THERMOMETER 34° in the shade at one o clock to-day. "THEATRE.—A large audience assembled on Saturday evening to witness the last presentation of "East and West," which went off in excellent style, to the great satisfaction of the audience. For this evening there is a very interest-ing programme, consisting of Watt's Phillips' great three act drama of "No-body's Child," and Mr Beaman's grand stereoptic exhibition of photographs of the magnificent scenery of Green River and Colorado kanyons, also of the Moquis pablos or towns and houses, interior and exterior, with a group fo Moquis or Aztecs, and views of the Arizona diamond fields. The exhibition of these views is announce stereoptic exhibition of photographs of the msgnificent scenery of Green River and Colorado kanyons, also of the Moquis pablos or towns and houses, interior and exterior, with a group fo Moquis or Aztecs, and views of the Arizona diamond fields. The exhibition of these views is announced for two evenings only, this and to-mor-row, and cannot fail to be highly interesting to all. ing to all. In "Nobody's" Child, Mr. F. M. Bates takes the part of "Joe, Nobody's Child," and Miss Walters that of "Patty Lavrock, Joe's true friend." Other characters are assumed by Miss Voeller, and Messrs. Thorne, Margetts, Hudley, Paul and others. Ou Wednesday the benefit of Mr. F. M. Bates is announced, when no doubt an eniteing bill will be presented.

AT AUSTIN .- The Carter troupe is performing at Austin, Nev., and the people of that place propose a complimentary benefit for Carrie.

POLITICAL DEBATE .- C. W. Vendall and C. C. Gotdman, the rival congressional candidates from the State of Nevada, in-Unleed in a political debate at Pioche on Wednesday night, in which they discussed the merits of the campaign.

BELLIGEBENT .- On Saturday 'evening, Ed. George went with a knife after a negro. When the officers attempted to arrest him he resisted, and made an effort to cut and siash at them. Officer Philips, however, grasped the hand which held the haife and threw the fellow over. In the singgle George's pants were torn to such an extent that they fell off, and he marched in the City Hall minus those nether gar-ments. He was placed in the lockup pend-ing a trial before Justice Clinton.

At date of writing, Oct. 11th, Major Powell, Jacob Hamblin and others of the Powell, Jacob Hamblin and others of the Powell party were on their way to visit the Moquitch, Oribas and Navajoes, and were going to Fort Defiance. A ferry was shortly to be opened across the Pahreah, which would be very conve-nient for miners and prospectors. Good crops had been raised the past sea-son at Pahreah, and a post office had been granted to the settlers, which, however, was not yet in running order.

COMMENCED SUIT .- Kate Flint, owner of one of the demi monde establishments on Commercial street, which were abated as nuisances by a writ of abatement issued from the Justice's Court, has commenced suit against parties supposed to have been engaged in demolishing the furniture and engaged in demolishing the furniture and other effects in the house referred to. The charge alleged in the complaint against the defendants is the "willful and malicious destruction of property," amounting, ac-cording to the plaintiff's papers, to $9,171.20. The amount sued for by the plaintiff is $27,513.60, just three times the value of the property alleged to have been destroyed. The papers; were being served on the defendants in the suit this merning by Sheriff R. T. Burton. Sheriff R. T. Burton.

FROM THE "JUNCTION."-From the Ogden Junction, of Saturday, we learn the following:

A meeting of citizens of Ogden was held on Saturday morning to consider the ne-cessity of taking immediate steps to build the Utah Northern from Ogden to its pre-sent junction with the C. P. Vice Presi-dent W. B. Preston, of Logan, and Supt. Smith, of Brigham City, were present. ... "It was settled beyond question that the Weber County division should be com-menced forthwith. Lorin Farr, Esq., was appointed Superintendent, and Joseph West, Esq., engineer of the Weber County division. Bids for contracts to grade the road will be received and let on the ground next Tuesday morning." The Junction is informed that some indiana camped near North Ogden have a
