Special Correspondence. Pleasant Grove, Utah Co., Sept. 2. Marion Adamson, the 16-year-old son of Thomas Adamson, of this place, ac-cidentally shot himself in his right wrist while hunding on the "Bald" mountain east of town yesterday morn ing. The main artery was completely town away and about four inches of the wrist badly lacerated. The physicians fear the member will have to be am-putated. There were two companions with the young man at the time of the accident which happened in this manner: Young Adamson was sitting on a large rock to rest, when his gun (a double barrel shot gun) slipped, one of the hammers struck the rock, exploding one barrel, his clothing was torn on his body, making a close call for his life. His companions bound up the wound as best they could and the trio made their way for home, one came ahead, procured a conveyance and met the unfortunate lad at the mouth of the canyon Last year this family had a girl frightfully burned and her life was despaired of for months. Zina Jeffery Taylor, the bride of a year gave birth to a beautiful baby girl on the 13th of August. The babe is thrivinug nicely but the mother was ill until the morning of August 29th when her sufferings were ended and a devoted husband, many relatives and hosts of friends were left to mourn her departure from this life. She had scarcely lived a quarter of a century. She was a stanch Latter-day Saint and had been a faithful and conscientious worker in the Y.L.M.I.A. Sunday school and Primary for years and her example has always been one worthy of imitation. The last sad rites were held over the remains of Sister Taylor this afternoon The meeting house had been draped and decorated by loving hands and her girl associates were dressed in white The house was filled to overflowing dur ing the services and though it was a stormy, disagreeable day, nearly ev ery one followed the remains to the cemetery, where they bade a sad fare-
