

SOCIETY

The patriotic spirit has dominated the week, the majority of social affairs being in honor of the great national holiday. Red, white and blue, in bunting, flags and flowers, with hatched and cherries and everything else colonial, have been the decorative theme in the many parties which have been given. Bunting, flags and a score of smaller but none the less pleasant events.

Perhaps the most elaborate event was a banquet of states held last night at the First M. E. church. The decorations and all details being carried out on a magnificent and thoroughly artistic plan. Mr. Fisher Harris was toastmaster and a number of well known people responded.

Another notable banquet of yesterday, though given in the name of a banquet, was the annual celebratory of the Daughters of the American Revolution, at the Manhattan, the dining room being beautifully decorated in the national and colonial colors, and a program of clever toasts given by representative women of the society.

Mrs. John C. Cutler has issued invitations for a large luncheon at the Alta club next Friday, March 1.

On Tuesday, Mrs. J. V. Sadler and Miss Daisy Raybould gave a box-party at the Orpheum in honor of Miss Edna Bailey, their guests being two boxes. Refreshments were served at the Orpheum, the table being decorated in daffodils and the place cards being hand-painted in the same flowers. The guests were Mrs. Charles H. Post, Mrs. J. E. Hutton, Mrs. Fred Lorn, Mrs. Russell Koss, Mrs. Charles Lawrence, Mrs. George Taylor, Miss Jessie Anderson, Miss Ione Morrison and Miss Minnie Sadler.

Mrs. W. W. Anderson entertained at a "fish" party on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Griffith Roberts of Denver, a paper being read on "Salmon Fisheries" by Mrs. William Cronin and a "fish" game being played afterward in which Mrs. C. E. Post was prize winner. The decorations were in carnations and the favors valentines. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. W. H. Dayton, Mrs. Clarence Post, Mrs. Richard Evans, Mrs. Hugh Ward, Mrs. Alfred Peters, Mrs. Chestnut, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Rubelle Rathbone, Miss Bessie Williamson, Misses Helene and Bess O'Brien, Miss Sarah Johnstone, Miss Dolie Davis.

Miss Edith Shearman entertained the bridge club on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dorn entertained their card club on Monday night. The prizes going to Mrs. Sam Porter and Mr. Fred Odell.

Mrs. J. M. Moore entertained the Plate club on Thursday, the prizes going to Mrs. Billings and Mrs. McMillan.

Miss Florence Robbins gave a luncheon yesterday, emblems and colors of the day being in the decorations.

About 40 guests enjoyed the hospitalities of Mrs. H. M. Loomis on Thursday night, the affair being in honor of Mr. James McLeod and the time being spent with cards and guessing games. The rooms were decorated in American beauty roses and symbols of the day, and prizes were awarded Mrs. James, Mrs. Lockington and Mr. Rose.

Miss Margaret Home was hostess at a party of children's party on Thursday in honor of Master Byron Bowers, the time being spent with games, and the following being present: Byron Bowers, Willie Mitchell, Roscoe Sorenson, Fred Sorenson, Frank Horne, George Gudger, Frank Davis, Brink Covey, Margaret Horne, Fern Newton, Mary Gilmer, May Davis, Florence Davis, Flora Corbett, Anneta Peterson, Flora Bowers, Beatrice Sears, Reta Hume, Eugenia Mercler and Florence Harker.

Mrs. Ferdinand Fabian entertained her card club yesterday.

Misses Olive and Angela Ferris entertained at a delightful tea yesterday, the decorations and all details being done in patriotic emblems and a number of friends being entertained.

Mrs. F. U. Leonard entertained her card club yesterday.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing was hostess at a luncheon and bridge party yesterday, her affair being in honor of Mrs. Hutton and the patriotic colors being used in the decorations.

Mrs. Hutton was guest of honor Thursday at a delightful informal afternoon party given by Mrs. T. G. Griffin.

Mrs. Russell Lorn Tracy and Mrs. E. B. Stephens have issued invitations for a luncheon next week to be given at the home of Mrs. Tracy in honor of Mrs. Clarence Brown of California, formerly of this city.

An interesting patriotic function of the week partaking of a social nature was the celebration meeting of the Daughters of the Revolution at the home of Mrs. M. Y. Douglass on Wednesday, the rooms being bright with daffodils and flags, a Dutch colonial supper served, and a patriotic program given, dealing with important events in the life of Washington.

Mrs. H. M. Wells entertained at a bridge tea on Thursday, about 30 guests being present. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. E. Tripp, Mrs. E. S. Perry and Mrs. Frank Leavins, and prizes awarded each table, the winners being Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. Jay Tarvin, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Clifford S. Pearsall, Mrs. Lear Riter, Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. Katherine Judge, Miss Margaret Park and Mrs. M. S. Woodward.

Mrs. C. M. Bell gave a luncheon on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Frank Halm of Los Angeles, the decorations being in white carnations and ferns, and favors laid for Mrs. George Putnam, Mrs. E. T. Harvey, Mrs. W. L. Green, Miss Sampson, Mrs. Harry Schultz, Mrs. A. R. Hirth, Mrs. Frank Halm and Mrs. Jessie Zane.

A large event of this afternoon is the reception given in honor of Mrs. Clarence T. Brown by the ladies of the Congressional church, the hours being from 3 to 6 at the church parsonage.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Buswell entertained at a card party on Thursday night in honor of Mrs. W. M. Buswell, the rooms being effectively decorated and a number of intimate friends being present.

One of the prettiest luncheons of the week was that given by Mrs. Grant Hampton on Wednesday at the University club, the table having for a centerpiece a bed of cherries dotted with tiny hatched and colonial hats. The guests were Mrs. Jay Tarvin Harris, Mrs. A. C. Ewing, Mrs. W. P. James, Mrs. T. G. Griffin, Mrs. Roy Hampton, Miss Edna Bailey, Mrs. James E. Jennings, Miss Edith Sherman, Mrs. A. S. Bowers, Mrs. F. J. Fabian, Mrs. Thomas Weir, Mrs. Don Carlos Roberts, Mrs. Jean Park, Mrs. Frank Roberts, Miss Crawford, Mrs. A. J. Gorham and Miss Kessel of Ogden.

A pleasant card party of the week was that given by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Green on Wednesday night in honor of visiting friends, the amusement being euchre and the decorations being in red and white carnations, while cherry trees and hatched adorned the place cards. Those attending during the evening were Mrs. Allen Blake, Miss Jessie Anderson, Miss Sampson and Miss Tinsman. Those invited to meet the guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knight, Mr. and Mrs. S. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. George Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. George Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mr. and Mrs. Harding.

Mrs. J. R. Walker gave an informal luncheon on Wednesday for Miss Winn and Miss Block, the decorations being in daffodils and ferns, and the place cards painted in the same flowers. Invited to meet the guests of honor were Mrs. William Gibson Sharp, Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, Mrs. Union Worthington, Miss Harnett, Miss Nason, Miss Adelaide Nason, Miss Rookledge.

A military dance will be given by the battalion of the High school cadets on Friday evening, March 8, at the National Guard armory.

Miss Hazel Alder was hostess at a pretty shower party on Wednesday given in honor of Miss Hazel Grant, one of the March brides, the decorations being in hearts and potted plants, and the lights shined in red, while favors in the way of heart shaped bon-bon boxes were at each place. The guests numbered the intimate friends of the hostess and guests of honor.

About 30 guests were entertained by Mrs. Sadler on Monday in honor of Mrs. J. E. Hutton, the affair being a bridge tea, and prizes awarded at each table. The decorations were jonquils and assisting were Miss Elsie Sadler, Miss Jenna-Budd Geddes and Miss Florence Kimball. The prize winners in the game were Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. O. K. Lewis, Mrs. Sam Porter, Miss Katherine Judge, Miss Jessie Anderson and Miss Addie Zane.

Miss Lucy Williams entertained at a luncheon at the Commercial club on Monday in honor of her guest, the table being bright with flowers and covers laid for seven.

Mrs. Selma B. Robbins and Mrs. Florence N. Farrell entertained a number of friends at the residence of Mrs. Farrell on Seventh street, in a delightful Kensington. Delicious refreshments were served and a most enjoyable afternoon spent by all present.

Gov. and Mrs. John C. Cutler gave a box party at the Orpheum, Adit-Gon, and Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood and Col. and Mrs. A. B. Irvine being the guests.

One of the interesting events of next week will be the banquet at the Lion House, celebrating the birthday anniversary of Mrs. E. B. Wells, the affair including a program of toasts by members of the Utah Woman's Press club, under whose auspices it will be given. Mrs. Wells is the founder of the club, and the banquet is also in recognition of this fact.

WEDDING BELLS

One of the week's interesting marriages was that of Miss Mildred Ott and Thomas Anderson on Wednesday night, the affair taking place at the home of the bride with Rev. E. I. Goshen officiating, Miss Pansy Anderson acting as bridesmaid and Mr. James H. Sargent of Nevada best man. Miss Esther Allen and Miss Judith Anderson played appropriate bridal music and assisting in receiving and serving were Mrs. M. and Mrs. L. K. Ott, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Anderson, Miss Jennie Home, Miss Helen Sanchell, Miss Edith Chapman, Miss Ethel Partridge, Miss Mary Roberts of Ogden.

Another interesting event was the marriage of Miss Cecelia Sharp and Mr. Mahron Young on Wednesday, the civil clerk performing the ceremony in the presence of Mr. L. L. Cooley, Mr. Arthur Shepherd and Mr. Lee Greene Richards, all of this city.

Miss Laura Preston and Mr. George Ginnert were married today at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. C. Diehl, the ceremony being performed at 2 o'clock, by Rev. E. I. Goshen. The bride and groom were assisted by Mrs. D. C. Anderson, Miss Jennie Home, Miss Helen Sanchell, Miss Edith Chapman, Miss Ethel Partridge, Miss Mary Roberts of Ogden.

On Wednesday Rev. F. F. Eddy performed the ceremony uniting Miss Harriet Breggar and Frank Rowley, an informal luncheon being served later to the bridal party and a few intimate friends, the table being prettily decorated for the event. Mr. and Mrs. Rowley will be at home at 514 south State street.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Marie Frederick Morris and Eugene Julius Greutner on Feb. 9. Mr. and Mrs. Greutner will be at home after April 1, at 551 south West Temple street.

The marriage of Miss Louise Young and Mr. Thomas J. Carrigan will take place on Tuesday, March 5, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Young 83 Second street. A reception will follow the ceremony for the relatives and intimate friends, and the young people will leave immediately after for California.

On Wednesday night Miss Ruth Holding and Leonard W. Taylor were married by Bishop J. W. Bond, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride, which was prettily decorated in the national colors, Miss Alice Dunn acting as bridesmaid and Frank Taylor best man.

Salt Lake people were interested in the marriage of Roscoe Bredon of this city and Miss Mollie Stark of Los Angeles, which took place this week in the latter place. Mr. and Mrs. Bredon will spend their honeymoon on the coast and will afterward come here to reside.

A pretty wedding celebrated the nuptials of Miss Ethel Chase and Joseph Held on Thursday, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Chase and Mrs. Mary Held, the rooms being prettily decorated for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Held will be at home to

The marriage of Miss Hilma Eugenia Annot and Stanley James Ogden took place at the home of the groom's parents, the ceremony being performed by Bishop U. G. Miller of Murray First ward. The young couple will be at home after March 1, at 55 Aberdeen street.

COMING AND GOING

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Savage left Sunday for New York, after a few days spent with Judge and Mrs. C. C. Goodwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Brig T. Cannon have returned from a stay of a month in California.

Prof. and Mrs. Joseph J. Daynes and daughter, Marguerite, left for southern California this week, to be gone about three months.

Mrs. Samuel Newhouse, accompanied by her niece, Miss Gwendolyn Moore left this week for Washington, D. C., where Miss Moore will enter Mt. Vernon seminary.

Mrs. E. S. Wright has returned from Montpelier, Ida., where she has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Martha Croo.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker have gone to Riverside, Cal., where they expect to spend several weeks.

Mrs. Joseph Young will leave early in March for Chicago, where she will visit with friends.

Miss Mary Kirkpatrick is here to

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.

visit with friends.