The ancient city of Trondiyem clad in her spring robes received the Elders and Saints with a smile of welcome. One of the most beautiful halls in the was provided for the occasion, and p. m. of the first day an intelligent attentive audience greeted the kers. We were favored with the speakers. resence of Elder McMurrin of the pres dency of the European mission. Sister Booth spoke on the object and duties of life. Elder Skanchy related some of his early missionary experiences. next meeting was held at 4 p. m. Elder C. D. Fjeldsted delivered an earnest and vigorous discourse. Elder J. M. Lauritzen spoke briefly on how God calls His servants. At 8 p. m., meeting was addressed by Elder Mc-Murrin. Elder Skanchy bore a strong testimony to the truth of the Gospel. Elder Ronnow having been released as president of the conference, spoke briefly testifying to the good feeling existing among the Elders and Saints. Elder McMurrin and Sister Booth spoke through an interpreter. Several sessions of the Priesthood were held and many valuable instructions were imparted by the leading brethren. From the reports it appeared that the conference was in a good healthy condition. The various public meetings were well attended by strangers. One thing that did much towards the success of our meetings was the excellent singing by the choir under the leader-ship of Prof. Olsen of Elsinore.

IN KENTUCKY.

The Work Flourishes in Rowan, Fleming, Lawrence and Elliott Counties.

Elders John W. Prince and David F. write from Newcombe, county, under date of July 22nd thus: To us the "News" is always a welcome visitor, for through it we learn of the missionary work that is being carried on in the different nations of the earth and the progress of the work of the Lord which is ever the topic of our minds.

Since our conference, which was held in Louisville, June 1st and 2nd, we have been laboring in Rowan, Fleming, Lawrence and Elliott counties, where there are some flourishing branches of there are some nourishing branches of the Church and two prosperous Sunday schools, which are held at private houses on account of our churches be-ing burned a few years ago. But many people are still being led to investigate the Gospel and are obtaining testimonies of the same.

We have had the privilege of leading few honest persons into the waters of baptism and this greatly excited the ministers who revived the mob spirit once more. In one district a mob was gathered to break up our meetings, and their feeble efforts only caused more to investigate, and some who wouldn't have anything to do with the Elders before gave us a standing invitation to come and spend a night with them. We are enjoying our labors and feel to thank our Heavenly Father for the privilege we have of proclaiming the Gospel to people who are in spiritual darkness. Our testimonies are grow-ing stronger every day. We have seen the sick instantly healed by the laying on of hands, besides many other manifestations in our behalf. The Saints where we have visited deserve great praise for their integrity and persistent efforts in the Gospel, as they set an example that is not only worthy of imitation by the world at large but by a great many people in Zion also. They are nearly all total abstainers from tea, coffee, tobacco and strong drinks; observe the regular fastday and some of them walk seven miles to attend Sunday school and are ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh them a reason for the hope that it in them with meek-the picnic As published last week, it was the in-tention to hold the picnic at Pine Bluff, Elder J. M. Lauritzen, in a letter from where the tram road crosses Telogia creek, and excellent preparations were made for the comfort and enjoyment of all who attended, without regard to creed or denominational affiliations, as the invitation was extended to all who wished to participate. But the manag-ers, fearing that it might rain, had the forethought to prepare the church, about a half mile from the Bluff in case of need, and because of rain and threatenings of more, here was where it was held. The Church was comfortably filled with spectators and partici-pants in the exercises, and everything passed off without a hitch, and glided along as smoothly as a placid stream. There were no balks or errors made, and all entered into the spirit of the oc-casion with pleasant zest and alacrity, entertainers and entertained all having a most enjoyable time. We have but one kick to enter against the arrange ment of the proceedings. We protest against the canvas dividing the audience and the participants in the program. It serves no good purpose, but only obscures from view the pretty girls and women we young (?) fellows mostly do congregate at such places to see; besides, they want to see the boys, and really it is a pleasure that should not be denied them. You're excused this time, Messrs. Managers, but please abolish the screen at your future entertainments. At the noon hour an intermission was taken for dinner, and all present were invited to partake, and the invitation was accepted as readily as it was given. At the rear of the church was a long table, built the day previous, which was covered with substantial food, delica-cles and nicnacks that would tempt the palate of the most fastidious epicure, and it was noteworthy for its abun-If any there didn't get enough to eat, they must have hidden in the bushes, as one couldn't well turn round without being importuned to eat or drink something. The feast terminated in a cool watermelon matinee, and then conversation and the compliments usual on such occasions were indulged in. Ye scribe would here take occasion to return thanks to Mrs. S. J. Bauldree, Mrs. Alice Hays, Mr. J. E. Peddle and others for the courtesles shown him during the dinner hour. Their kindness is highly appreciated, indeed, Soon after dinner, the assemblage reentered the church and proceeded with the program to its completion, which consumed the time until about three o'clock, when the assemblage was dismissed with a benediction by Mr. W. After the dismissal, the members and others gathered in groups and engaged in converse and otherwise enjoyed themselves as the occasion permitted; while others assembled at the organ and enjoyed themselves with music and

Finally, at the approach of the evening shades, the assemblage gradually dispersed, with the satisfaction of having spent a pleasant day, and going home well satisfied with the success they had attained in spite of the unpropitious weather.

We herewith give you a short report of our branch conference, which, after some opposition, we succeeded in hold-ing at this place, July 20 and 21. We were refused the use of school house and church alike but were promised the use of a private hall for which we agreed to pay, but when we began to make our arrangements satan also began to work, and through his servants succeeded in the eleventh hour in having our hall contract countermanded, when we set to work to build a bowery at the rented home of one of the Saints. Brother A. C. Courtney's, where satan again made manifest his power through the landlord refusing to let us cut brush for our bowery. But as in all other cases success crowned the efforts of the faithful. Brother B. J. Cooper offered us all the brush we wanted. which we got by hauling it about one and a half miles. All being in readiness, the weather added to our comfort by being cloudy, but without rain. Eight Elders, including the president and council, with many Saints and some friends were seated at 10 a. m. Saturday morning, when the conference was called to order by President R. D. Green. After devo-tional exercises the following named Elders, Ira De Mill, W. C. Crump and J. D. Thorn, spoke in plainness to the people on the first principles of the Gospel, after which an adjournment was taken until 2 p. m. The intermission was pleasantly and profitably spent in greetings and conversations, until we were again called together by our beloved president. After the opening exercises were through First Counselor W. J. Nix addressed us, comparing the doctrines of Christ with the doctines of men as advocated by the so-called Christian ministers. He was followed by L. G. West, who touched upon the apostasy and urged the necessity of seeking the

STAKE CONFERENCES.

Alberta Stake.

Cardston, Alberta, July 20.-The quarterly conference of the Alberta Stake of Zion was held by appointment on Saturday and Sunday, June 29th and 30th, 1901, in the Cardston ward meeting house.

Elder C. O. Card, president of the Elder C. O. Card, president of the Stake, presiding, Present on the stand, of the Quorum of Tweive Apostles, were Elders John W. Taylor and Mathias F. Cowley; of the presidency of the Stake, Charles O. Card and Thomas Duce; Patriarchs H. L. Hin-man, J. A. Woolf, Theodore Brandley and D. H. Caldwell, Sen.; the Bishops of the vertex and badder Fl. of the various wards, and leading Elders of the Stake, Saturday, June 29th, 10 a.m. After the opening exercises, favorable reports of the condition of the members of the Magrath, Caldwell, Leavitt, Kimball, Mountain View, Ætna, and Beezer wards were given by their representa-

Elder John W. Taylor then gave some pointed instructions in regard to the manner of administering to the sick among the Saints, and the spirit necessary to be enjoyed in going forth in that ordinance, in order to gain the blessings desired.

Elder John W. Woolf reported the Y.
M. M. I. A. of the Stake, there being nine organizations, and over 300 members in all; the labors assigned to that body being carried on with energy and system, fair results accruing. Elder H. S. Allen reported the Sunday Last winter Elders J. T. Lisonbee and Cowley addressed the conference encouraging When I shook hands with them I felt the Saints to continue in well doing and to strive to keep the laws and rethat I was facing the true servants of God. I loved them from the first. He spoke my surprise, that the "Mormons" held more Scripture than I had. I read and prayed for knowledge and I came to forcibly on the efficacy of observing the conclusion that the "Mormons" had law of tithing to the letter, showing the Gospel in its purity. My old friends that neglect of duty and committing soon began to persecute me and the Devil turned his imps loose, and what sin, speedily brought darkness, doubt and finally apostacy to those who had obeyed the Gospel.

Elder H. L. Hinman made the clossurprised me most of all was that there were so many of them in the churches, hiding under the cloak of religion. As Eider James Eldridge and Chales McCarty followed, hearing testimo...y to the truths of the Gospel.

Elder M. F. Cowley followed, showing conclusively that the coming forth of the Gospel in this dispensation was in fulfillment of ancient prophecy; that the organization of the Church in the last days was a perfect fac simile of the organization in the days of our Savier, and that the ordinances of the Church in this day possess the same Church in this day possess the same efficacy and power, on the same condi-tions that they ever did.

In the afternoon after the opening exercises and administration of the sacc rament, Elder M. F. Cowley spoke with great power upon the efficacy of the great sacrifice offered on Calvary, and the sacred duty of commemorating the same from Sabbath to Sabbath in the proper spirit and forcibly impressed upon the Saints the necessity of overcoming the weakness of the flesh that they might be prepared for the coming of our Lord and Savior in power and glory, which is nigh at our doors. Patriarch Henry L. Hinman being called upon, by virtue of his calling, blessed the Saints, and invoked heaven's blessings upon all.

Conference adjourned until September 1st and 2nd. SYLVESTER LOW, Stake Clerk.

Juab Stake.

The Juab Stake quarterly conference was held at Nephl tabernacle Sunday and Monday, July 21st and 22nd.

Those occupying the stand were Elders George Teadale, Mathias F. Cowley and Rudger Clawson, of the Council of Apostles; Elder B. F. Grant, Stake President J. W. Paxima and Counselers Chas. Sparry and Isaac H. Counselors Chas, Sperry and Isaac H.

The visiting brethren, during the two days, spoke on the necessity of constant revelation and renewed testimony. Each member of the Church should so live as to be in receipt of the Holy Spirit to dictate to them those things that will be for their best good.
The authorities are placed in the Church to be the leaders of the Saints and we should give listening ear to them and do as they instruct us; and not always be of a contrary mind and opposing them in all things. They are inspired of the Lord and if we are doing His will we will be able to receive their instructions and know that they will be for our good. The presidency of the Church and a majority of the Twelve Apostles will always be of one mind, so we can always have a key note which way to act on any subject that comes before the Church.

Parents should give their children proper instructions pertaining to the Gospel and use every endeavor to have them walk in the fear of the Lord. They will be held accountable for the actions of their children if they do not ise the utmost caution to see that

It is a shame that the people cannot be educated to be punctual in their satherings and callings. This is one thing we should all strive to do. We are very much like the parable of the five wise and five foolish virgins in our Church work. About half of ur are not keeping oil in our lamps, and if we do not retrace our steps are likely to be caught when our oil is all gone.

If the people are united they can accomplish almost anything. The people were exhorted to be united in their efforts in building the mammoth res-

ley. In unison there is strength and the Saints ought to be a strong body

Elder Paxman exhorted the people to have their entertainments and socials in the spirit and under the influence of the various associations, so that the old and young may mingle together and keep, to a certain extent, the influ-ence of the evil one from among the young.

Other local authorities spoke and gave some timely advice. The singing from the choir was of a very choice kind.

A. R. PAXMAN, Clerk.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES

Elder B. C. Call, of Willard, Boxelder Co., was set apart on the 4th day of May, 1899, for a mission to the southwestern states. He has been laboring in the West Arkansas conference the first year, and then was transferred to the mission office at St. John, Kansas, where he performed the duties of secretary of the mission. When the office was removed to Kansas City, he was made first counselor to the president of the mission, which position he held when released. He returned home on the 24th of July last.

Elder James L. Jensen of Hyrum. Cache county, returned home August 1 from a mission to Sweden, for which field of labor he left in May, 1899. Dur-ing his absence he presided over the Gothenberg conference. He reports the work there as very encouraging, accessions to the Church membership being constantly made

Elder Jonathan Campbell of Rosette, Boxelder county, returned from his misison to northwestern Virginia 31. He was set apart Sept. 22. He accompanied Elder Henry July 31. Pugmire, who has been and is still quite sick, home and bore him company to the latter's home in Montpeller, Ida

Elder Warren Longquist and wife, of Afton, Wyo., returned August 1 from the Samoan mission, to which they were set apart Nov. 26, 1898. They report the mission as being in a pros-perous condition. She organized the first young ladies' society in the islands, while Elder Longquist organized the first martial band in the islands.
