LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

WEATHER ITEM.—The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 50.

THEATRE.—To-morrow night the entertainment will open with the drama, "The Phantom of the Village," which will be followed by the performances of the Carroll family, and will conclude with the farce of "The Irish Tutor."

Mr. Johnny Allen has been engaged, and will shortly appear, in his great specialty, "Shneider, or, Dot House von de Rhine."

HIS INTENTION.—The Chicago Times says: "Mr. Grant announces his intention of continuing the war against the Mormons to the bitter end." We would rather hear such a declaration of intention from the President's own lips than take it at second hand.

U. S. PROSECUTING ATTORNEYSHIP OF UTAH.—A dispatch will be found in another part of the NEWS, which states that, owing to the declination of the appointment by Col. Wicklizer, the present acting incumbent of the office of U. S. Prosecuting Attorney, had been recommended by Judge J. B. McKean to the President, for that office. The President, however, has apparently paid no heed to the recommendation, as another dispatch, received this afternoon, announces that he has conferred the appointment upon Mr. George C. Bates.

HOME NEWS FROM ABROAD.—As Hon. Thomas Fitch is perhaps not aware that he was recently murdered, we insert the following dispatch, which tells all about it, sent from here, and which appeared in the Alta, California, of the 29th, for his especial benefit and perusal—

Daniel H. Wells, Mayor of the city, Hosea Stout, formerly Attorney-general of the Territory, and William Kimball, of Kimball's Hotel, in Parley Canyon, were arrested an hour since by United States Marshal Patrick, upon indictments of the Grand Jury, charging them with the murder of Tom Fitch.

NO CRIME.—The Albany Post says: "In this State it is no crime whatever to commit adultery. In Utah it is a crime as highly punished as murder in the second degree. Why such a difference should exist between New York and Salt Lake, is hard to understand." Some New Yorkers out here very easily reconcile themselves to the difference when others can be punished thereby.

RAMPAGEOUS.—There was some shooting off of pistols, hooting and yelling late last night, in the 12th Ward. The uproarious disturbers of that quiet neighborhood were, we are informed, a band of drunken soldiers, who were on their way to camp. Other than creating a big noise, they did no damage.

ARTIFICIAL LIMB.—Mr. Z. W. Derrick, showed us, yesterday, an artificial limb, which he had made for a lady in this city. It was made in Brother Derrick's usual workmanlike style. His business is steadily increasing in this line, as his abilities are becoming known.

H. R. HUNT, ESQ., who is one of the earliest settlers of Denver, Colorado, and a lawyer of standing and extensive practice, is in town, having arrived here two or three days ago. The judicial proceedings now being conducted in this city are interesting to members of the legal profession, and though the city itself does not appear to such advantage, and is not so pleasant a place to visit at this season, it is some compensation to find the court in session. A lawyer will be likely to go away from this city with the impression, so far as the Federal Courts in Utah are concerned, that he

"Who painted justice blind, did not declare
What magistrates should be, but what they are."

CERTAINTY OF RETRIBUTION.—The Philadelphia Ledger is responsible for the following admirable passage, worthy of universal acceptance—

"No nation, no religion, no class, no party, no race, ever persecuted another without finding the day of retribution come upon itself. It may not always come through an uprising of the persecuted people, but it comes from some agencies, in some form, with the certainty of final judgment for all crimes."

THE REAL POWER.—The following from the Omaha Herald is pretty good—

The impression that Brigham Young is the real power who binds, by his personal presence and will, the people of Utah to the Mormon sect, is undoubtedly erroneous. If Brigham Young were to die to-morrow his successor would be chosen by the Church Council, and the System of which he is the ablest living representative would endure. The real power of the Mormon Church lies in the so-called revelations of Joseph Smith, its first Prophet and Martyr.

As to the real "power behind the throne" the Herald would be exactly right if it were to say that it is God and truth. When Jehovah is dethroned, "Mormonism" may be overthrown.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.—Major C. H. Hempstead, in behalf of Mr. A. Miner, stated that the latter in introducing certain allegations, on Saturday, into his motion in the Hawkins case, regarding the jury, had no intention of throwing discredit upon the character of the officers or juries of the court. In his zeal for his client he might have overlooked the evidence necessary to substantiate the statements incorporated in the motion. He had stated the circumstances as a juror had testified of them to him, and he believed them to be as stated.

Upon these considerations the court was asked to withdraw from the records the order calling upon Mr. Miner to appear and show cause why he should not be fined and disbarred for making the statements above alluded to.

The Court consented to withdraw the order, and stated that while it was his duty to protect the officers and juries of the court from unsubstantiated charges of malfeasance, it was also the duty of the attorneys and officers to make known to him any genuine irregularities or abuses any might be guilty of, and that might come under their observation.

In the Gibson case, and in the Clayton vs. Clayton case, for alimony and divorce, alimony was fixed in the first at $150 and in the second at $200.

The Court stated that, for what it considered sufficiently important reasons, Mayor Daniel H. Wells had been admitted to bail, but the court did not consider that it would be well to grant the same privilege to Hosea Stout and William H. Kimball.

The Court adjourned till the 13th day of November.

A RELIC OF THE FIRE.—Dr. W. H. Groves, showed us, yesterday, an interesting relic of the late Chicago fire, in the shape of an antique watch and a number of gold coins. The watch was an heirloom, having been handed down through the family for many generations. It is nearly six hundred years old, being one among the first watches made in England. It and the gold coins were enclosed in a tin box and placed for safe keeping in a large McFarlane safe, in the establishment of S. S. White, 123 State Street, Chicago. The safe was found a few days since, and when discovered in the ruins, it was red hot. The crystal of the watch was turned to stone by the heat, the jewels were burned out, the dial nearly consumed and the whole article more or less destroyed. Dr. Groves placed a high estimate upon the watch on account of its antiquity and for associations connected with it. The gold coins were not melted. The tin was completely melted from the box in which the articles were deposited.

A SCENE.—A scene combining the sublime and the ridiculous occurred on Saturday afternoon, in the court room over the stable, while the Court was in session.

While Major C. H. Hempstead, as counsel for the defense in the case of Clayton vs. Clayton, was delivering an argument bearing on the case, Theodore Curtis, sen., entered the room, and, instead of seating himself, maintained a standing position with folded arms, near the reporter's table, and gazed intently upon Judge McKean. As soon as the Judge discovered this, he also struck an attitude and sternly returned the gaze of Theodore.

Major Hempstead continued to pour forth a brilliant stream of argument and eloquence on behalf of his client, although he saw that his "pearly drops" fell unnoticed upon the ear of the Court. He felt a little discomfitted that the Court did not listen to him, and did not know the cause of the non-attention of his honor, until, following the direction of the Judge's gaze, his eyes fell upon the figure of Theodore, then the true state of things broke in upon his mind. He was still more relieved when the Judge, addressing Theodore, vociferated in stentorian tones, "What do you want, sir?" To which Theodore replied, innocently, "Of whom?" The Court then said, with commanding voice and gesture, "Take your seat, sir, and be thankful to me that you are permitted to do so." Theodore accordingly took his seat, and Major Hempstead, regaining the ear of the Court, proceeded with his argument

After the Court adjourned, Mr. Curtis went to the Judge, and appeared, by his gestures, to be attempting to explain, which explanation, judging from the manner of the Judge, appeared to be repudiated by the latter.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

MILLIONS BEAR TESTIMONY TO THE WONDERFUL CURATIVE EFFECTS OF

J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS

Which are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the return of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They Invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sore; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.
