

defeat. This convinces me that the President of the United States does not desire me to be elected. I therefore respectfully suggest that you call into consultation with you the gentlemen who are known to be advisers here of the federal administration, and nominate a ticket which will command their support."

The charge of treachery made in the letter has reference to De Witt C. Cregier, former city superintendent of public works, and who was urged for the nomination upon the theory that Harrison would not accept another nomination.

What course the democratic party will now pursue, is not stated. Some of the party men declare that Harrison cannot resign now, and will run him to make the race, while others intimate that a new man will be named.

LONDON, March 25.—The grand national steeple chase handicap for four-year-olds and upwards, at Liverpool, was won by E. Jay's Game Cock, by three lengths, Baron W. Schroeder's Savoyard second, Lord Wolveston's Johnny Longtail a bad third. The distance, about four miles and 1,000 yards, was covered in ten minutes fifteen seconds. Sixteen horses started.

CHICAGO, March 25.—Between fifteen and twenty additional indictments against alleged county "boodlers" were returned this afternoon, but the names of the indicted parties are not given.

GALVESTON, March 25.—The News' San Antonio special says: Reliable reports from the grazing districts on the Rio Grande, show that the winter just closing was very severe on sheep. Owing to the long drought last fall, grass was very scarce. Many thousand sheep perished from starvation. One firm alone reported a loss of 30,000 head. Good rains have recently fallen along the Rio Grande.

DUBLIN, March 25.—Father Keller writes that he does not regret his loss of liberty in view of the reason for which his imprisonment was ordered. He says: "If kept in jail until I die I will never do the infamous thing the Judge asked me to do—betray the confidence of the defenseless and loving people who trusted me."

LOUISVILLE, March 25.—Senator Beck sees serious trouble ahead for the money market unless the President calls an extra session of Congress.

NEW YORK, March 25.—In reply to a suggestion of banker Morrison, that the plethora of money in the treasury and the withdrawal of three per cents was likely to cause trouble in the financial world, aggravated by the failure of Congress to make the necessary appropriations, acting Secretary Fairchild replied that he had ample power to meet any stringency; he could deposit fifteen millions, or three times that, in the national bank repositories, and they could put up bonds for security.

ST. PAUL, March 25.—Bowdle, Dakota, special to the Pioneer Press: Jack McCarty, Mr. Kirkland and three others were drowned on the bottoms south of Le Grace. If the waters rise two feet, higher, both Le Grace and Scranton will be submerged.

BOWDLE, Dakota, March 25.—Last reports from stage drivers from La Grace and Lebau to-day, say a great deal of property has been lost during the last few days owing to high waters on the Missouri river. At Lebau the people from the bottoms were compelled to flee to the high bluffs. Barber Olsen was on the roof of his building all night, and was rescued next day. Mr. Kirkland before he could reach high ground. Wilkins & Skinner's ranch near La Grace, is under several feet of water. The Grand River ice broke up yesterday and is now overflowing, and it is expected when the gorge at Bismarck breaks, the river will rise several feet more.

BISMARCK, March 25.—It was learned yesterday that J. M. Kennedy, wife and three children are held on Sibley Island by the flood, and for six days have been living on such food as they can get from the water. There is no hope of rescuing them until the flood subsides, and their FRIENDS ARE DISTRACTED.

They can be seen through field glasses, occupying a nest built in the limbs of trees over three miles from shore.

The Northern Pacific managers have abandoned hopes of removing the gorge by dynamite, and cannot say when they will be able to ship freight across the rivers. Passengers are being transferred by boat. A party of twelve attempting to cross from Mandan in a boat Wednesday evening, were driven by the wind and ice into a willow thicket, and passed the night there, momentarily expecting death.

LOS ANGELES, March 26.—Oliver K., who is booked to trot a match with Harry Wilkes for $10,000 on April 2d at San Francisco, strained a tendon of his foreleg this morning. It is not considered serious, but he will not be in racing condition for a month, and the race is, therefore, off. Oliver K. pays a forfeit of $2,500.

LONDON, March 26.—The annual boat race between the crews of Oxford and Cambridge universities took place today over the usual course of the Thames from Putney to Mortlake, and was won by Cambridge. Just before the race the betting was 15 to 8 in favor of Cambridge.

The time of the Cambridge crew is twenty minutes, fifty-two seconds. The length of the course is four miles and two furlongs.

ROME, March 26.—Galemberti, special Papal delegate to Berlin, has telegraphed to the Pope that he has obtained from Bismarck all the religious concessions asked by the Vatican, but has not obtained any political concession. Leaders of the center (Catholic) party maintain great reserve towards Galemberti.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 26.—Eighty-seven torpedo vessels belonging to the Baltic fleet of the Russian navy have been ordered placed in a state of constant readiness for service. Crews have been ordered forthwith for forty-five of these vessels.

BUCHAREST, March 26.—It is reported from Ruscuk that a revolt has taken place at Plevna, Widdin, and in the vicinity of Philippopolis, and that the insurgents have held all three places for three days.

READING, Pa., March 26.—Frank Kerner, a religious monomaniac, who killed his wife, was found guilty of murder in the second degree.

RAHWAY, March 26.—The body of a young German girl was found on the outskirts of this city this morning having been murdered, it is thought by tramps.

NEW YORK, March 26.—It has been discovered to-day that James Kearney, of the law firm of Thain & Kearney, who is the last man reported as an alleged swindler and a fugitive, has taken from $30,000 to $110,000 in cash with him, all of which he has accumulated in since his marriage one year ago. Kearney's office was watched all day by anxious creditors.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Chief Detective J. W. Murray, of Ontario, Canada, left here to-day for Toronto with Benjamin Hagaman, the forger, wanted there and arrested on an extradition warrant. Howland, Jones & Co., employers of the prisoner, were defrauded of $8,000 by Hagaman's operations, have instituted suit to recover $3,300 deposited in the banks here by Hagaman. They have

ALSO ATTACHED

$1,000 worth of jewelry owned by Hagaman.

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 26.—At Newberry to-day, while a case was progressing before Justice Bleaz, Geo. Johnstone and John B. Jones, attorneys representing parties to the suit, pulled their pistols and opened fire on each other. Nine shots were fired. Johnstone was shot through the right ear, in the left arm and in the thigh, but was not seriously hurt. Jones was shot through the body and perhaps fatally wounded. In trying to stop the firing lawyer Cromer had through his clothing. The court room was crowded at the time of the affray.

DETROIT, March 26.—Two hundred policemen are under orders to report for duty at Polacktown to-morrow morning at six o'clock, when it is expected an effort will be made to reopen St. Albertus's Polish Catholic church during the absence of Bishop Borgess in Baltimore. Trouble is feared.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 26.—The executive board of the Irish National League of America, to-day issued an address to "The American public and the Irishmen of America." The address opens with a reference to an appeal by the corporation of Dublin to the Christian world for protection, in the name of humanity, against the further oppression of the Irish people by the British government. It recites the present political situation at length, and closes with an appeal to the American press and people to pass their verdict, and say boldly if the Irish have not displayed all the forbearance that human nature is capable of in their passive resistance to such as these to which the British government would have them submit. The address says if nothing will satisfy the British government but the destruction of the Irish people, Ireland will be justified before God and man in selling her life at the heaviest price she can obtain, and in using every weapon of incivility man can place within her reach. The condemnation of the policy of the British government by the American public is asked, in order to help avert such a calamity. The address urges a reorganization of the disbanded branches of the league and the establishment of new ones, and asks that the Irish people living on farms too widely separated from each other to form branches, send their names and subscriptions to Rev. Dr. O'Reilly, Detroit, who will acknowledge the same through the press. The address is signed by John Fitzgerald, president of the league.

LONDON, March 27.—The Coronet arrived off Queenstown at 11:30 o'clock this morning. Nothing has been seen of the Dauntless. The Coronet passed the winning point at 12:30 o'clock under full press of canvas; wind W. N. W., and fresh.

In passing the green line at Roche's Point, the fired five guns, and the time was at once taken by the secretary and members of the Royal Cork yacht club, who had been on the lookout for her arrival. The club then hoisted a signal announcing the Coronet's arrival, the various stations answering the pennant. The wind was blowing hard and the Coronet entered Cork harbor in spanking style with all sails set and hugging the western shore.

From the start to the finish the Coronet experienced strong gales, with tremendous seas on Tuesday and Wednesday last; she hove to for several hours each day, making only ninety miles in 48 hours. Her average run during the passage varied from 230 to 250 miles a day.

THE TIME.

QUEENSTOWN, March 27.—The Coronet arrived at 12:41 p. m. The apparent time occupied in its passage is 13 days, 23 hours, 34 minutes, 46 seconds, and actual time, computed on the Greenwich basis, 14 days, 19 hours, 3 minutes, 14 seconds; the whole number of nautical miles sailed is 2,949; the longest day's run is 291.5 miles, made on Saturday, March 26, and the shortest 38.8 miles made on Tuesday, March 22nd. The weather was uncommonly stormy, even for this season of the year. No less than seven heavy gales contributed to keep the sea in a ferment for eleven days of the trip, and for two days the weather was so severe as to make the question of the yacht

LIVING THROUGH THEM

somewhat doubtful. She behaved splendidly, however, in all sorts of weather and proved herself one of the staunchest if not one of the fastest vessels of her size afloat. No accidents happened to any of the sailors, despite the great risks they were compelled to undertake at times; with the exception of three torn sails and a little broken tackle, everything on board the boat was in as good shape when the anchor was dropped off Queenstown as when it was raised off Tompkinsville, Staten Island. It is thought that a much quicker passage might have been made had Captain Crosby carried more sail. On several occasions, when the wind was light but the sky threatening, he was and his judgment was controlled largely by the barometer, which was much of the time below 29 and seldom above 30, a nominal height in the latitude traversed. The course was made a little more northerly than was thought safe, but fortunately no icebergs or fields of ice were encountered.

The number of persons on board the Coronet was 29, including fourteen sailors, five officers, the steward, cook, messboy and five guests. The officers were Captain C. P. Crosby; navigator T. B. C. Anderson; mates W. A. Whit-tier and Otto Reterson; boatswain Augustus Bergelin. The advantage gained by the Coronet at the start increased the confidence of those on board, in both boat and skippers.

NEW YORK, March 27.—Five hundred and nineteen of the passengers of the wrecked Scotia arrived on the sea barge Haggerty at Castle Garden late this afternoon. The scene that followed beggared description. They rushed into the rotunda pell mell, shrieking and howling for food like ravenous wolves. They crowded around the lunch tables, climbing over each other, and trampling on helpless women and children and pandemonium reigned supreme for fully an hour. It is customary to register all emigrants before they enter the rotunda, but red tape was broken on this occasion by Supt. Jackson. The force of the mass of people was so great that the officers who were stationed to keep order were like straws. These things could not be restrained. Supt. Jackson gave orders to give them all the food they needed and charge it to the commissioner of emigration. Then the distribution of food began. It was impossible to regulate the distribution, strong men crowded to the front with uplifted arms and their eyes started from their sockets, crying in Italian, "Bread! Bread!" The surging mob was utterly uncontrollable. The officers in the garden aided in the distribution by throwing loaves over the heads of the nearest to others of the crowd. Every time a loaf was fired into the crowd, twenty or more scrambled and in

to get it. Dry bread was a luxury. In a short time all the food was gone; the women and children were cared for and milk and beer added to their portion. The complaints of the unfortunate immigrants were most unfavorable to the company and particularly to the captain of the Scotia. Seventy additional passengers, who came by rail from Patchogue, arrived about 9 o'clock to-night. They were transferred from Long Island City on the steamboat John F. Moore. They were even more ravenous than the others. They were fed at the garden, a fresh supply of provisions having been obtained. Many Italians were sick from eating after

THEIR LONG FAST.

Several writhed in agony on the floor of the rotunda. Some of their countrymen, who met them here, and women who comprised with their children the largest portion of the number, complained loudly of bad treatment and said they could not get food or water enough during the voyage.

ST. PAUL, March 27.—Gov. A. P. Swineford, of Alaska, returning thither to-day, told the Pioneer Press that he went to Washington to secure an appropriation of $500,000 for the development of that territory, but found Randall and others in charge of the appropriations, influenced against it by a statement made by the Alaska Commercial Association, who oppose development and immigration as inimical to their business. He secured an appropriation of $25,000, which will be used for schools and Indian police. The government appointment of John McCafferty as collector of customs, was opposed by me, and when I saw the President and Secretary of the Treasury, it was withdrawn. McCafferty is supposed to have inspired the in Alaska last summer and is believed to be "suspect No. 1" of the Phoenix Park murder. I was asked who I would recommend for collector, and I left it with Postmaster-General Vilas. He recommended Arthur Delaney. Lient. Nichols, who went to Washington to make it hot for me, is now awaiting a court martial, serious charges having been preferred against him while on the Alaska coast. It was he who sent the Chinamen to Douglas Island at the time of the riot and refused to return them when requested to do so.

BISMARCK, March 27.—The Northern Pacific trains crossed the river bridge and trestle here to-day for the first time in eight days. The water has been falling for three days and is shallow on the low lands; another flood is expected, when the gorge at Washburne breaks, but the Northern Pacific precautions will prevent further suspension of transcontinental travel.

MADRID, March 27.—The rumors current during the past two days of the discovery of a dynamite conspiracy, have been confirmed by the arrest of many persons connected with the plot. Among the prisoners are several palace officials, the palace armorer and a knave of a well-known ministerialist deputy. The deputy alluded to will question the government in congress to-morrow with reference to the affair.

LONDON, March 27.—The sentry on guard at Nowden magazine in Chatham dockyard noticed a man lurking around about the magazine last night. The man not replying to the challenge, the sentry bayoneted him in the thigh. He was found to be an employe named Clark and was sent to the hospital to be detained as a suspect.

ST. LOUIS, March 28.—The man calling himself Billy Connors, who was arrested here one day last week on suspicion of being a crook, was held on the charge of carrying concealed weapons, and who yesterday informed the police that he had a kit of burglar tools and a lot of explosives in his lodging house and advised them to remove the latter for fear they might injure the inmates, was to-day identified by the Chicago postoffice inspector as one of a gang who some years ago robbed the postoffice at Minneapolis, and secured a great quantity of stamps and other valuables. He will be sent to Minneapolis for trial.

PARIS, March 28.—A sensation has been caused by the publication of a reported conversation between M. Flourens, French minister of foreign affairs, and the correspondent of the Voroe Vremiya, of St. Petersburg. The story is officially declared to be incorrect, but little value is attached to the denial. According to the published report, M. Flourens said: "I entered office with the full conviction that the key to the European policy was in St. Petersburg. While Russia is with us, war with Germany is impossible. Germany, by enacting her states disuniting, would suffer more than any other power by defeat. Therefore, she has no course but to live on good terms with Russia and with us. Russia came forward for us in the moment of danger and we will not remain with folded arms should she be endangered." M. Flourens professed he had little fear from the

of Italy, Austria and Germany. He believed the Bulgarians themselves or the Turkish government would expel the regents and Russia would have no need to interfere in Bulgaria. He thought complications were likely to arise between France and England, as England would sooner or later quit Egypt and she could not dream of continental conquests.

VIENNA, March 28.—Thirteen anarchists, convicted of complicity in the plot to set fire to the city and blow up the imperial palace at Schoenbrunn with dynamite, have been sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for terms ranging from one year to twenty years; one was acquitted.

LONDON, March 26.—The Dauntless passed Galley Head at 11 a. m. She is all right.

The most astonishingly beneficial results have followed the use of Red Star Cough Cure by those affected with throat and lung troubles. Price, twenty-five cents.
