THE DISPATCH.

Grand Rapids, Mich, July 28,--Sheriff C. F. Emery arrived tonight to take Mrs. Hodge back to Utah for the murfor of Ryan. He did not call at the police station to see the woman to-light, but will do so in the morning. and will start back for Utah as so as the formalities can be arranged. He says the woman is not altogether sound mentally, but is inclined to credit her story of the crime. The couple were seen together in camp the night before the snoeting, and Ryan's body was found tightly bound with a lariat three or four days later. The body was badly decomposed and such examination as was given it failed to disclose if th wounds on the head were from a built a club. The body will be exhunce and an autopsy held to determine the use of death. Sheriff Emery says the wagon had not been ransacked and tll yesterday afternoon that he was there were no evidences of a fight. When the body was found the dog was still tied under the wagon and the horses tethered just as they were seen night before the shooting. The iff says no third party was seen sheriff with the couple the night before the shocting, but that the woman's hushand has not been located,
