APPEAL TO IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATIONS.

May 9, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

At a conference of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association, held in the Salt Lake Stake of Zion, held in the Assembly Hall, March 16, 1885,

A PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS

were read and unanimously adopted.

"That we consider these associations as the most perfect made in the light of the enemies of mankind in general and of the Latter-day Saints in particular," and "that we mutually agree to withhold from them and all who give them aid and sympathy, (I would add: and who silently acquiesce in the course pursued by their enemies) all business, patronage, and use our influence to induce others to take a similar course," also, "honourably we sever our connection with those only who are friends of the community of Latter-day Saints."

This resolution was adopted by a vote of 100 to 10.
