As a stranger in the Territory and to "Mormonism," but one who has made a business trip through a por-tion of the north eastern section of Utab, permit me to briefly state the impressions produced by my inter-course with the saints (or as they are more familiarly known abroad, the Mormons] especially those that I met with in Bear Lake Valley. The thrift and industry of the people is everywhere conspicuous, of the committee on counties, re-ported back H. F. 23, to amend eec. 163 of Compiled Laws. Bill taken up on its second reading. The taken up on its second reading. The amendment proposes to give Rich County a small addition, deducting the same from Summit County, thus equalizing the revenue of the two counties. Councilor Cluff op-pased the measure strongly, while Councilor Thatcher favored the bill. Passed without amendment. The House notified the Council that they had appointed Measure.
