NEW YORK.

English government refuses to mediate—Hopes for peace failing—Trotting match—Big fire—Democratic meetings in England—Government denounced.

NEW YORK, 13.—The trot at Fleetwood Park to-day for the Hiram Woodruff stakes for four-year olds was won by Luciline in two straight heats, beating Luciline, Liberty, and Gold Dust. Time 2:40 and 2:34.

The French Catholic Orphan Asylum in this city was damaged several thousand dollars by fire, resulting from a gas explosion. Over one hundred and fifty children were removed to Father McCarthy's Church, on forty-second street, and cared for there.

A dispatch by the associated press cable, dated London 13, says the Emperor Eugenie and the Prince Imperial are still at the Marine Hotel in Hastings. A number of servants of the Imperial household, two carriages and twenty-three horses arrived at Hastings yesterday by special train. The Prince goes out frequently, and mingles freely with the people, and is already popular with all classes.

There is a great influx of gold to the Bank of England, but the stock market is weak and depressed.

NEW YORK, 14.—The World's London special says that this afternoon Earl Granville called on Thiers at the French embassy, and although Thiers came fully qualified by the French government he could not be received in Downing St., as the English government will not yet recognize the Republic. Earl Granville, however, conferred with him as the representative of the de facto government of France, semi-officially. The Earl exhibited all his well known courtesy. His Lordship said: I hope you will allow me to express my deep regret with which, as an individual, I have seen so many misfortunes befall France, a country which in so many ways with England. If my earnest wishes could be of any avail, peace would soon restore her to her former prosperity. Thiers replied that France is quite able and determined to defend herself against all foes, but she earnestly desires peace, and it is for that reason that by me, she now asks England, upon whose action all the powers of Europe are now waiting, to join them in securing for her such terms of peace as she can honorably accept. She will accept no terms that are not honorable. Earl Granville replied: I do not see how England can interfere, but I think I may say that, while preserving strict neutrality, England will present to Prussia any proposition offered by France, and act the part of a sincere friend. It cannot, however, be expected that England will join any power in uttering threats to Prussia, nor can England even positively promise to urge upon Prussia the acceptance of any offer which France may be disposed to make to her. Thiers firmly, but courteously, said that he saw nothing to be looked for from England in the matter, and that the negotiations undertaken by the continental powers, with a hope of England's co-operation must, probably, be suffered to fall through. The interview shortly after ended. After making public, late in the afternoon, the above interview, an impromptu meeting of the people was called and a great crowd assembled in Trafalgar square. There were many speakers, among them Edgar and Justice McCarthy. The government was denounced in the bitterest and most measured terms, for its course towards the French Republic. The cabinet was declared to be a cabinet of treason to human rights and to the peace of Europe. The example of America was cited and evoked tremendous cheers from the multitude. Immense applause followed the sentiment that, if the right of the people to establish a republic in France was to be denied, it would soon become the duty of the people to establish a Republic in England.

A great Democratic meeting is called to be held in Hyde Park, on Sunday next when it is in contemplation to form a grand Democratic procession, in honor of the establishment of the French Republic. Democratic meetings are announced, with the same object, in Manchester, Birmingham, Bristol and Edinburgh.

A special dispatch, dated Rome, Sept. 12th, states that all proposals from the King of Italy, as to future arrangements, are repudiated by his Holiness, who declines to acknowledge the authority of the king to treat as to the subjection of the Papal States. A dispatch has also been received from Florence, dated Sept. 12th, stating that Minister Lanza received, on that day, a deputation of prominent citizens of Florence. Speeches were delivered, and the speakers expressed the gratitude of the nation, to the Italian government, for the delivery of the Roman provinces from the tyrannous and impoverishing rule of the papal government. Lanza heard the whole with great patience and respect, and expressed his satisfaction that the decided course of the Italian government met with approval.

It is believed, to-night that all hopes of peace must be abandoned and no treaty be signed, unless in Paris or on the banks of the Rhine.

A telegram from Florence announces that the Italian troops advanced to Monte Morone without a collision. The rumor of the Pope's intention to take refuge in a British man-of-war is denied. The Nathan Inquest gave in a verdict of death at the hands of persons unknown.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO.—The remains of W. L. Ferguson, another victim to the Washburn Avenue fire, was exhumed yesterday.

OHIO.

Masonic.
CINCINNATI.—The Ohio district annual assembly of the Masonic Grand Lodge takes place on the 18th inst., in Springfield. Three other grand bodies of the order are now in session here.

TENNESSEE.

Democratic Convention.
NASHVILLE.—A Conservative and Democratic State Convention met here to-day and nominated J. Brown for Governor. A platform was adopted declaring that all Southern States should be restored to their rights under the Federal Constitution, and that the disabilities of all the citizens should be removed. The tariff was denounced and a substitute proposed by the committee of ways and means, declaring the system of internal revenue oppressive and demanding a reform. Also denouncing the present administration, in declaring a law to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment, and urging its repeal; demanding a tax on Federal bonds, opposing the National Banks, and proposing a repeal of the law creating them, and advising a substitution of the treasury notes; sympathizing with the people struggling for self-government, and denouncing the party in power for reducing the people to a state of vassalage to the federal government; declaring the policy of the present administration subversive of state rights and an invasion of federal constitution, which, unless repudiated, will result in the destruction of the republic and liberty; closing the reasoning with thanks to the democrats of the north for supporting these principles and pledging the democrats of Tennessee to unite with them in the maintenance of the rights of government.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Fatal Railroad Accident—Opinion of the German Press—The Pope Protests Against the Entry of Troops—Prussian Infantry Seen Near Paris.

LONDON 13.—The north German Gazette says Prussia is not bound to recognize the French provisional government, and the Prussian Cross Gazette says if Prussia does so to-day, she will be obliged to recognize Rochefort's friends to-morrow.

LONDON 14.—The St. Ledger was won by Hawthorne. Kingcraft was second and Wheatley third.

It is telegraphed from Calais, that late on Monday evening, two divisions of the Prussian infantry were visible from the fortress of Nogent, which commands Marne, to the South-east of Paris. They were taking up their positions. The Journal de St. Petersburg contains nothing of the character from it, in telegrams sent to this country, recently, from Belgium. On the contrary, it explicitly says that an understanding has been reached by the two powers hitherto neutral, with the object of uniting to put an end to the war; and causing it to be succeeded by a peace which shall not leave the defeated party the pain of losing a portion of its territory. The two powers, here spoken of, are understood to be Russia and Austria.

Prince Gortschakoff is reported to have said openly, at a dinner: "we are disposed to forgive 1851 in the present most satisfactory behaviour to us, of Vienna."

Washburne, the American Minister, in response to another popular demonstration in Paris, said the French were entitled to expect the largest support.

A cable speeded to the Herald dated Rome, 13, says the Pope has called to Rome, the members of the diplomatic body, to protest against the entry of the Italian troops, now within a few miles of the city.

A dreadful railroad accident occurred at Tamworth, in the county of Stafford, this morning. The train, known as the Irish mail, which left Holyhead, Wales, last night, when entering Tamworth, was thrown from the track by a misplaced switch. The train was mostly filled with passengers. The coaches were plunged into the Trent river. Thus far the bodies of the engineer and four passengers have been recovered. There is much confusion at the scene of the disaster. It is almost impossible to get a correct account of it. The loss of life is fearful.

LIVERPOOL.—Breadstuff quiet. The receipts of wheat for the last three days were 27,000 quarters. All but five thousand of it were American.

If the plans of the Prussians be realized, they must have seven army corps before Paris this morning. It would seem that the French and German fleets are now in sight of each other, near the island of Heligoland, in the North Sea.

FRANCE.

Florence from Paris—Bridge blown up. Soldiers to be attacked.

TOURS, 13.—This city is overcrowded with Parisians and foreigners, whose flight from Paris has been hastened by the proclamation permitting none to leave after the fifteenth inst. Many Americans are among the refugees. A large number of government employees have also arrived, with the transfer of their departments. The department of justice has issued, in the name of the Minister, a proclamation to France. He says, as the enemy approach Paris, the government of the national defence bends all its energies to provide for the security of the capital. They have, therefore, charged the Minister of Justice, in common with the Minister of War, with the care of the Ministerial delegates, now in Tours, appeals to the patriotism of the people to erect impregnable ramparts against the forces of the invasion. He recalls the memories of 1792, and declares France must and will drive back, now, as then, the enemy and not allow a preposterous government, weak and odious, to invade the land.

It is reported that some Prussian spies have been arrested here. PARIS, 13.—The troops here, to-day, passed in grand review before Gen. Trochu. The Creil bridge, in the department of Oise, was blown up yesterday. The destruction of all their bridges will follow. A party of uhlans are at Nogent-sur-Marne, and threaten to bombard that town, should the bridge there be blown up.

Eight thousand Prussian pioneers are at Chalons. The white cuirassiers at Chavvy are waiting the arrival of the army to attack Soissons. Several thousand Bavarians are in the neighborhood of Vaucouleurs. The prefect of Laon has been made prisoner, and is to be taken to Maitke, for examination, in regard to the cause of the catastrophe. The French General who commanded Laon, and is wounded, is under guard at the hospital.

PARIS, 14.—The Ministry has made public the following official intelligence: The railroad at Corbeil has been destroyed by the French. The uhlans were at Nogent-sur-Marne, on Monday, only five miles east of the city. Orders have been given by the German commander, forbidding the destruction of bridges behind the army under the direct penalties. A large body of Prussian engineers is at Compeigne, a few miles east of Paris. The German cuirassiers are still before Soissons. Two thousand five hundred Bavarians are at Vaucouleurs. A proclamation of Cremlieu announces the approach of the Prussians, and calls upon all Parisians and Frenchmen to rise and oppose them. He implores the departments outside of Paris to rise against the invaders and create indestructible ramparts. He invokes the memory of 1792 to expel the foe introduced by a hateful and incapable empire.

PRUSSIA.

Plot Against the Prussian Throne.
BERLIN.—A party of socialists, at Brunswick, who were intruding against the Prussian throne, have been sent to prison on the Russian frontier. Several Prussian regiments have been armed with Chassepots captured from the French. The cause of the explosion at Laon, whereby the citadel was destroyed, is still a mystery, though the prefect of the department, and a number of prisoners have been subjected to a rigid examination by Baron Von Moltke.

ITALY.

Italians marching on Rome.—Papal troops refuse to fight.
FLORENCE, 13.—A proclamation, issued by the King to the Romans, says: peace, order and self government, and not war, are brought and offered by the Italians; and the papacy will remain inviolate.

Demonstrations were made at Terracina in favor of the Italian occupation of Rome, and the Papal troops refuse to fight the national soldiers. General Bixio, who commands the advance, encounters no resistance.

The railroad to Rome is in the hands of the Italians, but it has been cut by the retreating forces of the Pope.

FLORENCE, 13: Evening.—The following official news has just been made public: The Papal troops have evacuated the town of Terracina. The Italians were warmly welcomed at Vieste, and elsewhere on their appearance in the pontifical territory. The Papal troops fraternized with the Italian soldiers.

General Gaborio's advance southward from Viterbo was stopped for a time, at Civita Castellana. The Papal zouaves, forming the garrison of Castel, opened fire on the Italians, and a battle ensued, which lasted about an hour, when the pontifical forces surrendered. They were then taken to Spello as prisoners of war. Several places have been occupied by the Italian troops at the request of the citizens. Frazzine has been evacuated by the Papal forces.
