Pure Food for the Children

Impure food that may not seriously affect the stronger digestive organs of an adult will frequently cause the most serious illness in a child. Too frequently this important fact is overlooked, and children are made sick from eating articles | ving the title to certain valuable lands

A child's food is largely cakes and bread, and these articles when light, sweet, and composed of materials free from deleterious substances are easily digested, nutritious, and relatively and possessed since the respectively and the results of great value, including the race course, Metairie Ridge Cemetery and the shell road and the railroad from New Orleans to Lake Poncharam. This property has been claimed and possessed since the midwholesome. But there is a danger to our children lurking in their bread and cake apt to be lost sight of. When these articles are made from pure and wholesome baking powder, they are much more healthful and nutritious than when prepared from yeast or other leavening agent. But the danger arises from the fact -as shown by the tests made by the Government chemists, and by many State and Municipal Boards of Health—that most of these baking powders are so impure as to render the food unwholesome. In fact, chemical analyses have developed the fact that all the baking powders now upon the market, with the single exception of the Royal Baking Powder, contain either lime, alum, phosphates, or acids of an injurious character. Therefore, when bread or cake is made with the use of these adulterated baking powders, the ingredients pass into the delicate organs of childhood, and are the source of very much of organs of childhood, and are the source of very much of the disease with which our children are afflicted.

Persons who have not strong constitutions, growing girls, young children, and many ladies, are particularly liable to the evil effects produced by the adulterants found in these cheap baking powders. Heartburn and the prevalent forms of indigestion are often solely traceable to their action on the delicate coats of the stomach. Prof. Willard Parker, U. S. Surgeon-General Hammond, Prof. Alonzo Clark, and other eminent physicians all over the country, have spoken most earnestly of the evils arising from such food.

The absolute purity and wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder are unquestioned. The official reports of the U. S. Government Chemists have put this fact beyond all controversy. Prof. Mott reported that the Royal was undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder made. Prof. Love's report showed it to be of the highest strength, while Prof. McMurtrie, Chemist-in-Chief of the U. S. Agricultural Department, at Washington, D. C., found the Royal the only baking powder in the country free from both lime and alum, and absolutely pure.

There should be as much care in the choice of a baking powder as in obtaining pure milk, or in having a prescription bread and cake are assured only by the use of the Royal Chase will be held at the rotunda of the compounded from pure drugs and not from poisons. Pure Baking Powder.

The New York stock market was active, feverish and influenced by a highly speculative feeling. Prices advanced irregularly, although toward the close of the market a quieter feeling pre-confidence on all sides of good demand in the near future. Pig iron is now $1 per ton higher in all directions. Southern and Western furnaces are heavily sold ahead, and a demand for 3,000 tons from a dozen consumers in New York for early delivery would put No. 1 up $2 per ton. For this grade $19 is now asked, with he probability of $20 being reached by January.

Dry goods are firm. Print cloths are higher and brown and bleached sheetngs are fractionally higher. Stocks are not increasing. Wool is quieter but strong. In spite of the speculative buying, the home price is below the foreign. The loss of cotton in Texas by the late storm is reported to amount to over 30,000

THE STRIKERS.

Their Numbers Increase—A Riot, CHICAGO, 8.-This afternoon a large ody of additional workmen went on a strike, and a riot occurred at the works of John Morrill, when a number of persons were hurt. The entire police force of the town of Lake has gone to the scene, and two Pinkerton men armed with rifles have gone to the scene. The riot was caused owing to the attempt of some of Morrill's men to return to work. Eight thousand nen are now on a strike.
One hundred and fifty-three Pinkerton detectives sat down to a supper at the Transi' House with Winchester repra ing rifles between their knees. "apt. Foley, in charge, said that by to-morrow he would have 500 men in and mout the yards as an emergency com-mittee. The Pinkertons arrived at the yards at 4 o'clock via the Lake Shore Railroad, and was greeted by derisive cells from the crowd of 2,000 which diled the street. The men went to the rown hall and were all sworn in as specials. Then they were taken back into the cars. The crowd made it so unpleasant that Captain Foley formed his command into four companies and headed for the Transit House. The strikers express the idea that the packers have a to fill the houses with new men willing to work ten hours. It is said that to this end the employers had been collecting men at outside points for months. The feature of the strike to-day was the beef men coming out at Armour's. This was a surprise to the packers, who apparently intended to confine the fight to the hog interests. The firm is left with 4,300 head of cattle in their yard to feed. Armour's coopers came out also. They had asked for 25 cents advance and it had not been granted. It is estimated that there are now 20,000 men out of work, about one-quarter of whom are strikers, the others being obliged to quit on their account, for want of work. The strikers are skilled workmen, the others being laborers. These others, though not technically strikers, appear to be in hearty sympathy with the movement. The men all quit with their knives and other sharpedged tools in their possession. A mass meeting of the strikers has been called for to-morrow afternoon, at which it is feared trouble may develop. Fully 15,000 persons are expected to be

Exciting Robbery

PITTSBURG, Pa., 8.—Great excitement was caused in Allegheny City about noon to-day, by a daring robber and subsequent chase and capture of two of the thieves. The victim was General J. W. Beazell, of Chicago, an lustructor in the detection of countericit money. The robbery occurred in the lobby of the postoffice. General B azell had a wallet containing $300, which he placed on the counter beside him while conversing with Postmaster Swan. The thief who had evidently been watching his opportunity, quickly picked up the wallet and was making off when Beazell seized him. A struggle ensued and the thief drew his re-voiver and fired at his captor, who released his hold allowing him to escape. A large crowd gave chase, and the culprit who had been joined by two accomplices, turned on their pursuers and began firing, and for a short time there was a periect fusilade of shots Finally two of the thieves were cornered and after a desperate struggle were captured. FOREIGN.

A Startling Plot. LONDON, 8 .- The Chronicle's correspondent at Paris says he has just heard from Vienna the details of a startling anarchist plot to destroy Vienna and to assassinate Emperor Francis Joseph. The conspirators, whose plans were frustrated by the authorities, had intended to carry out the plot on Oc-tober 4th. Various timber stores were to be set fire to throughout the city. and during the confusion public buildugs were to be blown up with dynamite. The police seized large quantiics of bomos and other explosives in different parts of the city, especially near the imperial residence at Schon-brunn and beneath the bridge leading to the palace, which the Emperor crosses daily. It was also intended to make an attempt upon the life of the Emperor at the same time. A large number of foreigners and Austrians were arrested. The ringleaders cs caped to Germany. In consequence, there will be passed a stringent anti-socialist law. The news of the discovery of the plot did not leak out for

MANCHESTER, Sept. 12, 1886. President D. H. Wells:

Dear Brother-It affords me much pleasure to be able to report to you a little of our labors in this part of the In company with Elder Joseph Dean, we have just made a visit to many of the Saints in the Moorside and Bolton Branches, and we found many of them Branches, and we found many of them enjoying the spirit of the Gospel and desirous of living their religion and doing what they can to help roll on the work of God. Many though are in very poor circumstances, some out of work, and dependent on their friends for a little ald, yet, in passing through these hard times, they appear to be hopeful of better, and that they will have the privilege of gathering out from this land to the land of Zion. Some are expecting to gather out soon, through the blessings of God on them in their labor, being able to earn a little above what they need to pay their way. Many are zealous in the cause, preaching to friends and relatives, bearing their testimonies to them of the goodness of God, and giving them tracts, inviting them to our meetings, etc., the results being that many are investigating, and, occasionally, some coming forward for baptism. On Sunday last, we baptized six here in the baths at l'atricroft and con-firmed them in the alternoon at our Sacrament meeting. We had truly a very interesting time and a feast of good things, causing me to think of the good meetings the Saints used to have ome 25 years ago, when but a boy I used ito attend such meetings. The Spirit of God was in our midst and in the testimonics borne the power of God was manifested to all, both Saints and strangers. One of the brethren baptized had been a local preacher of the Wesleyan body, but of late an Evangelist. His wife and eldest son were baptized, as also his mother-in-law. These addi-tions to our numbers caused the Saints to feel well. Elders Holt, Dean and myself spoke a short time, exhorting the Saints to faithfulness, to live their religion, not by precept alone, but by example, and to "let their light so shine that others, seeing their good works, might glorify our Father which Our meeting house was full both af-ternoon and evening; all felt well, both Saints and strangers, that were present. CORRESPONDENCE. FROM RANDOLPH - A CREDIT-ABLE FAIR-PROSPERITY

OF SETTLERS. RANDOLPH, Utah, Oct. 4th, 1886.

Editor Deseret News: The Primary Associations of Randolph and Woodruff held a fair in the Randolph Hail September 30th, which was not only a success, but showed that there is great interest taken in the little folks by their officers and teachers. Sisters Laker and Pugmire, of the Stake Presidency, were in attend-ance, having traveled from St. Charles, Idaho, a distance of 40 miles, to attend the fair and talk to the little folks.

Among the ARTICLES EXHIBITED and made by children from 6 to 12 years old, I inspected well made doll dresses, a patch quilt, full size, fancy baskets, holders, pin cushions, a baby's hood and a wool yarn mat and shawl. Among the best was a stocking mat (made from old stockings raveled out) a loaf of bread, light and browned to a turn; two rings and staples, the black-smith work of a boy 10 years old. The Young Ladi s' Association also showed some of their handi-work, including fancy crochet and zephyr work, woo flowers, lace and needle work, stand covers, fancy worked slippers, aprons and a hundred and one things too numerous to mention. Last, but not least, was the plain and fancy straw braid made by Sister Ann W. Peart.

THE FARMERS OF RANDOLPH ontributed also. Had a stranger eassing through the valley seen the fine uisplay of vegetables, he would have asked at once: "What low valley were they brought from?" There were po-tatees large and ripe; cabbage weigh-ing from 11 to 14 ibs.; rutta beggas and white turnips as good as the best beets, carrots, parsuips, onions, onion sets, all hard to beat; wheat plump and good. A little corn was raised here this season which ripened. I speak of the vegetables for the benefit of the travelers that pass through our country, and ask, "how do you make a living in this high, cold, sage brush valley?" The fact is the CLIMATE IS CHANGING for the better. The sage brush is going and farms and meadows are taking its place. The last time President John Taylor was here he not only blessed the Saints, but the land, and said we would raise food for our sustenance. His words are coming true.

But I am getting away from the fair. At 2 p, m. the Primaries had a review. On the stand were Bishops McKinnon and Lee. Stake Presidents Laker and Pugmire; Ward Presidents Agnes Barir and Ruth Cornia, and others. Each addressed the Associations, giving them credit for the interest taken in the fair, and for the good work done The speakers encouraged all to con-tinue in the good work. The day tinue in the good work. The day closed with a dance for the juveniles The committee of arrangements con-isted of Sisters E. South, Mary M. Pearce and E. McKinnon.

OUR THRESHING salmost done. We have raised this year close to twenty-five thousand bushels of small grain. The yield is not considered as good as last year. Oats average about 40 bushels per acre; wheat 25. Your correspondent got 64 bushels of barley from one acre. Improvements are going on, and the peole are prospering. Yours respectfully, J. S.
