

NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Lively Fight Occurs Between Ex-cluded School Board Directors.

A CHILD KILLED BY A BEAR.

The Query Act and the Chinese—Long and Bitter Litigation—A Case of Leprosy.

The enforcement of the Query Act was begun at Riverside on Wednesday afternoon by the arrest of ten Chinese.

Eleven men were dropped from the payroll of the Chinese and Japanese at Virginia, Nevada, on Wednesday night, back of each in the Chinese treasury making a requisition of $2,000 necessary.

An amusing scene took place in a San Francisco alley last night, when a man named James J. O'Connell, who had been arrested for a violation of the Chinese Exclusion Act, was being taken to the police station. He was being carried by two men, one of whom was a Chinese. The man being carried was shouting and making a great deal of noise. The Chinese man was laughing and making fun of him. The scene was witnessed by a large number of people who were standing in the alley.

The Hotel Monterey, at Hildesheim, China, which was recently built at a cost of $20,000, celebrated its opening day by a series of games, etc. The games were played by the Chinese and the Chinese. The games were played by the Chinese and the Chinese. The games were played by the Chinese and the Chinese.

A shocking accident happened in the fourteenth-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Schultz of Midvale, Missouri county, Missouri, a few days ago. The child was playing in the front yard when the mother looked out the door and saw a large bear approaching. She screamed and tried to frighten the bear away, but it was too late. The bear sprang at the child and tore at its throat. The child was killed. The mother was so shocked that she fainted. The bear was shot by a neighbor.

A legal decision has just been rendered in a San Francisco court, which ends for a time the long and bitter litigation between Catherine Marshall and her daughter, Mrs. Louise Sherman. The court has decided in favor of Mrs. Marshall.

The meeting of the San Francisco board of education on Wednesday night was a long and tedious one. The board was called to order by the president, who read the minutes of the previous meeting. The board then proceeded to discuss the report of the committee on the Chinese Exclusion Act. The committee had recommended that the board should take no action on the act. The board voted to accept the recommendation of the committee.

in horror at the spectacle. A more exciting scene never brought to a close the proceedings of a public body in San Francisco. Not more intense emotions were known than the excitement of the night when James J. O'Connell was being carried to the police station. The scene was witnessed by a large number of people who were standing in the alley.
