SUPPORT OF DISTRICT

than local interest: September 18, 1883.

Editor Deseret News: The district school law requires that the Trustees shall provide furtrict, or by soliciting donations from liberal residents? If, when a meeting of tax-payers of the district be called, a tax be refused, what course is advisable for the Trustees to follow? And if a tax is levied can it be collected? An answer to the be collected? An answer to the above will greatly oblige.
Yours truly,

and of course the Trustees are not under obligations to provide schoolhouses, furniture, apparatus, fuel or anything else for the schools beyond the reach of such funds as may be in their possession. The school money raised by general taxation cannot be lawfully used for any other purpose than the payment of school teachers. The only fund left in the Tustees' hands which they have any discretion in using is the amount received for tuition fees, which they "may at their option collect." Of the expenditure of this money they must give an account at the annual school give an account at the annual school meeting, and if that is endorsed by the registered voters present it will be considered lawful and valid. To grow out of the abnormal conditions There is nothing in the law provid. ing for the collection by the Trustees of donations for school purposes, but if any one desires to assist a District School by voluntary donations, no sensible Trustee would re-
