IF the reader desires a clearer comprehension of the word "boodle" than he has yet obtained, he should read the telegrams in to-day's NEWS. He will be enlightened then, and interested too.

WE are in receipt of the ninth annual report of the American Humane Association, being a large pamphlet of 125 pages, neatly printed and elaborately illustrated. It is a commendable organization, and deserves substantial support.

RELIGIOUS services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints will be held in the Tabernacle to-morrow afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock. At 10 a. m. services in German will be conducted in the City Hall, and in Scandinavian in the Social Hall.

THE latest figures from the Idaho election cut the majority claimed for Dubois down about 50 per cent. The Legislature stands—Council, Democrats 6, Republicans 5, Independent 1; House, Democrats 13, Republicans 11. Not much of a Republican victory, that.

"AT Steinway Hall last evening Mme Ida Servern, the singing reader, gave an entertainment. Her voice is remarkably pleasing both in singing and in speaking. Her selections pleased the audience mightily—she proved to be a clever mimic."—N. Y. Times. The lady appears in the grand concert at the Theatre on Monday night.

MR. MURRAY, one of the actors in the Staley farce—against his will—called on us to-day to say that the communication in yesterday's NEW regarding himself was wrong; that he confessed nothing and was not personally in default. His case was in the hands of duly employed attorneys, and if there were any shortcomings it was their fault, not his.

THE chicken thieves are being gathered in by the police. Wood and coal stealers should next receive attention. A number of instances have been reported of late. On one occasion a poor lady in the Twenty-first Ward, who had received some coal from the ward, was robbed of a large portion of it by a thief who visited the coal shed at night.

LOCAL NEWS.

Two New Pieces.—We have been favored with a copy of "My Dream Fulfilled," and of "Stay Thou With Me," two new vocal pieces, the words and music of which are by Prof. Evan Stephens, of this city. The former is a song of pleasing sentiment, and the latter is a duet of considerable beauty and merit.

Variety Entertainment.—The members of the Sixth Ward Silver Band will give a variety entertainment in the Sixth Ward school house, on Thanksgiving eve., Wednesday evening next. The best talent in the Ward has been secured, and judging from the programme which is before us, those who attend will be well repaid for their outlay. The entertainment consists of minstrelsy, an olio, a sketch and a farce. The admission is only 25 cents [illegible] children 10 cents.

The First District Court.—The chief item of interest in the court at Ogden has been the trial of Mrs. Susan Parry, of that place, on the charge of perjury. It is alleged that, in February last, Mrs. Parry was before the grand jury as a witness in a case of unlawful cohabitation against her husband, Joseph Parry, and that in her testimony before the inquisitors she said her youngest child was nearly three years old, when in fact it was less than two.

The trial was commenced on Thursday afternoon, occupied all the time yesterday, and was continued until to-day. The prosecution introduced a number of witnesses, some of them being members of the grand jury, who testified as to what Mrs. Parry said before that body, and others who gave evidence that her youngest child was born in the autumn of 1884.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Parry herself took the stand for the defense. She testified substantially as follows: I am the defendant in this case; was subpœnaed to go before the grand jury February 18, 1886, at 10 a. m., and was immediately ushered into their presence; my daughter was subpœnaed at the same time; I had never been a witness in a court before, and was entirely ignorant of the methods and proceedings; was too much excited to know who was in the room or who asked me questions; was interrogated concerning a case of cohabitation against Joseph Parry; questions were asked as to the age of my oldest and youngest children; gave the age of the oldest as eleven years; my youngest child is named Henry Grover; it was two years old last October; I gave the age of this child before the grand jury as going on three years instead of two years; the error was made through excitement; had no knowledge of the effect my reply would have on the case; did not realize afterwards that I had done any wrong, or should have corrected it; I told my daughter when I came out that I had made a mistake, and would have corrected it had I had presence of mind to know that I could do so; had no object in making a misstatement; it was done through excitement.

To Mr. Hiles—Joseph Parry is my husband; he had another wife at that time; am a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; Mr. Parry is also a member of that Church; Winslow Farr was my Bishop at that time; had no conversation with any one before going before the grand jury about what I was going to say; supposed that I was wanted on Mr. Parry's case; did not have time to talk with anyone about it before going to the grand jury room; no one talked with me before I went into the grand jury room or since as to how I should testify.

Mrs. Parry burst into tears at this point in the cross-examination and the scene which followed was a very affecting one. The court adjourned until to-day, and this morning the case was further continued until Monday next.

Police Court.—Yesterday afternoon S. B. Smith was re-arrested on the charge of making an assault with a deadly weapon. The preliminary examination was set for 2 p. m. on Tuesday next, bail being fixed at $1,000.

Yesterday afternoon the police received information that led them to believe that Mrs. Carrie Rockwell-Stewart-Geatz, who is alleged to be the wife of Geatz, now in the county jail for grand larceny, had been guilty of "receiving stolen goods," or in other words, of sending her son Ben Stewart and others out to steal chickens, and then appropriating the fowls to her own use. This information was at once acted upon, and the woman and her son placed in custody. An investigation of the premises resulted in the discovery of seven dead pullets hanging in a hole near the house. At the bottom of the excavation there was also a quantity of chicken heads, feathers, etc. When the woman was arrested she admitted that on the night Geatz was arrested the carousers at her house had devoured four chickens and had also placed themselves outside of about four kegs of beer. The boy further stated that himself and others, one of whom was Geaty, had appropriated from Mrs. Scherrer's hen roost near by eleven fine, fat fowls. The case was set for investigation this afternoon. At that time Geatz was placed on trial, and the boy, being called, told the whole story of how the defendant, a man named Lutz and himself, went to Mrs. Sherrer's and stole and billed the chickens. They took them home and made a feast. Another man known as "Ed." (who, with Lutz is now in Bingham Cañon), and a soldier named Wagoner, of Company B, Sixth Infantry, were also implicated. Geatz was adjudged guilty and was sentenced to 90 days' imprisonment and $90 fine. This will keep him in jail for six months. Mrs. Geatz was called for trial at 3:30 this afternoon and pleaded not guilty, but as the evidence against her is the same as that against her alleged husband, there is little doubt of the result.

G. T. Scroggins and Al. T[illegible]nor engaged in a fight last evening, at least a charge booked against them in the Police Court accuses them of thus violating a city ordinance. They were arrested and gave surety in the sum of $10 each for their appearance for trial this afternoon.

"Pipes from Prairie Lands."—We have received from the author, Miss Minnie Gilmore, a neat little volume of 150 pages with the above title. It is a poem with numerous addenda, the poem itself being after the style of Longfellow's "Hiawatha." It is guiltless of rhythm, and is a story of Indian characteristics in the days and times when the imaginative invested the aborigines with more of majesty and cleanliness than most of the race possess to-day. The language is clear and well measured and the story neatly told; the addenda contains many fine things in the line of poetry, and altogether the book is quite readable. It is printed on heavy paper with rough edges, and the volume thus presents a rather unique appearance. New York: Cassell & Co.

Sudden Death.—On the 25th of last August a young son of F. C. Boyer and others left Springville to work on the railway at Glenwood Springs, California. On the 8th inst. a telegram was received stating that he had mountain fever, but was doing well under a doctor's care. The father immediately telegraphed that he be sent home; but on the 9th inst. he became worse and on the 10th was dead. The body was carried by wagon 90 miles, from Glenwood Springs to Grand Junction, at which point the deceased's uncle received the remains and conveyed them to Springville, where they were interred on the 15th. Everything was done for the young man that could be, but all was unavailing. He was 17 years old, and was very exemplary in his habits.

The Concerts.—The Cheney-Tolmie concerts will be given in the Salt Lake Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, November 22 and 23. This will be the only opportunity of hearing this celebrated combination of stars, as they are on their regular tour to the Pacific Coast. They come with the highest of recommendations from the eastern press and the best musical critics. They should and we believe will have a crowded house. There will be a change of programme on the second evening.

NOTICE TO SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

On Thanksgiving morning, commencing at 10 o'clock, a special singing practice will be held in the Assembly Hall by Brother Evan Stephen's class who attend Monday afternoons.

The choir leaders of the Sunday schools in the city are urgently requested to be present; also the Ward and Sunday school choirs and all those who take part in the singing in our Sunday schools, who will occupy the gallery.

The teachers and officers of Sunday schools and parents of the children are invited to attend and will occupy the Body of the hall.

JOHN C. CUTLER,
R. S. HORNE,
D. R LYON,
Stake Supt's.

Who Has It?—Mrs. Amanda Cannon lost a double broche shawl on Friday, supposed to have been left in a street car between her residence in the 14th Ward and the 2d Ward. The finder will please leave it at this Office or Mrs. Cannon's residence and be rewarded.

Benefit Performance.—There will be an entertainment for the benefit of the Deseret Hospital given in the Twenty-first Ward meeting house, on Tuesday, the 23d inst. The performance, which consists of songs, music, recitations, tableaux, and the charade of "Refinement," is under the auspices of the Young Ladies Mutual Improvement Association of that Ward. There will no doubt be a substantial appreciation of both the beneficiary and the donors shown.

Alleged Robber Arrested.—On the night of January 17, 1885, Wm. Brant was "held up" in front of the Opera House in this city by two men, who relieved him of his watch. Lincoln Reese was arrested, and convicted of being one of the robbers, and has served out his sentence in the penitentiary. A young man, B. F. Marsh, it is alleged, was his partner, but he could not be found at the time. To-day, however, he was arrested on Second South Street by deputy Sprague. Marsh is believed to have been a sheep herder in the neighborhood of Price, Emery County, for the past year.

The Art Bazar.—The pluck and energy of Mr. Savage, proprietor of the Art Bazar, are well known in this community, and in the past his house has stood in the front with the largest variety of goods in its line, of excellent quality, and at the lowest prices. This season he has provided himself with a stock which eclipses that of his competitors. Almost everything that can be thought of in the art line, and in useful and ornamental notions, can be found on his shelves. Engravings, paintings, chromos, photographs, art materials, poetical and historical works, stationery, books, writing materials, workboxes, purses, toys etc., suitable to all ages and conditions, are on hand in abundance. Schools, associations and private individuals who want holiday gifts should visit or write to the Art Bazar before making purchases.

Sentenced.—On Thursday, the 18th instant, in the Third District Court at Blackfoot, Idaho, Brother S. B. Parkinson was called to receive sentence on a one-count indictment for unlawful cohabitation, of which he had been convicted. The penalty inflicted was six months' imprisonment in the Boise penitentiary and a fine of $300. A Herald correspondent writes that when Brother Parkinson was asked by the Court as to his future intentions, he replied:

"I am an old settler in this country. Where I am known my word is as good as my bond. The record shows that I married my last wife over 19 years ago. My family relations cannot be dissolved by any order of this or any other court. My past life has been shown to the court, and I cannot and will not make any promises as to the future. The law says I am guilty, and however unjust or severe that law may be, I now present myself for the judgment of this court."

"The Silver King".—The city is at present is flooded with the advertisements of the "Silver King." The drama is to be given as a matinee Thanksgiving afternoon and to be repeated Thursday and Friday evenings. The Home Dramatic Club have received this manuscript from the New York owners, and will present it with all the original business done by Tearle and the Wallack company. The fame of the "Silver King" is almost world-wide, and with the people the Home Club have at their command, they will no doubt make up a strong cast. Mr. Wells has the leading role; Mr. Spencer appears in Leeson's famous character of "Coombes," the venerable thief; Mr. Young has Stoddart's part of "Jakes;" Mr. Cummings appears as "Spider," the head of the burglars gang; Mr. Taylor, Mr. White, Mr. Owen, Mr. Crouch, Birdie Cummings, Florence Whitney, Ivy Clawson and a number of others make up the remainder of the cast. Seats can be reserved Wednesday morning.

QUITE a number of hunters propose to raid the Sand Ridge, between Ogden and Kaysville, on Thanksgiving Day, to slaughter rabbits.

SING LEE, a Chinaman, stole a pair of shoes from Solomon Brothers & Gold's this afternoon, and was arrested and put in the city jail.

YESTERDAY afternoon a horse was stolen from Mr. G. W. Hill, in the Nineteenth Ward. The owner will pay a reward for the return of his animal and information that will lead to the conviction of the thief.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—Armstrong, the young desperado who murdered Paul Klubert, the sheep man, in Alturas County, last summer, was found guilty of murder in the first degree at Hailey last week. Judge Broderick will sentence him to be hung on the 22nd inst.

—The funeral of C. P. Stanton and the Mexican who were killed on Saturday night, occurred at Weaver, New Mexico, on the 16th inst. Forty Mexicans were present at the funeral, but there was no one present who could identify the dead Mexican, who is supposed to be the leader of the gang who killed Stanton. No clue has been obtained of the two who escaped.

—On the 16th inst. an unknown man was found dead in a deserted building near the Northern Pacific Railroad depot, Helena, Montana, by officer Flynn. He is supposed to be about 50 years old. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of "death from natural causes." It is supposed he wandered into the building under the influence of liquor late the day before and laid down on the floor and froze to death. Nothing was found on the body tending to identify him. It is thought by some to be the body of Michael Foley, a Red Mountain miner.

What you want is an alterative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of Liver and Kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store. 3

Facts Worth Knowing.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, syringes, astringents, or any similiar application, because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who have for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can afflict, testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.
