

STOLE MONEY OF POOR PEOPLE

HE LIVED A VERY MERRY LIFE.

Intimated/That When He Fled He Was Accompanied by a Divorcee Woman.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—The Tribune today says:
"A state of affairs more startling and shocking than had been hinted previously in connection with the collapse of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank was revealed last night, when it became plain that through barefaced forgery President Paul O. Stensland had plundered his own bank systematically through a period of years."

"The question arose whether Cashier Henry W. Herring profited to any large extent by this plundering. His friends say he did not, though acknowledging that he may have had knowledge of what Stensland was doing. At any rate there has been discovered in President Stensland's own safety deposit box a series of memoranda detailing how the bank was looted."

"The amount thus taken from the savings of 22,000 poor families, as set down in Stensland's handwriting, is $1,000,000. The money went to support Stensland's real estate speculations, his 'co-operative' building and business, and his fine household in Irving Park."

"According to the police, some of it also went latterly for luxuries for a certain woman or women friends of Stensland's."

"It was intimated that when the bank president fled he was accompanied by a divorced woman, who is still with him."

"Information about the long list of forgeries—with detailed corroborations—was obtained by the Tribune from a source of unimpeachable authority. The Tribune's informant saw the memorandum of forgeries, memorandum notes, and other fictitious paper which the fugitive president and cashier left behind them. The thefts consisted of nearly 20 items ranging from $1,000 to $10,000 each."

"The names forged are those of directors and stockholders in the bank and of persons associated with Stensland in other business ventures. Some dummy names are there too."
If the entire amount of $1,000,000 is found on investigation to be composed wholly of forgeries, of course no part of it can be recovered. This discrepancy alone will mean the loss to each depositor of one-fourth of his savings. It is furthermore feared that Stensland may have taken with him in his flight a large supply of the bank's cash."

A FAMILY STRIKE.

Chicago Janitresses Vote to Aid
Of Their Husbands.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—The first family strike to be recorded in the labor movement in Chicago was ordered yesterday when 250 janitresses voted to go to the aid of their husbands to win an increase in wages demanded by window washers in large buildings downtown. Mrs. Felicia Fredericks turned the Tribune's attention to the janitresses' meeting. Several speakers pointed out that the wives of the strikers ought to stay at work and earn a living for their husbands while the latter were out of work.

"What is a false doctrine," objected Mrs. Fredericks. "Women are supposed to be helpmates of their husbands but they are not their slaves. Moreover, I believe we can assist them better by seeing to scrub the floors and stairways the life office blocks not beguiled by the vote of the strikers."

The vote was practically unanimous in favor of laying down mops and brooms in 20 skyscrapers tomorrow morning.

WILL WITHDRAW FROM FRANCE.

New York, Aug. 8.—Emory McClintock, first vice president of the Mutual Life insurance company, in his return from Europe yesterday, denied the reports that the Mutual Life proposed to reconsider its decision to withdraw from France, in view of the recent action of the New York Life. Mr. McClintock said that there had been no suggestion of such reconsideration by any one connected with the company in this country. He declared that at the time of his departure from England the English branch of the International policyholders' committee had not begun to send out any circulars to policyholders.

Soon after his arrival, Mr. McClintock was in conference with President Peabody. After Mr. Peabody had conferred with Frederick V. Allen and Walter Shaw Brewster, it was said that Mr. Peabody would oppose today the international committee's demands for the company's new special list of policyholders.

Justice Glicerich in the supreme court this morning will hear arguments on the mandamus writ sought by the committee to compel the company to furnish the list to its committee.

The trustees of the New York Life insurance company will hold their regular monthly meeting today.

MISSISSIPPI BONDS.

Gov. Vardaman Refuses to Accept
Checks in Payment for Them.

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 8.—A sensation was caused here last night when it was announced that the state would not have the benefit of $500,000 bond sale awarded to a Chicago firm on July 2. A representative of the firm came here and tendered certified checks for the bonds for the amount of $1,000. The governor declined to accept the checks, but demanded payment in currency under the law, which the firm declined to give. As a result the deal is off for the present, and will not be renewed unless the governor or firm make concessions as to change. The bidders hold that their bid contemplated payment in checks and not in currency, with delivery of bonds in Chicago. The governor holds the firm checks for $500,000 as a forfeit.

Many steamers that enter American ports were boarded and numerous violations of navigation regulations were found. A closer watch than usual is being kept over the passenger boats this year. Yesterday a passenger ferry steamer, Onondaga, was stopped by the cutter officers, was tied up by the cutter officers for lack of papers, her license having expired.

The steamer Alexandria of Pictou, Ont., bound down the St. Lawrence to Quebec with passengers and freight, broke an engine shaft yesterday while passing here. She was caught and towed into Prescott for repairs. Ten minutes later the steamer would have been in the rapids.

KRAMER RIDES IN FINE FORM

Surprises the Fans at Saucer Track With Excellent Showing.

NO EFFORT TO MAKE SPEED.

He Approaches World's Record for Quarter in Quiet Ride Without Hurrying at Finish.

The saucer track last night held about as many people as one lone manager could wish to crowd in, and Frank Kramer was the leading attraction. He was scheduled for an exhibition match with himself against the late Lawson's record in the quarter-mile. The record still stands at 24.4, while Kramer goes on record as having done it in 24.5. Let not the unwary, however, mix up this data. Kramer and the press agent did not connect well on the matter, and to Kramer it was just a case of riding around the saucer twice to show himself.

He neither put on steam, nor sprinted at the finish to save a hair, but he did it down. If the people of Salt Lake, who incidentally love him as a summer diversion, were plotting to give him a prize for ever they want to throw off a lot of it at once, and begin to count on a ride to the last limit of Levi's ability when he meets Kramer. The saucer is a great rider, and out of a class with anyone ever seen here except the man he is matched with next week.

LAWSON RESTING.

Iver did not ride last night. He evidently has caught a bad cold, and is resting to save himself for the Greenwald race race consequently found McFarland in at the finish with a heartbeating sprint. Mac wasn't in on a team combination that delivered Hollister for the sprint, but he was in a chance and caught Hollister's wheel as the lad shot by him a lap from home.

The five-mile motor-paced race flared out, and West and Hume were decided by the motor, which were on a bad streak, and after they had refused to go, one motorist, who was in the contest, was in the favored position, and when the speed was increased near the finish the motor was shaken off. He did two laps on the bank trying to go around a pace that was too much for him, and when West was released for the sprint he was in good form and won easily.
