

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH. - Dec. 4, 1894.

SUING THE RAILROAD.

Fifty Thousand Dollars Wanted By Mrs. English's Family.

A suit has been filed in the Fourth district court by Evans & Rogers on behalf of Jane English and family against the Southern Pacific Railroad company and the Ogden Union Depot company for $50,000 damages. Mrs. English lost her life on accident which occurred at the Twenty-fourth street crossing. The complaint alleges that the negligence of the defendants, by having provided an unsafe crossing and no protection whatever, resulted in the death of Mrs. English and the loss of her family.

The Judge's Charge.

Judge King's charge to the grand jury called their attention to election irregularities and the importance of the laws with regard to the election, gambling and houses of prostitution.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH. - Dec. 3, 1894.

Non-Partisan School Nominations.

The primaries at which were to be selected candidates for the school board, were held on Wednesday, December 5, at 7 o'clock in the evening. The school board was composed of a strictly non-partisan body, with highly gratifying results. In the whole where Democrats were to be placed in nomination, Republicans were elected to the school board. Each meeting was well attended by representatives of both parties, with highly gratifying results. The school board was elected on Wednesday, December 5, at 7 o'clock in the evening. A Veteran Dead.

Nicholas Christensen, one of the pioneers and leading agricultural authorities of the Ogden Park, died last Wednesday evening of a heart ailment at the home. He had been seriously ill for two days previous to his death, and on Wednesday morning he was unable to get out of bed. He was a veteran of the Civil War, and had been in the service of the United States for many years. He was a well-known and respected citizen, and his death was a great loss to the community.

Successful Hunters.

Niels Nielsen and Albert Lang came in last week from a hunting trip in the mountains east of Logan, bringing with them two mountain sheep. Nielsen had a narrow escape from being eaten up by one of the lions, which he narrowly avoided at the first shot. The lion was killed with a single shot, and the sheep were taken home. Nielsen and Lang were successful hunters, and their trip was a most successful one.

Chamber of Commerce.

At the monthly meeting held on the evening of November 27th, a reorganization of the Logan chamber of commerce was effected. More than fifty business men signing the roll, Dr. Grant of Salt Lake, Trepan Smith and J. S. Stewart, of Logan, addressed the meeting in favor of the reorganization. A motion was made, and carried, that the chamber be reorganized. The meeting was a most successful one, and the chamber of commerce was reorganized.

Meetings in Idaho.

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho, Nov. 28, 1894. - Two interesting meetings were held in Blackfoot last week. One was held at the Blackfoot hotel, and the other at the Blackfoot school house. Both meetings were most successful, and the community was greatly benefited.

Valued Indorsement

of Scott's Emulsion is contained in letters from the medical profession speaking of its gratifying results in their practice.

Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil with Hypophosphites can be administered when plain oils are out of the question. It is almost as palatable as milk—easier to digest than milk.
