LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—Last night the attendance at the Theatre was so good that Mr. Harris, in whose benefit the performance was given, may feel proud that he stands so high in public favor. Of the literary merits of the first piece performed,—"The Red Mask, or the Wolf of Bohemia," the less said the better; it is of the trashiest ten cent sensational novel style, a discredit to its author, John Brougham, and if a second presentation were attempted, we think the good taste of the people would cause a very slim attendance. The playing, however, was smooth and creditable and all that could be made of a piece so nearly approaching nothing, was made.

The dance "Essence of Old Virginny," by Mr. Williams, was encored.

In "Gosippius," Mr. Harris was capital, and by his drolleries kept the people in a roar. The two act comedy, "Irish Assurance and Yankee Modesty," gave pretty good scope for Mr. Harris as "Pat," and Mrs. M. G. Clawson as "Nancy," and they enacted their respective roles with ability, as also the ladies and gentlemen enacting the other characters of the piece.

To-night a very fine bill is presented, the performance commencing with Boucicault's favorite piece, entitled "After Dark," in which the celebrated under-ground railroad scene occurs.

The entertainment will conclude with a farce spoken in the Norwegian language, in which the characters will be sustained by Mr. and Mrs. Monson, who will make their first appearance here on this occasion. During the performance of this piece several songs will be sung, and as the lady and gentleman are accomplished musicians, and in their own land, we believe, have been connected with the dramatic and musical professions, a performance of a finished character may be anticipated, and all present, whether they understand the language spoken or not, will be able to appreciate the vocal part of the entertainment. Scandinavia ought to be well represented to-night in all parts of the Theatre, as we doubt not it will be on the Stage.

On Monday night, those great artists Mr. and Miss Couldock will commence an engagement, and will make their appearance in their great sensation and specialty, the "Willow Copse."

ALDERMAN'S COURT.—For being drunk and disturbing the peace, William Lyon was fined $15. Fine paid. When our reporter left the City Hall a warrant was being made out for his re-arrest on a charge of threatening the life of officer William Hyde.

UNDER BONDS.—The investigation before his Honor Judge McKean, into the shooting affair on Sunday last, terminated yesterday afternoon. Officer J. Y. Smith was placed under $1,500 bonds to appear for trial at the next term of the District Court.

DAVIS COUNTY.—The capital stock of the Davis County Fine Stock Association has now reached $7,000 and is likely to continue to increase. There are no grasshoppers to be seen, grain looks well and the prospects of the County are therefore excellent.

IN TOWN.—We were pleased to meet this morning with the Hon. G. G. Fogg, of New Hampshire, whose acquaintance we made at Berne, Switzerland, some years since, he being U. S. Minister at the time to that Republic. When Mr. Fogg returned home he was appointed by the Governor of his State to fill an unexpired term in the United States Senate, the duties of which position he discharged with the same fidelity and zeal which distinguished him as Minister resident to the Swiss Republic. While abroad he was an officer of whom his countrymen might well feel proud; his firmness and dignity impressed the government to which he was sent with a correct idea of the importance of the nation of which he was the representative, while his urbanity and courteous attentions to his fellow citizens who called upon him made them feel that he was more than an officer, that he was a friend. Our Elders had frequent occasion while he was there to test him in this respect, and when an officer of our government can feel so much above sectarian and other prejudices as to recognize a "Mormon" as an American citizen in the full sense of the word, and extend to him the rights, privileges and courtesies which he would to a non-"Mormon" under similar circumstances, we credit him with being a just man and a clever gentleman. This is the class in which we place Senator Fogg. Mr. Fogg is accompanied by Mr. Cutler.

We were also pleased to receive calls from Messrs Koenig, Gillespie and Cottier, of Nebraska, the first two named being prominent officials of the State, the former, State Treasurer, the latter State Auditor; also from Judge Hayden of Nevada, Mr. Robinson of Council Bluffs, Mr. Merrill, Agent of the Rock River Paper Company; and Mr. John N. Neels and wife, the former the representative of the extensive boot and shoe firm of Benedict, Hall & Co., of New York City, whose business relations with our merchants, have been, we believe, extensive and very satisfactory.

George S. Smith, Esq., called at our office this morning, having arrived from Chicago last evening. Mr. Smith represents the firm of Messrs Doggett, Bassett & Hills, Boot and Shoe manufacturers, 29 & 31 Lake Street, Chicago, the oldest and one of the most reliable houses of the West.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT NEW HARMONY.—Numerous as have been fatal accidents through the careless use of loaded weapons, they still occasionally occur, causing sudden distress and irreparable loss in the family circle. A very painful instance of the kind happened at New Harmony, Kane Co., in this Territory, on the 3rd inst., an account of which has been forwarded for publication in the News, by a correspondent residing at that place. The victim in this melancholy affair was a little boy, aged 7 years, 6 months and 4 days, named Charles S. George, son of Joseph L. and Mary B. Haywood. The circumstances are as follows:

Mr. Haywood, having been sick for several days, left home that morning for a ride to Kanarra. During his absence one of his sons, named James Bell, a lad 13 years of age, took from the holster a horse pistol which had been loaded more than a year before during the Navajo excitement. There was no cap on the weapon, and the boy, having no idea that it was loaded, snapped it twice; he then, in a playful manner, presented it at his little brother and snapped it a third time, when the piece went off, a heavy slug passing through the child's head and instantly killing him.

Such an occurrance is highly deplorable, and should prove an everlasting lesson to all who read it, never to leave, under any circumstances, a loaded pistol or firearms of any kind within the reach of children.

The same correspondent says:

"Farming is progressing rapidly, wheat looks well. The grasshoppers are very plentiful, fruit plenty, range excellent, stock looking well. Many of the citizens of Harmony are going to Panguich to settle, others are going to Hamilton on Shirt's Creek, and a few to Long Valley; thus we are being thinned out. The spirits of the people are good, with some desire for mineral wealth; but we have neither miners nor prospectors. The brethren have just returned from Conference at St. George, report good feelings with an abundance of the good spirit of God and everybody doing well, feeling well and very happy. They report the prospects for wheat in Dixie most flattering."

MECHANICS IN DEMAND.—The following is from the Corinne Journal of the 17th:

"There seems to be but one or two house builders, one or two masons and plasterers, and one or two painters and paperhangers in town, and they are so crowded with business that there is no getting anything finished—get their own prices, and do work in their own way, those who employ them being merely permitted to pay. So with lumber—one firm rules the market, and makes enormous profits. Well, when the new railroad begins building, perhaps two or three more mechanics will find it to their interest to come to Corinne."

BEING an Agent for the sale of this pump, I have seen them tried in different deep wells, and finding them give universal satisfaction, I offer them to the public as the best means of raising water for culinary use, irrigating, washing carriages, extinguishing fires, or any other use for which a force pump may be applied. From the tests I have put them to, more water can be raised than with any other pump now offered to the public with the same power. As references of those I have been made to these pumps for deep wells, I have tested them in one 575 feet deep, from which I raised twelve gallons per minute. They are positively non-freezing, and will not get out of order. If references are wanted or instructions in relation to them, call at my place on Emigration Street, one block east from State Road.

ANY other brand than the above, with a similarity of the name, is a fraud, and is done to deceive the purchaser.

I therefore again call particular attention to purchasers to

"Look well to the Brand!"
