry boat.

The head completes the body of the girl. The trunk was found on Sept. 1 and the limbs were picked up on Oct. 27. The leather bag in which the head had been placed, together with the pockets of loose shot, did not move, apparently, from the place where it sank.

The bag with its contents was taken to the Howard street undertaking establishment and will be viewed by Medical Examiner Francis A. Harris tomorrow. The head was in a good state of preservation, and it is thought by the police that it will be readily recognized as that of Miss Geary.

The police continued the search for Miss Geary's body, who is said to have had charge of the home in which Miss Geary died after being removed from the Tremont street resort. The hunt for the woman was without result, and it is believed that she left the city as soon as she learned of the arrest of Crawford and Howard. Crawford and Howard will probably remain in New York for several days, until the necessary papers for their extradition are approved by Gov. Higgins.

Morris Nathan, the lover of Miss Geary, will be arraigned in court tomorrow on a charge of abortion. Dr. H. D. McLeod, who was arrested in the Back Bay district Friday for alleged complicity in the case, left town today for a few days. He is under bond of $20,000.

The police believe that they have evidence to show that other similar cases have occurred in this city, and the bodies of the several victims have been disposed of secretly. When asked tonight concerning the alleged confessions of Lewis W. Crawford and William Howard, the New York prisoners, Chief Watts of the Boston bureau of criminal investigation, who has returned from that city, said: "All I will say is that the confession of these two men is the most startling and sensational story I have ever heard. I do not like to think of it. It is a terrible story, and the most remarkable thing in all that I have heard of in my years of police service."

The prisoners, Morris Nathan, who was brought here from Pittsburg, and Dr. Percy D. McLeod, who was arrested in Boston Friday, are all charged with the same crime, abortion.

beer who was aboard said that by slowing down to 10 knots the bow guns could have been fought as well.

Socialist Suffrage Demonstration. Vienna, Nov. 5.—The socialist suffrage demonstration on the Ringstrasse today was attended by 50,000 persons. A strong force of gendarmes were stationed along the streets, but did not interfere with the demonstrations, and the socialists were even permitted to hoist red flags over the reherath building. There were no disorders whatever, and similar demonstrations are reported from Lumburg, Graz, Klagenfurt, Bremen and elsewhere.

The Neue Freie Presse states that Premier Gaudoh von Frankenthum will introduce a universal suffrage bill at the reopening of the Reichstag.

Killed Wife, Shot Himself. Los Angeles, Nov. 5.—Ira Celer, a 40-year-old man, today shot and instantly killed his wife and then shot himself through the forehead and died in the receiving hospital five hours later. The shooting was done with a revolver. The immediate cause of the killing was a quarrel over $4, but the couple have not lived together happily and the woman had recently begun suit for divorce. The family came here from Pennsylvania the first of the year.

CRUISER WEST VIRGINIA. Her Run With President a Splendid Performance.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The armored cruiser West Virginia, flagship of Admiral Benson's squadron, made the run from South Pass at the mouth of the Mississippi river to Cape Henry, Va., when she brought President Roosevelt home from his southern trip, at an average speed of 15.22 knots an hour, but for the storm encountered off the Carolina coast the average would have been better. It was demonstrated to President Roosevelt that while the West Virginia was plowing through the great waves kicked up by the gale, it would have been possible to have fought the broadside and stern guns, and an of-fever summary tonight is as follows: New cases, 1; total cases, 57. Deaths, none; total, 13. Cases under treatment, 22; discharged, 46.
