OGDEN NEWS. - - MARCH 27, 1900. APPOINTMENTS CONFIRMED

Chiefs of Police and Fire Departments and Other Appointments of Mayor Ratified.

Weber County Insiness Transacted by Commissioners -- Made to Settle Up Accounts Death of Carl Shirk.

The board of county commissioners disposed of the following business: County Surveyor N. M. Bostoph submitted a report showing the location of the proposed road in Roy district, and accompanied the same by map, showing names of owners of land. The Salt Lake Valley Railway company presented a petition praying for cohent, permission and authority to struct, maintain and operate an drie railway through Weber counconstru ty, as particularly set out and described is as particularly set out and described in petition. The petition was ordered field and taken under advisement. Readsupervisor Wilson of Roy and Kanesville reported that a number of

S. L. railway crossings were not of roper width and were otherwise in bad ion, and were in immediate need The clerk was instructed to at once notify the proper officials and request immediate action. Dr. Driver reported the death of Thomas Delaney at the hospital. Upon motion of commissioner Smith Moroni Skeen Jr. was appointed regis-tering agent of No. 19 Ogden election

Regular claims were allowed and ordered paid.

MADE TO SETTLE HIS ACCOUNTS.

Yesterday morning Sheriff Layne made a hasty trip to Porterville, Mor-gan county, to arrest Rufus Steed, who had skipped without paying his grocery had skipped without paying his grocery account at Charles Fewster's. The man was brought down to Ogden and given an opportuality to settle the account. This he promised to do by the first of the month, giving as security a deed to as served land. In Farmington, when an acre of land in Farmington, when he was allowed to depart.

CASES FILED.

in the case of Ames vs Drs. Rich and Rich, the defendants filed an answer to complaint, making a general denial of all the allegations set forth in said

In the case of Fred Foy vs the Ogden Sugar company, a motion for a new trial was filed with the clerk. WILL TRAVEL TOGETHER.

A marriage license was issued to P. F. Malloy, 30, of Omaha, Nebraska, and Miss Ellabeth Legg, 27, of Nephi, Utah, Judge Joseph Hall performed the cerearately. Mr. Abbott said that the present incumbent of the office of chief police had been in the office the past ten years. He had watched his work and had a good opportunity to see his work while he, Mr. Abbott, was a mem-ber of the fire and police commission. He had never seen a department run smoother than that in Ogden under Mr. Davenport. He considered the present chief to be a man in a thousand and if he thought there was any chance of re-taining him he would stay with him now; but he was satisfied that it was only a matter of time when he would be removed. He therefore moved to onfirm the mayor's nominee, and after considerable discussion the motion carried by a vote of 7 to 3, All the other appointees were con-firmed by votes ranging from 8 to 6, except Mr. White, who was not con-firmed, and Mr. Peterson, whose appointment was laid on the table. Miscellaneous claims amounting to $362.43 were allowed and ordered paid, Bond interest in the sum of $1,254.37 was ordered pald. The matter of a contract with Mr. Williams to care for the city hall grounds was referred to the committee of public buildings and grounds.

W. C. Weaver, receiver of the Water Works company, presented a bill of $14,-529.50, for hydrant rental from May 17, 1898, to date. This amount, he stated, was in addition to the recent judgment rendered by Judge Marshall, Referred to the committee on laws with the city added attorney

The Salt Lake Valley Railway company petitioned the council for a fran-chise to lay tracks upon Wall avenue south from 25th street to the city limits south from 2sth street to the city limits to connect Ogden with Salt Lake by an electric railway. The petition was ac-companied by an ordinance granting said franchise which they asked to have passed, and also by the regular fran-chise fee. Referred to the com-mittee on haws, and the petitioners were momented to converse a conv. of the requested to forward a copy of the petition and ordinance to each member of the council.

of the council. Bills for smallpox nursing and work amounting to $44 were allowed. The slot machine ordinance passed its third reading and was ordered published Death Takes Away a Fair Young Life in the Standard, Pay rolls amounting to $557.64 were ordered paid. Seven blds for the painting of the city hall roof wood work and cornice as per specification were read. The contract was awarded to Thomas C. Morris, $148.00. The council then went into the committee of the whole from which it arose without further report and immediately adjourned.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. An attack was fately indue on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kid-neys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. Mr. Nels Johnson was accepted as the successor of C. E. Loose, resigned, and took his place in the council as member from the First ward. The petition of the Provo base ball team, asking for a lease on the West square for base ball purposes, was de-nied. A protest was received from a number of the property owners near the square. Six months' additional time was allowed W. D. and D. H. Roberts in which to comply with the provisions of the franchise granted them to use water for power purposes. The city board of health was authorized to purchase tents and supplies in case the city was quarantined for smallpox, etc. The tents will be used as house The financial reports of the city au-

OPERATIONS PERFORMED.

Saturday evening Dr. Allen, assisted by Dr. Fisk, of Price, and Dr. Robison, of Provo, performed a successful opera-tion upon Bruce Wilson, from Price, for appendicitis and the patient is now resting easy. Dr. Robison today removed a large tumor from the neck of Mrs. Lawhorn, of the First ward. The lady had been suffering from the growth for about twenty years and of late it had become exceedingly annoying.

OFF FOR WASHINGTON.

Sergt, Bert Boshard, late of Battery B, leaves tomorrow morning for Wash-ington, D. C., where he goes to accept a position in the census department. Mr. Boshard passed a very successful examination last fall at San Francisco for the position. The many friends of the young man wish him success. SICK WITH BRAIN FEVER.

WANT TO SECURE LAND. Many of the people of Millard county re anxious to secure land under the Bonneville grant, and are indulging in speculation as to whether or not the Bonneville enterprise will prove a suc-cess; they realize that the soil is fertile, and when property irrigated will produce abundantly; and a portion of the land embraced in the grant is ndapted for dry farming and will be settled upon by home seekers as soon as the land is subject to entry. Many expressions are heard to the effect that the people will develop the country as soon as the rights of the Bonnevillle

SANDY.

Happy Surprise Party in Honor of Retiring Bishop Jensen.

Special Correspondence. Sandy, Salt Lake Co., March 27,-One of the most enjoyable surprise parties of the season was given in the Sandy ward house in honor of our retiring Bishop James Jensen. The sisters of the Relief Society, headed by the Presi-dent, Hannah Shaw, spread two large tables about 40 feet long, with all the good things of the season in the shape of eatables. No finer sight has been seen for many a day. President Miller with his counselor, Hyrum Goff, had taken good care of the Bishop all after-noon at East Jordan ward, when about o'clock in the evening they brought him to Sandy, when he was taken charge of by Bishop Kuhre and con-ducted into the ward house. To say he was surprised is only putting it mil ly: it almost took his breath. The iouse was well filled with members of the ward, who had assembled to greet A short program was rendered, him. consisting of songs, speeches and reci-tations. During the program, Bishop Kuhre in a neat speech presented Bishop Jensen, in behalf of the members of the ward, with a gold-headed cane, beautifully inscribed with his name, from members of the ward. He responded in a very feeling address, thanking the people for their appreciation of his services. Remarks were also made by Presidents Miller and Goff, after which about 500 people sat down to supper, which lasted till a late During intervals responses hour. toasts were made. Counselor Wilson was chairman of program, while Counselor Crapo was master of ceremonies.
