It is cold weather the mountains, and hard going. but Mr. Tanner is equipped for anything that may turn up. Upon his report largely depends future action in the proposed improvement.

Another bunch of letters from school hildren in London to the pupils of Utah schools has been received by State Supt. of Schools Nelson and will be distributed among the schoolchildren of Utah and Sanpete counties to an-swer. There are 17 letters in all and they are written by children between the ages of 11 and 14 years. The let-ters contain some interesting and very creditable descriptions of places of in. terest in London and information concerning the schools of that city. The letters show that the grade pupils are somewhat farther advanced there than in this country, particularly in the matter of languages. They also disclose the fact that a great deal of attention is paid to manual training in the schools there.

RICHARDS HOPEFUL.

Says Utah Lake Irrigation Will Go Through Whether or No.

"While we regret very much the adverse action of the South Jordan Canal company in the matter of the government irrigation project, we look upon the course taken as one that will be more injurious to the canal company itself than to any others who may be concerned in the immense undertaking. We who are directly interested in the project would be pleased, indeed, to harmonize all conflicting interests, but if they cannot be harmonized the matter will go through just the same, and our obdurate friends will be left out in the cold." The statement was made by Attorney F. S. Richards who further said that he did not regard as final the action of the South Jordan Canal company in refusing to co-operate in the enterprise. The same difficulty was encountered when the installing of the pumping plant at Utah lake was proposed, except that two companies instead of one refused to come in. Had the others stopped and waited for these to co-operate with them, the work would never have been But it was done and both of the done. dissenting companies finally came Mr. Richards is hopeful of final har mony and he believes that when the matter is thoroughly understood, the South Jordan people will be as eager as any to get in on the ground floor.

The notice which is the basis of the action is a probate notice in the estate of Thom-as E. Broderick, deceased. Glen R. Roth-well, administrator of the estate, today as B. Broderick, deceased. Glen R. Roth-well, administrator of the estate, today filed a written request in the cierk's of-fice asking that the notice be published in Truth. The request was denied by the clerk and this action was then filed. Judge Hall this morning issuel an al-ternative writ of mandamus, which is re-turnable on Friday, April 22, at 2 o'clock p. m., commanding the clerk to appear at that time and show cause why he should not issue said order of publication as re-quested by the administrator of the esquested by the administrator of the estate.

It was stated today by a friend of County Clerk James that the reason he refused to give advertising to Truth is be-cause of alleged personal attacks against him which appeared in that publication lost foll last fall.
