Virginio Bonvicin Tries to Tear Away Prison Roof in Furious Attempt to Escape.

Jailer Earl Ripley had a desperate ancounter about 5 o'clock vesterday afternoon at the city jail with an insane Austrian named Virginio Bonvicin and but for the assistance rendered by a trusty would, in all probability, by a trusty would, in all probability, have been seriously injured. Ripley finally overpowered the crazy man and took him to the county jail where he was locked up in a padded cell. The trouble started at supper time when Ripley went in to feed the pris-opers. when Ripley went in to feed the pris-oners. The Austrian, who was arrested Tuesday by Detective Schultz, took it into his head to leave the jail. Bon-vicin is a powerful man and he brushed Ripley out of his way and started for the door leading out of the jail. Rip-ley grappled with the madman and the two went to the floor together. The Austrian was getting much the better of the argument when a trusty came to the jailer's asistance. The two were able to force the crazed man back in a cell and lock the door. The Aus-trian then seized the heavy steel bars and tried to wrench them loose. Rip-ley and the trusty were unable to tear the mai's hands from the bars but he finally released his hold when Ripley struck his knuckles with a key. The man then climbed onto a bunk and tried to raise the roof of the jail. He inricked and howled and threatened all orts of dire calamities until he was loaded into the patrol wagon and taken to the county jail. He will be charged county jail. He will be charged with insanity.

Stranger in Town Meets Wily Beggar Who Trims Him Over Night.

A man giving the name of Neil Williamson came to town yesterday with a watch and about $40 in cash. Today he is minues the watch and money as a result of showing kindness to a stran.

ger. Last night Williamson was ap-proached by a man who asked for as-sistance. The man said he was with-out money, hungry and had no place to sleep. Williamson extended a help-ing hand to the extent of buying the stranger a meal and then took him to an East First South roominghouse to sleep. The two slept together. This morning Williamson awakened to find that his erstwhile friend had departed and with him went the watch and $30. The police were notified of the theft and have a description of the man.

YOUTHFUL MILLIONAIRE Willie Eckstein, Once a Street Waif, to Have More Romance in His Life.

A few days ago an Associated Press dispatch appeared in the "News" announcing the prospective inheritance by a former Salt Lake boy of a fortune valued at something like $5,000,000. It reads as follows:

La Porte, Ind., April 20.-Judge Wil-lis Brown left Winona Lake last night for New York city, where he will in-vestigate the claim of William Eck-stein, aged 19 years, formerly a bare-footed Salt Lake newsboy, who is said to be heir to an estate valued at 7,000,-006 roubles, or $5,000,000, left him by an uncle who died in St. Petersburg a number of months ago. Judge Brown may accompany young Eckstein to Russia to assist him in complying with the legal requirements necessary to the legal requirements necessary to place him in possession of this fabulous fortune. tablish a school in Utah for homeless boys, educating them and fitting them for some life work. The history of this youthful Rus-sian reads like a romance. Born in St. Petersburg something like 19 years ago, he attended the Russian high schools in both the capital and Mos-cow, and it was while attending the latter that he was found one day in company with a young anarchist hav-ing anarchistic literature in his posses-sion. The latter was arrested, but Eck-stein managed to escape. That night the Russian authorities traced him to the school, and went there to put him under arrest. Learning of their pres-ence he managed to escape. Knowing that he could have little chance for lenience, his father being an exile for the same cause, Wille walked, and stole rides to the frontier and over in-to Germany. Big Kelly Alfred Henry Lewis reports a conversation, in substance and almost in phrase, that passed between a Tammany district leader, celebrated in his own circle for a philosophic depth, and certain of his followers.

It relates to the tactics of the Anti-Roosevelt forces and their lack of good strategy.

Here are some extracts:

"Say, if you've got a ship to launch you don't sand th' ways; you slush 'em down with soft soap. An' that goes when it's a case of gettin' rid of a man."

"Diplomacy is any move that lands th' trick --- see?"

"Also, it's exactly what them Wall Streeters ain't got."

" Diplomacy does it; diplomacy, an' payin' strict atten-tion to Teddy's blind side." "What's th' use of kickin' in the gate, when you know where a board is off th' fence?"

Read "Big Kelly," in this week's issue of THE SATUR-newsboy. Having relatives in Salt Lake he managed to get out here, and again took up his work as a newsboy. Being on the streets a great deal, he fell into bad company and habits, and was ff-nally brought before the juvenile court. Here he came to the notice of the Canvon Crest people, who took him the Canyon Crest people, who took him and put him under the moral influence of the home. There he became an exof the home. There he became an ex-emplar of good conduct, brightness and ability. Specimens of his work still at Canyon Crest show the boy's fine capacity, which rapidly outgrew the facilities of the farm.
