NOTES.

The prettiest woman at the fair to-night will receive a gold medal presented by C. E. Johnson and a $25 dress pattern given by Groesbeck and Houten. The award will be made at 7 o'clock.

The baby exhibit will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow.

The entries for the ladies' equestrian exhibition and the drilling contest will close at 6 this evening.

Over 20,000 tickets to the fair had been sold last night. To the one purchasing number 25,000 Spencer Clawson will give $25.

The Ogden band will contest the award made on Monday in the band competition, on the grounds that the First Brigade who received the prize was assisted by a number of players who did not belong to the organization.

The Co-op Wagon and Machine Company will give to the man, woman or child who buys the 35,000th ticket at the fair one Oliver chilled plow, handsomely painted; value, $40. This ticket will be sold tomorrow, Oct. 9th.

Another big crowd attended the Fair Thursday, October 8th to witness the balloon ascension, which this time was a splendid success. The performance was by the Woodall Brothers. Today there will be a contest between the Woodalls and Prof. Butler who failed on Wednesday, for a purse of $300. The balloonist whose parachute rises the highest is to take the prize.

In the evening the beauty contest took place. The committee of judges was composed of Messrs. C. R. Barrett, Henry Gillespie, L. G. Hardy, Reed Smoot and W. R. Gibbs. After mending about the grounds for two hours they met in the secretary's office, and after a brief consultation rendered a decision in favor of Miss Lizzie Livingston.

In the spelling match the prize of $10 was awarded to Mr. J. T. Holt of Salt Lake.

The lucky 25,000th ticket to the Fair to the purchaser of which Spencer Clawson gives $25, was sold to Mrs. Thos. Woodbury, of Salt Lake.

Fred Simon now offers a prize of $10 to the purchaser of ticket number 30,000.

The purchaser of the 35,000th ticket will get a $40 plow given by the Co-op. Machine company.

The following awards were handed in yesterday afternoon.
