RACES AT OAKLAND.

Several Good Things Went Through Yesterday-Money Makers Win.

San Francisco, Jan. S .- Severa' good things went through at Oakland today. One of the best of the season was Ellitt, a colt in the string of Walter Jennings. He started in the seven furlong handleap, for which Gaviota was favor. te, and was played from 10 to 1 to 4), o 1. a time when I could, you know, but you folks did not apparently care thes to take on Jordan. However, I will be able to yet you know all about it, and that at a very early date, I think." The two men then entered into a discussion regarding a carnival of fist. ouffs during Derby week in London, was suggested that should it be a ranged for McGovern to go to London Harris will also bring along Johnny Reagan, the featherweight, and Cain, the lightweight, these two to be pitted against two equally good Eng-lish lads, Harry Ware and Jack Palmer, respectively. Manager Harris told Dr. Ordway that he would be willing to bet that the American stable would win all three fights. It was Manage Harris' idea that McGovern and Jor an should meet on Derby night, and that the others clash on succeeding nights. Dr. Ordway fancied Manager Harris' scheme, and said that he would nake the proposition as laid down by Harris in his cable to the management

f the National Sporting club, "Is there anything new in regard to McGovern and Young Corbett?" was asked Manager Harris later. "No,' 'raid Harris, thoughtfully,' "I am in touch with Corbett, who is at Hot Springs, you know. We are still waiting to hear from the Louisville club people. Unless they come to time that contest will have to go to San Fran-claco, I suppose. Corbett will very likely pick as the date the 15th or 22nd of February. Terry will remain al Mount Clemens until he hears from me that everything has been settled one way or the other. He will leave for whichever place the lads are to meet n time to give him about four weeks of good, hard training."

FUTURE OF BASEBALL.

John M. Ward Has Something to Say On the Subject.

John M. Ward, who could have had the National league presidency had he been willing to accept it, has some original views in regard to the future of baseball. In a recent article writ-ten for a New York paper he says: "Two decades from now it may be no longer a mere exhibition-for that is all that it is now-an exhibition of the abil-ity of a clever manager, with more noney and more tact in managerial council, to get together the best playrs in the market-it will be a locally atriotic game for blood.

"The time is coming when the play-ers, instead of being bought to play in any team that calls them, irrespective of where they live and where the team is located, will belong in the locality from which the teams halls. There is a tendency apparent in that direction already." "Of course, if this is done, there will he some work for the rules committee to do. It will be necessary to have some sort of legislation to apportion the territory fairly among the teams. New York, being the largest city in the United States, by virtue of its size, would have the advantage of a smaller city, like Boston or Baltimore, and to even up matters it would be necessary committee to give the smaller towns enough territory to make all available population the same. The de-talls must be decided by the events of the future. But I believe that somethe future. But I believe that some-thing like that is about to come and will be the feature of the game of base ball in 1922.

ARTIFICIAL RUBLES.

The manufacture of artificial rubies which in appearance are as good as the natural stones, is now an accomplished fact. A demonstration of this achievement was given to the memebrs of the Academie des Sciences yesterday after-

Suddenly Decides to Get Into Line And Bar Colored Men.

Young Corbett will create quite a laugh through the country when his an-nouncement about drawing the color line gains circulation. He announced from Hot Springs yesterday that he would not in the future meet a colored man, just because Gans was allowed to box in Connecticut and he, Corbett, refused a license.

This comes rather at a late day for the champion in view of the fact that he has fought "Birdlegs" Collins, Jimmy McGuire, Ray Streeter, George Dix-on and others. All the above knights of the padded mitt were of ebony hue. Nine times out of 10 when fighter draws the color line it is because he fea a boy in black will pluck his laurels. This is why Jimmy Britt bars Gans. But Britt has never met a colored boy in his life, while Corbett has. Guess Corbett made the statement in haste and will forget all about it when he gets a chance to fight a good colored boy. Drawing the color line is again appearing as a fad and the champion wanted to be in fashion. PUGILISTIC CARNIVAL.

An Interesting Time Arranged for London Ring Followers.

According to recent advices New York three good American fight-ers, with the redoubtable Terry Mc-Govern at their head, are likely to soon meet three slashing English pugilists, with the whiriwind Benny Jordan in their lead. The contests may occur in London, though there is a chance of their being pulled off in this country. This afternoon Dr. Ordway, the Amerlcan representative of the Nationa Sporting club of London, strolled into the Marlborough hotel. Sammy Har ris, manager of McGovern, was there, chatting with a part yof friends.

"How about Terry and Jordan meet-ing for a go at the National Sporting club on Derby night?' 'asked the doc tor, as he shook hands with Manager Harris.

"Perfectly agreeable to me to have Terry meet Jordan," said Sammy, "I inducements are offered, and I will bet $5,000 on the outside that Terry will win.

"You would be sure of getting that much on at least,' 'said Dr. Ordway "as the English sports are confident Jordan can best McGovern."

"What will the National club offer?" asked Harris. "That I cannot state positively at present," said the doctor, "but I will cable, and when I ascertain will let you know." 'Manager Harris stated that he had some shows in Europe and might have to go to the other side before long to after their interests. "If I do have to go over there," said Sammy, "I would just as soon as not take Terry along to meet Jordan or any other boy." "They will be glad to have you come, I know," said the doctor. "But if we don't go to the other side," said Harris, "what is the matter with Jordan coming to America? If he agrees to do so we will guarantee him 1500 expenses and will bet $10,000 to $5,000 or in any amount at odds of 2 to that Terry will defeat Jordan. "I cannot discuss that matter at this time," said Dr. Ordway. "There was
