PIOCHE BRANCH ROAD.

Second Vice President Clark Now in The City.

Second Vice President J. Ross Clark of the Salt Lake Route is in the city on business affairs connected with the Clark road. When asked con the report current that work had been begun on the extension of the Clark road from Callente to Pioche Mr. Clark said that construction work had not commenced Mr. Clark said: "A corps of surveyors has started to make a survey of the line to Ploche, which is 30 miles from Callente, but how long it will take to complete the survey is indefinite and no approximate time has been set for the beginning of construction work. The report that work has begun is un-

Excellent progress is being made extended progress is being made with the Las Vegas branch and early next month Beatty will be reached. Rhyolite, four and a half miles distant, is the next objective. There is some heavy rock work to be done between Beatty and Rhyolite and a force of men is now employed there, and we expect to enter the latter town some time in August. At present we are running a train daily to Johnnie, 75 miles from Las Vegas, and the service is being fut-ly taken advantage of."

W. P. INDENTURE ISSUED.

Statement Made That Road Will be Completed by September, 1908.

The indenture of the Western Pacific of 5 per cent mortgage which secures $50,000,000 30 year coupon and registered bonds, dated Sept. 1, 1903, bearing interest from March 1, 1905, interest payable March 1 and Sept. 1,

The coupon bonds are issued in denominations of $1,000, exchangeable for 10 bonds of $100 each. Registered bonds are all $1,000. The whole issue is redeemable at 105 and interest on 60 days' notice, and has a staking fund of $50,000 per annum beginning Sept. 1, 1910.

The property pledged is as follows:

Main line, Salt Lake to San Twelve branch lines, aggregat-

Three contracts with other railways are pledged, as follows:

Pirst—Contract of the Rio Grande Western to purchase second morigage bonds of the Western Pacific to com-plete Western Pacific from Salt Lake Fourth-Traffic contracts that may be made between Western Pacine and Rio Grande Western, or either of them, and Colorado & Southern and Colo-tado Midland, or either of them.

With regard to the second contract, which has the appearance of an outand-out guarantee of interest, it must he noted that on page 76 of the inden-ture it is provided that in case of a de-fault and foreclosure, this contract is exempted from sale. This provision would seem to afford a method wherethe supposed guarantee could be

It is provided that interest on all bonds shall be paid up to September, 1908, out of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds. These proceeds are paid ever to the Bowling Green Trust company and to other trust companies approved by Biair & Co., William Salomen & Co., and William A. Read & Co. he trust company to have at any time on deposit more of this money than would equal half of its capital and surplus. The trust companies are to pay interest, but the rate is not stipulated.

Western Pacific agrees that it will complete and equip the main line prior to Sept. 2, 1968, with adequate terminals at Oakland, San Francisco and Salt Lake City. The route of the main line may be changed, but is outlined in the mortgage as follows:

From San Francisco by ferry and barge to Oaklund; thence southeast and cost to the boundary line between Alameda and San Joaquin counties: thence northeast to Stockion; thence borthwest and north to Sacramento. Marysville, Oraville, along the north fork of the Feather river, along Spanish creek and Spring Garden creek, along the middle fork of the Feather river, east across Sierra valley to a middle on the hearders liver. point on the boundary line between California and Nevada, thence due cast across Nevada and Utah to Salt Lake

In case of default, the irustees shall take action for foreclosure on the re-quest of 20 per cent of the bends; but the holders of 30 per cent have the right to control the method of fore-closure and sale, and to direct the rustee to declare the bonds due or to waive such declaration. As to the agreements pledged under this mortgage, it is provided under section 9 of article 4 that the Western Pacific will enforce all these contracts by sail or by suit or otherwise; and that the trustee, on the request of 20 per cent of the bondholders, also has the right enforce these agreements at the expense of the Western Pacific. Any change in these agreements must be approved by two-thirds of the whole sount of bonds issued and author-

FIGHT OVER TRACKAGE

Between R. G. W. and O. S. L. Will be In Court Friday. On Friday morning at 10 e'clock the fight between the Rio Grande Western attention of Judge John A. Marshall is and Oregon Short Line companies over engaged in a hearing of the case of the trackage privileges on Fifth West Southern Pacific Railway company and street between Fifth and Sixth North will be heard before Judge Morse of the court as the order to show cause why an injunction should not issue against the Short Line to restrain it from laying tracks on that street is to whether the so-called scalpers shall returnable at that time. There may dso be contempt proceedings at tha hearing as the foreman of the Short line gang of men refused to accept so vice of the restraining order signed by Judge Morse early Sunday morning as kept on laying track. Hence he probably have to explain his conduct to the court. The tracks were laid in the dead of night white the watchman placed at the point of controversy by the Rio Grande, was fast asleep.

The Oregon Short Line Raliroad comdamage suit filed in the district court of Elnathan R. Eldredge who asks judgment for $20,000 for injuries alleged to have been received on Aug. 15, 1904, while working in an ice house belonging to defendant. He fell from an insecure scaffold and sustained internal injuries which he alleges are permanent,

AMUSEMENTS.

Salt Lake Theater-At the Salt Lake theater last night C. E. Johnson, the well known Salt Lake photographer, exhibited a great number of lantern slides showing San Francisco before and after the fire and earthquake. In addition to the city itself, pictures showing the destruction at San Mates, Stanford, Santa Rosa and San Jose were shown, the whole giving a very comprehensive and entertaining view of the earthquake zone, and the destruction of the aerrible morning of Assisting Mr. Johnson, who made brief explanatory statements about each view shown, were Miss Millie Willlams and Miss Pearl Pratt. Miss Williams sang effectively a number of co-los, among which was "The Stricken City," by Ella Wheeler Wilcox. Miss Pratt sang Tosti's "Farewell" in a pleasing manner, and was heartily en-cored. The stereopticon entertainment will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night and at a matinee tomorrow. Orpheum-It is a coincidence worthy of notice that the Orpheum Stock com-pany should have commenced the final as well as the first week of its sea-son with "The Girl I Left Behind Me." At the time the "News" predicted that the company would read its way to a place of high esteem in the hearts of Salt Lake theatergoers. The prediction has been amply fulfilled, and last night there were many expressions of regret that the company is about to disband, but at the same time there was pleasure in the knowledge that a majority of its members are about to enter up-an engagement at the Salt Lake By way of review of last night's performance there is little to say beyond the fact that in the main it went much more smoothly than on the opening night six weeks ago. In only one act was there any lagging or dropped lines. The rest was admirably done. Mr. Mayhall, Miss Stuart, Luke Cosgrove, Mr. Mortimer Clements, Mr. Barrett, Mr. Roach and Miss Florence each got an enthusiastic reception. Fawn Afraid, which was played during the opening week by Miss Conway, was in the hands of Miss Gresham, with the result that it was greatly improved. Miss Luta Wolsey, a Salt Lake Girl, had the role of Little Dick. "The Girl I Left Hehind Me," will be the ur to and including Wednesday ht. The last half of the week will night.

be taken up by "Old Heldelberg" and "Alabama." Grand-A large audience witnessed the second presentation of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde' at the Grand last evening. The story that would have made Robert Louis Stevenson famous. if he had written nothing else, has produced a play that will live long and ever find numerous people to be attracted to witness the portrayal of attracted to witness the portrayal of the most intensely interesting fund character known to fiction. The play as rendered by the Ethel Tucker Stock company, is a version by Mr. Brandon, who assumes the leading part, and plays it admirably. He added much last evening to the honors that have been his since the engagement began. What there is to the play aside from the one character, was in clever hands. and the performance was thoroughly Casino Park-The bill at Casino Casino Park—The bill at Casino Park this week is "Why She Sinned," by the Jane Kelton company, composed of a number of competent actors of the popular grade. The opening performance was given last evening to a large audience. The play consists of four acts and it would be too long and possibly thresome but for the fact that the show is given in the open air. But it is finally made plain "why she sinit is finally made plain "why she sin-ned," and as everything comes out all right in the end, those who saw the performance had a good evening's entertainment. The play is by no means below the average, but rather above it. and nearly all the players handled thefr parts in a capable manner,

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.

Special Correspondence.

The grand strawberry festival, arranged by the presidency of the Boxelder stake and held in the opera house Saturday evening, June 23, was a feast that will long be remembered by all present, the guests of honor were President Joseph F. Smith, Elders Rudger Clawson and Charles W. Penrose of the apostles' quorum, with their wives. Other invited guests were the members of the high council, the patri-arch's, the bishops of all the wards in the stake and their counselors, the mayor and members of the city council with their ladies.

The various committees appointed worked hard and harmoniously and their labors were greatly appreciated. The decorating committee in charge of William C. Horsley soon changed the dance hall of the opera house into a besutiful banquet hall. The motto "Welcome," in roses and evergreens, over the entrance, and the floral design along the center table, "Our Prophet. where the words white roses worked in a background of red and pink roses, were very artistically arranged and admired by all; bouquets and flowers were also arranged along the three tables the length of

DEATH WAS SUDDEN.

Demise of Mrs. Caroline G. Hill Following Ptomaine Poison Symptoms.

The end of life's journey was suddenly and unexpectedly reached this morning by Mrs. Caroline Graham Hill, wife of the late Patriarch Archibaid N. Hill of this city. In her demise there passes to the eternal and unseen world a woman of the pioneer type; one who has tasted of the sorrows and joys that come to those who brave the trials and hardships of the Tonight Mr. and Mrs. P. That her crossing of the dark river should have come unheralded and unanticipated by her family and friends is a source of deep regret. During the winter she suffered an attack of typhold fever and never fully regained her strength. On Sunday of this week she became very ill with symptoms of ptemaine poisoning. A physician was called and every medical attention coupled with tender nursing given her, but all in vain, and early this morning her spirit took its flight.

The deceased was a native of Alabama and was born March 15, 1841. Her parents identified themselves with Mormonism in the very early days and he accompanied them to Nauvoo and later took up the march to the great west arriving here in 1852 after an arduous journey and after burying her mother, who succumbed to the sever-ities of the trip, on the plains. She was married on March 7, 1857 and continued to reside in Salt Lake until she answered the last summons to-day. She was the mother of five children, three of whom survive her.

UTAH LAKE RECEDING.

From Geo. C. Lambert, secretary of the Utah lake commission, it is learned that the Utah lake, which has been gradually rising since the pumps at its outlet ceased to operate last fall, has begun to recede. On the 16th inst. its surface was 1.35 feet below compromise point, the highest point reached durng several years. On the 23rd inst. It had receded to 1.38. The observation taken on the corresponding date last year showed it to be 2.65 below compromise point, or 1.27 lower than this
