

SALT LAKER ON BEAUTIFUL JAPAN

How Mikado's Realm Looks to Frank J. Hewlett After Seeing China.

NIKKO THE MAGNIFICENT.

Its Temples Are Most Costly and Surpass Any Rivals in the Entire Flowery Kingdom.

Frank J. Hewlett, a Salt Laker who has been in Japan for the past month, has written an interesting letter to a friend here on the sights of the orient as he has encountered them from Shanghai down to Nikko, in Japan. The letter gives the writer's view of Japan after coming back to it from other oriental countries, and is as follows:

Nikko, Japan, May 14, 1907. I have just returned from China and am now in the most beautiful spot of all Japan. There is a saying among the Japanese that one cannot properly use the word "magnificent" until one has seen Nikko. The temples here are perhaps the grandest in all the empire and are lavishly adorned with the most costly materials, in many places being covered with pure gold.

We had a fairly good trip from Japan to Shanghai, on the outward voyage, as we crossed the Yellow sea, we passed the Russian Cruiser Orel, which was the only ship of the Vladivostok fleet that was not sunk or captured by the Japanese in the recent war. She is a force looking boat and is equipped with the most powerful machinery. She has five funnels, and during the trip we encountered with the Japanese fleet four of these were shot away. There are few vessels like her in all the world. Shanghai is considered by many people to be the most cosmopolitan city in the world today. It is divided into two parts, one is called the "Foreign Settlements" and the other the "Native City," the latter part being enclosed by a large stone wall. The Foreign Settlements is divided between the big nations of the world. Great Britain has her quarters and they are quite English "you know." One even sees the bobby policeman wearing his high helmet and a black

American corporation who had witnessed a Chinese execution and who had taken a snap shot of the affair, with his camera. Four Chinese were executed during the week that I was in Shanghai and I received an invitation to see them executed, but I watered one accept the invitation. This gentleman who attended, however, told me that their heads were laid on a block and while one man pulled the head back by the cue the other

BARTERING FOR TEA.

Tea buying is interesting. The first thing the native does is to bring the buyer a fancy box of crackers or candies tied up with ribbons and silk and with lots of bowing and scraping and sweet smiles he presents it to the prospective strap under the chin. Each quarter has its own officials, hotel, shops, etc., so that one might imagine himself for a short time, in England, France, Germany or the United States. At the Astor House, where I stayed, they even had one of Uncle Sam's mail boxes. In and around the Astor House, however, are East India police—big, fierce looking fellows, all over six feet high, and wearing heavy black beards and part of them wearing earrings. During the night time they wear blue turbans. The way these big police handle the Chinese is a caution. If they do not toe the line exactly, or if they quarrel among themselves they are beaten with a club and their troubles are soon straightened out for they live in mortal terror of the India police. The Chinese, of course, have their policemen and they are generally very neatly dressed. Their uniforms are dark and they wear them with a very dignified mien.

Hurry and Worry

Hurry, like a cyclone, whips you along at a rate that quickly exhausts your energy, and leaves you a nervous, wretched, broken-down physical wreck.

Worry accomplishes the same results in another way. It drags you through the dark, gloomy tunnel of sorrows, wrecks your nerves and breaks down the constitution.

Then don't hurry; don't worry. But you will; and your nervous, exhausted condition brings headaches, neuralgia, heart, stomach, liver and kidney troubles. The thing to do is: Strengthen the nerves with Dr. Miles' Nerve.

"Six months I was bedfast with nervous prostration, had sinking spells, a cold, clammy feeling, couldn't stand the slightest noise. At times I would almost fly to pieces; stomach very weak. My husband insisted on my taking Dr. Miles' Nerve, and I began to improve before I had finished the first bottle, and to-day I am entirely cured."

MRS. JOSEPH SYNDER, 214 Hudson St., Tulsa, O.

Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will advise you. The first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

HONEST MEDICINE

TRY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR STOMACH TROUBLE.

Convincing Evidence Supported by a Guarantee That Must Convince The Most Skeptical.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a doctor's prescription, used by an eminent practitioner and for nearly a generation known as a reliable household remedy throughout the United States. Needless to say, no advertised medicine could retain popular favor for so long a period without having great merit and it is the invaluable curative properties of the pills that have made them a standard remedy in every civilized country in the world. Added to this is the absolute guarantee that the pills contain no harmful drug, opiate, narcotic or stimulant. A recent evidence of their efficacy is found in the statement of Mrs. N. B. Whitley, of Boxley, Ark., who says:

"I had suffered for a good many years from stomach trouble. For a long time I was subject to bad spells of faintness and the head aches which accompanied an indescribable feeling that seemed to start in my stomach. Whenever I was a little run-down or over-tired, these spells would come. They occurred frequently but did not last very long."

"I was confined to my bed for ten weeks once, then the doctor pronounced my trouble chronic inflammation of the stomach and bowels. Since that time I have been subject to the fainting spells and at other times, fluttering of the heart and a feeling as though I was smothering. My general health was very bad and I was weak and trembling."

"I had seen Dr. Williams' Pink Pills mentioned in the newspapers and decided to try them. When I began taking the pills I was so run-down in strength that I could hardly do any housework. Now I could walk ten miles if necessary. Both my husband and myself think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the best medicine made and always recommend the pills to our friends."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood and give strength and tone to every part of the body. They have cured serious disorders of the blood and nerves, such as rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, nervousness, headache, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance and many forms of weakness in either sex. They are sold by all druggists or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

SIXTY DAYS FOR CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS.

Boise, Ida., May 31.—Carl H. Duncan, the man arrested on Tuesday as a suspected anarchist, appeared in court today for the first time since his arrest. He was charged with carrying a concealed weapon, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, or in default to go to jail for 60 days. He went to jail. One of the features of the case has been the number of threatening letters received by the mayor since the arrest. Not much attention is paid to them, however, and none of the Socialists in the city appeared in court to espouse Duncan's cause. All of them say that he has no connection with the Socialist cause, although it is known that he has at different times been connected with a number of organizations.

SILVER PURCHASES.

Washington, May 31.—The treasury department today purchased 100,000 ounces of silver for delivery at Philadelphia at 67.500 cents per fine ounce.

MRS. CRAMER'S CASE.

Charge of Murdering Her Husband is Dismissed.

Fargo, N. D., May 31.—Judge Pollock today dismissed the case of Mrs. Cramer charged with the murder of her husband at Fargo last February. Two juries disagreed, the last one being out 24 hours. The testimony showed that Cramer had been abusing his wife and the latter called on her to shoot his father, which he did.

BRYAN AT NORFOLK.

Norfolk, Va., May 31.—William J. Bryan spent a large part of today at the exposition grounds. He spoke at Portsmouth this afternoon on "The Value of an Ideal." This evening Mr. and Mrs. Bryan were entertained at dinner by the president of the exposition.

WORK OF VANDALS.

San Francisco, May 31.—Two lines of the United Railroad system were put out of order by acts of vandals committed during the night. The worst offense was at the crossing of Sixteenth and Bryant streets, where the switch was torn completely out and the crossing closed out with chains. The company paid a large force of men at work to repair the damage and hopes to be able to have cars running over the crossing by tonight.

The Sansome street line was completely blocked by an immense pile of rubbish consisting of cement barrels, pieces of building iron and heavy blocks of wood. The obstruction was piled on the track during the night.

STAGE COACH ACCIDENT.

Three Persons Killed, Two Fatally Hurt in a Runaway.

Yreka, Cal., May 31.—Three persons whose names have not been ascertained, were killed and two others probably fatally injured, in a runaway stage accident on Tuesday near Loney in southern Oregon.

The stage was descending a grade when the horses became unmanageable and the vehicle was upset, falling on its side. The driver, a man named Smith, and two men known to be commercial travelers were killed, and the bodies of the other two passengers were so badly mangled that their recovery is not likely. The driver is said to have been intoxicated.

JUDGE DUNNE AT LAST TOOK WATER

Got Wroth at Atty. Fairall and Adjudged Him Guilty of Contempt of Court.

GIVEN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

Attorney Told Him He Didn't Care—Finally Order Was Revoked at Request of Mayor's Counsel.

San Francisco, May 31.—Atty. Chas. H. Fairall, of counsel for the defense, was twice within a few minutes sentenced to jail for contempt of court by Superior Judge Dunne, shortly before the adjournment of the Schmitz trial this afternoon. The orders were subsequently revoked by the court at the request of the mayor's senior counsel, request of the mayor's senior counsel, by Asst. Dist. Atty. Heney.

The sensational incident was the culmination of a long day of bickering and quarrels between opposing counsel, so that more than once had threatened unpleasant results. Eleven jurors had been finally accepted and sworn and the twelfth had been by both sides accepted, subject to peremptory challenge, when Mr. Heney announced that he desired to further question a juror who was accepted last Wednesday. Jack O'Mara, a blacksmith, "who," said the prosecutor, "we have just been informed, is an employee of the city."

O'Mara satisfied the court that such was not the case, and then Heney propounded some rapid-fire questions, showing that during the noon recess the blacksmith had been shadowed by one of Special Agent Bureau men, who had seen him stop and talk with one Ed Dennison, on Fillmore street, enter a saloon with him and emerge 15 minutes later, after which Dennison hurried away to the office of Herbert Schmitz, brother of the mayor, "evidently to report."

Under Heney's questioning O'Mara first denied that the Schmitz trial had been mentioned between him and Dennison, but later admitted that the fact of his being a juror had been remarked, though not discussed. To all of this Mr. Campbell entered objection, to which Heney heatedly replied that it was for the purpose of showing an attempt to

RHEUMATISM BREAKS DOWN THE STRONGEST CONSTITUTION

Rheumatism is caused by a sour, acid condition of the blood, brought on by chronic constipation, weak kidneys, poor digestion and a general sluggish condition of the system. Because of these irregularities the refuse and waste matters of the body are not promptly expelled, but are left to sour and ferment, producing irritating acids which are taken up by the blood and distributed to all parts of the system. This acid matter weakens and diseases the blood so that instead of supplying the body with nourishing, healthful properties it deposits the poison with which it is loaded into the muscles, nerves, bones and joints, and Rheumatism gets complete control of the system. Some suffer almost constantly with the disease, while others have intervals of freedom, during which they live in constant dread of the next attack, when an exposure to cold or dampness or some other irregularity will cause the symptoms to return. If the cause is not removed Rheumatism will progress and reach a point where it becomes incurable, and the strongest constitution will break down. S. S. S. has been curing Rheumatism for more than forty years. It attacks the disease at its head by going down into the blood and removing every particle of the acid matter and building up the weak, sour blood to a state of purity and richness. S. S. S. is the King of blood purifiers, just what is needed for the cure of Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice sent free.

tamper with a juror. Mr. Fairall, supporting the objection, got into a snarl of words with the assistant district attorney, during which he warned that official to address him with care.

"Oh, yes," sneered Heney, "you're a fighting man—I'm scared to death of you."

Mr. Fairall replied in kind, and Judge Dunne ordered him to be quiet. Instead of obeying the attorney got to his feet and launched a reply.

"Sit down, Mr. Fairall," commanded Judge Dunne, "or I shall send you to jail."

"I don't care anything about that," replied Fairall, waving his arms contemptuously. "So incensed was Judge Dunne at this that, though he spoke quietly, he stumbled over his words."

"Mr. Fairall, your conduct is boisterous, offensive, insulting and contemptuous. I adjudge you guilty of contempt of this court, and as punishment therefor I order that you be confined in the county jail in the city and county of San Francisco for a period of 24 hours."

"I thank your honor. I think that is a distinct insult," cried Fairall.

"Mr. Fairall," said Judge Dunne, "I adjudge you further guilty of boisterous, offensive, insulting and contemptuous conduct, and I adjudge you guilty of contempt of this court, and as a punishment therefore it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that you be confined in the county jail of this city and county for a period of 48 hours. Now, Mr. Campbell, will you proceed?"

A BRAVE BOY.

Refuses to Take an Anaesthetic to Have Arm Cut Off.

Vienna, May 31.—A 14-year-old boy here has astonished the prominent surgeon, Baron von Eiselsberg, by the remarkable grit he displayed in undergoing an operation. The boy's arm had to be amputated. He refused to take an anaesthetic because he wanted to watch the operation. He resisted all the persuasion of the surgeon, who ultimately yielded. The boy did not wince and made no sound throughout, but watched the surgeon's work with keen attention. He said afterward that the sight was so interesting it was well worth the pain.

Dr. Von Eiselsberg recognized his luck by giving him a watch.

NEGRO FAMILY DROWNED.

Dallas, Tex., May 31.—An entire family of six negroes were drowned near Honey Grove last night as a result of the sudden rise of a creek. The entire Stephens family, including parents and children, perished. The railroad men in northern Texas are badly crippled as a result of the recent storms.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the best and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.
