The Fitzjohn Porter Case. WEST POINT, N. Y., 16. — The hearing in the Fitzjohn Porter case was resumed in the Academy Library to-day. The first witness called was Chas. O. Williams, aidede camp of the rebel general, Jones, He is now a lawyer at Richmond, Va. He testifled, as have the other witnesses, as to Longstreet's posi-sition in front of Porter, on the 29th, and gave details. He also corroborated other witnesses in saying it was only artillery firing on the 29th, except that Hood had several fights near sundown, but he made no reference to any general engagements. In reply to General Schoffeld, he said the principal fir-

not have been a combined engagement as was emphatically stated by Pope in his dispatch to Halleck.
