QUEER STORY.

Desorter Tells How He Put Layton Constable to Sleep.

According to the story told to Jailer Bell by Zear Miller, a former prisoner at the county jail, who has been turned over to the military authorities at Ft. Douglas as a deserter, the latter succeeded in putting a constable to sleep at Layton on Sunday, after the officer had arrested him, and was go-ing to bring him to Salt Lake. Miller then boarded a train and came to this city, and walked into the jail, where he was given accommodations until Monwhen he was turned Ft, Douglas authorities, and he will new serve a term for desertion. Miller was serving time in the county jail for housebreaking and, on account of his good behavior, he was made a trusty. One day in August he disap-peared, and we not recaptured. He vent to Layton, where he worked on a form until his identity was discovered and he was placed under arrest the Layton constable. Miller says that he invited the constable into a saloon have a drink. After putting away their drinks the constable treated his prisoner. Compliments were exchanged rather freely, and the constable was soon overcome and went to sleep. Mll Contraction of the local division of the loc ler then left him and took the first train for Salt Lake and he was wel-comed at the county jail by Jailer Bell, who took him in and gave him quarters CHURCH NOTICES until Monday,

The United States marshal has subpronued at least one witness in the Smoot case, in which he cannot charge an attempted evasion. Yesterday he read a summons for himself to himself, and immediately left for Washington, turning over the affairs of the marshal's office to Chief Deputy L. H. Smyth. Before leaving, Marshal Heywood stated that he had no idea why he was wanted, but it is generally con-ceded to be for the purpose of shedding ight on the reasons why he has suceded or falled in serving subpoenas emitted to him. Supt. of Schools A. C. Nelson left this norning, prepared to testify in regard "religion classes" in the public

William Herold, Mail Robber, Eluded The Officers for Eighteen Months.

William Herold, a year and a half ago, took a letter addressed to another man from the postoffice, at Stuart, Mont., forged his signature to a money order contained in it, got the money, and then for 18 months eluded the persistent efforts of the postoffice detectives to locate him,

Yesterday afternoon he was arraigned before United States Commissioner Twomey and pleaded guilty to all the charges of the complaint, except that of forgery which was not pressed. Upon this pleading he was turned over to the county jail for safe keeping pending an order from Judge Marshall transferring him to the district of Montana, where the crime was committed. The story of his capture is an inter-esting one, and seems to have been effected easily because of a genuine case of regentance. After 18 months of vain searching Postoffice Inspector C. M. Perkins, a few days ago, re-ceived clues indicating that Heroid was in Utah, and Monday he arrived in Salt Lake to investigate. After a brief search for Heroid here, by United States Marshal Heywood, it was as-certained that he was at Willard, and Deputy Marshal Smyth left at once for that town. He found, his man yes-The story of his capture is an interthat town. He found, his man yesterday morning at his mother's home, and served him with the warrant for his arrest. Herold, who had a bad reputation as a professional bronco buster and cowboy, took the service quietly, and offered to accompany the marshal without the slightest hesitation, asking only to be allowed to say goodbye to his mother. They arrived at Salt Lake yesterday afternoon, and proceeded at once to the office of Commissioner Twomey, where a warrant was in waiting for the prisoner. Upon arraignment Herold admitted his identity, confessed that he had taken the letter, and said that he was willing to pay the penalty for it, and that he had regretted the act ever since doing it. His bail was fixed at since doing it. His bail was fixed at $1,000, in default of which he went to jail to await trial under an indictment

MRS. DOUGLASS RELEASED.

Arraigned Before Judge Diehl and Bonds Fixed at $200.

Late yesterday afternoon Mrs. Ida Douglass, shot Mrs. Lottle Martin because she claimed the latter ruined her home, was arraigned in Judge Diehl's court on the charge of No. 6 ordered established Jan. 16, at Salt assault with a deadly weapon with in-tent to do bodily harm. She entered a plea of not guilty and the court fixed her bond at $200, which was immedi-ately furnished and Mrs. Douglass was released.

Idaho-St. Charles, Bear Lake county, Alvin Mortensen, vice John A. lade, re-signed. Last night an effort was made by Mrs. Martin's attorneys to have Mrs. Douglass arrested again and placed under bonds to keep the peace, but nothing was done in the matter. It was claimed that Mrs. Martin feared a repetition of the assault,
