

The week has been distinguished by a number of delightful affairs, the largest being the dancing party given by Mrs. A. H. Bird and Miss McCormick at Christensen's on Thursday night, and receptions, Kensingtons, luncheons and other home affairs have aided in making a pleasant record.

A notably pretty event of the week was the wedding of Miss Bertha Cherry and Mr. Albert J. Vorse, on Thursday night, the ceremony being performed at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride, a number of relatives and intimate friends being present. The bride stood in a tower formed with a canopy of roses and ribbon streamers extending from the bay window to the chandeliers, the curtains covered with sprays of ferns and chrysanthemums, with a bunch of palms forming a pretty background. As the bride party entered the room, the Lohengrin march was played by Miss Kate Kanter, the music being continued throughout the ceremony. Rev. Clarence T. Brown officiated and Miss Blanche Cherry acted as bridesmaid, with Mr. George Sprague as best man. The bride was dressed in a beautiful creation of white chiffon, with bodice tucked and trimmed with point lace. Miss Blanche Cherry wore a costume of white silk tulle with lavender ribbons and carried white carnations. The house throughout was profusely decorated with chrysanthemums, carnations, smilax and palms, the parlor being in white, the library in yellow and the dining room in pink and green, with pretty effects in ribbons and vines. Delightful refreshments were served, Miss Florence Stevenson, Marie Luce, Claudia Morris, Maud Parker and Rosalie Cope presiding. The bride is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. A. N. Cherry, and the groom is the manager of the Jordan Farm dairy. They will be at home to their friends after December 15.

Among the afternoon events of the week was the Kensington given by Mrs. William Sanders for Mrs. W. H. Sanders on Thursday. The rooms were prettily adorned with flowers, a bouquet of long-stemmed American Beauty roses standing on a taboret, and vases holding chrysanthemums and pink and white roses on mantels and tables, with jardiniere filled with chrysanthemums standing about the room making an effective decoration. Those present to meet the guest of honor were: Mrs. Priscilla Jennings, Mrs. Cecil Nelson, Mrs. J. D. Spencer, Mrs. Calder, Mrs. Sharkey, Mrs. Walter Shagnessy, Mrs. Elsie Madren, Mrs. J. D. Owen, Mrs. Horace Ensign, Mrs. Clark Whitney, Mrs. Austin Whitney, Mrs. H. P. Jennings, Mrs. A. S. Horne, Mrs. Owen, Mrs. Wilson Sanders, Mrs. Read, Mrs. Pickett, Miss Wright, Miss Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Romney entertained a number of relatives and intimate friends on Thursday evening at their home in Forest Dale. Sixty-three was the entertainment, the prizes being won by Mrs. Joseph J. Daynes and Mrs. S. H. Love. During the evening Prof. Joseph J. Daynes played several piano selections which were enjoyed by all present. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the card contest. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. T. McKwan, Mrs. Margaret Romney, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. J. Daynes, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Maycock, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Love, Mr. and Mrs. George Romney, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Swenson, Miss Jennie Romney, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Woodward, Miss Romney, Miss Jane Snellie, Mrs. Mary Curly, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Romney, Mrs. Vilate Romney, C. B. Stewart.

The Thursday Social club met at the home of Miss Rosa Meyer on Thursday afternoon. Those present were: Mrs. John Guttles, Jr., Mrs. Hugh Rippito, Mrs. Emil Madison, Misses Lulu Penrose, Vera Felt, Florence Armstrong, Louis Morris, Hazel Crismon, Laura Madson, Marie Morris, Mary Ansen, Louise Madson, Grace Freeze, Clara Hansen, Sadie Smith.

Another pretty nuptial affair of Thursday was the wedding of Miss Lulu Crome and Mr. Herbert B. Lyman which was solemnized at the home of the bride at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. W. M. Braden performed the ceremony. The bride wore a becoming costume of tan broadcloth with white silk waist, and carried bride's roses. Miss Annie Lyman, her bridesmaid, was dressed in white and carried a bouquet of white roses. Mr. Clarence Crome acted as best man. The rooms were prettily decorated and an elaborate wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Crome will be at home at the corner of Tenth East and Seventh South street after Nov. 20.

Mrs. Will McDonald entertained at 7 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, about thirty guests enjoying the afternoon. The scores were shaped in various designs—diamonds, squares, hearts, etc.

ments were served by Misses Leonard, Godbe and Newitt, and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. F. S. Bascom gave a theater party last night, followed by a supper at Beardsley's. The table was prettily decorated and at each lady's place was a bunch of violets, the gentlemen having a boutonniere of violets and carnations.

At the residence of Mrs. George Dorn on Monday the Whist club gave a linen shower party for Miss Bertha Cherry, about twelve guests being present, among them Mrs. Cherry, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Stetler, Mrs. Dale, Mrs. Beer, Miss Luce, Miss Merrie, the Misses Parker and the Misses Dorn.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury will give a card party next Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. McClintock.

A pleasant event of the week was the surprise party at the home of Miss Della Hines on Monday night, about forty of her young friends gathering unexpectedly at the Hines residence, the guests and hosts enjoying a delightful evening.

Mrs. Sawyer and the Misses Sawyer entertained at cards yesterday afternoon, the contest being a new game called "Tally". The rooms were prettily decorated and there were about 45 guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Naylor have arrived in New York and will shortly return to Salt Lake. Mr. Naylor has been fulfilling a mission in Europe and has been released on account of his poor health.

Mrs. W. A. Nelden entertained the members of the music section of the Ladies Literary club at her home on Monday night together with the gentlemen whose wives are connected with the club. There was a delightful musical program rendered by Mrs. Kate

Mrs. George M. Downey gave a delightful reception yesterday in honor of her sisters—Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. McClintock. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers of vines and palms, the parlor with white chrysanthemums, and the dining room with pink roses, and pink shaded candelabra. The hall was beautifully done in ferns, and the orchestra was stationed here behind a bank of palms. Mrs. O. J. Salisbury presided at the tea table, and was assisted by Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. Styer, Mrs. Hoyt Sherman, the Misses Nason, the Misses Shearman, Miss Crawford, Mrs. Harkness, and the Misses Shearman. The hours were from 2 till 6 and nearly 300 guests were present during the afternoon.

Among the notable events of the week were the reception and musicale given at the residence of Mrs. Emily Clawson on Monday night in honor of Mrs. Lucy B. Young and Miss Lulu Gates. The chief feature of the affair was the vocal rendition of Miss Gates which established her as an artist of high degree. Miss Gates was beautifully accompanied with the piano, by Prof. J. J. McClellan, whose artistic work aided in the successful interpretation and effect. A number of other excellent things were on the program and the affair was delightful in all respects.

Misses Afton and Jeannine Young entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Jane Mackintosh. The rooms were decorated with chrysanthemums and about forty guests were present, among them Mrs. A. H. Bird, Mrs. D. J. Sharp, Mrs. W. H. Donnell, Mrs. George Nye, Mrs. Franken, Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. H. M. Wells, Mrs. J. H. Young, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. W. G. Sharp, Mrs. Charles Rookledge, Mrs. Worthington, Mrs. Leary Ritter, Mrs. Ned Perry, Mrs. David Marshall, Mrs. Baer, Mrs. Bert Walker, Mrs. R. G. Smith, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Reed, Miss McCormick, Miss Harkness, Miss Noble, Miss Sadler, Miss Webber, Miss Lowe, Miss Nason, Adelaide Nason, Miss Shearman, Miss Edna Shearman, Miss Salisbury, Miss Blaine, Miss Fox, Miss Park, Miss Thorn, Miss Miller, Miss Porter, the Misses Madison, Misses Howat, Miss Emily Read, the Misses Dorn, Miss Woodward, Miss Rookledge, Miss Hattie Jennings, Miss Irene Dickson, Miss Renshaw.

Miss Webber entertained Wednesday afternoon at a very artistic tea. The house was decorated with great masses of chrysanthemums. Yellow and brown were clustered in the parlor and hall, and white and red were in the library and dining room. The red shaded lights increased the color effect. Fine photographs and prints were hung on the walls of the parlor, library and hall and were the subject of the guests' gaze. The table cards were small European sketches. Mrs. Heber M. Wells won the prize in the contest. Mrs. Franken and Mrs. Nye presided at the tea table, which was charmingly decorated with large white chrysanthemums and bows of red ribbon, and was replete with beautiful silver and cut glass. The guests who enjoyed Miss Webber's hospitality were: Mrs. Heber M. Wells, Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, Mrs. T. Franklin Schuy, Mrs. J. T. Harris, Mrs. Union Worthington, Mrs. John E. Woodward, Mrs. Henry La Motte, Mrs. James L. Franken, Mrs. George L. Nye, Mrs. S. H. Babcock, Mrs. L. M. Baller, Mrs. F. W. Jennings, Mrs. W. T. Dalby, Mrs. J. E. Calne, Mrs. J. B. Farlow, Mrs. J. L. Jennings, Mrs. K. C. Kerr, Mrs. Wm. Reid, Mrs. J. Q. Ferguson, Mrs. M. L. Olesby, Miss Judge, Miss Dooly, Miss Crawford, Miss Lowe, Miss McCrunk, Miss Park, Miss Read, Miss Shauls, Miss Reynolds, Miss Teasdale, Miss Sadler, Miss Young.

From present indications an unusually large number of people will accompany the Taboran chair on their California excursion in March. The trip is already anticipated by a number well known in social circles and the interest will doubtless be augmented as the date of the excursion approaches.

Mrs. Burns Macdonald gave a delightful dinner at Beardsley's on Thursday night, her guests being Mrs. Victor Cummings, Mrs. Duke Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Walker, Miss Hoffer, Messrs. George N. Lawrence, Max Smith, Richardson and Goodwin.

An interesting event was that given in the parlors of the Presbyterian church by Mrs. William Iglehart's class of Kings' Daughters. It was an "Evening With Japan" and an entertaining program of music and readings was rendered.

Last night Mr. D. E. Burley gave a supper at the Alt club to the visiting officers, the party numbering twelve. The table was laid in the gold room and was decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns.

The officers and teachers of St. Mark's Sunday school gave a pleasant reception to parents and friends of the pupils on Thursday night. Refreshments were served by Misses Leonard, Godbe and Newitt, and an enjoyable evening was spent.

zle Cannon, Margaret Andrews, May Cannon, Agnes Cain, Josephine Young, Spencer Cannon and Georgius Cannon.

Miss Allie Miller entertained the Whist club on Tuesday night.

Miss Winnie Welby leaves tomorrow for Philadelphia.

A delightful affair of the week was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. George Taggart on Tuesday.

The Athletic association of the L. D. S. University, gave an enjoyable party at Christensen's hall last night.

Mrs. John N. Sharp entertained the Sewing club on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bamberger leave for the east tomorrow for an extended stay. Mrs. J. J. Maas will accompany them as far as Cincinnati.

Mrs. Mabel McClure has returned from San Francisco.

Mrs. Causten Browne will entertain at an evening party on Monday.

A pleasant affair of the week was the banquet given at Franklin's on Monday night, by the Mystic Lodge No. 2, L. O. O. F. Covers were laid for twenty-two and toasts and speeches were features of the occasion.

Mrs. Will Gray, of St. Anthony, Idaho, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sinclair.

The reception given in honor of Rev. D. A. Brown at the First Baptist church last night was a most enjoyable affair.

Mrs. M. D. Howlett was the guest of her sister, Miss Morgan, during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Walker gave a theater party on Wednesday night in honor of Miss Paralee Pitts. After-

FASHION'S LATEST FANCY IN FURS.

Maribou has come to the fore this season and is an immense favorite with modish women. This smart model shoulder cape of Broadtail has a fringe of black Maribou feather tails, which are tipped with white. Beneath this fringe is set a flounce of accordion-plated chiffon. Large muffs to match. The hat is an example of the season's combination of lace and fur. An entire mink is set across the crown of the turban, descending at the left on the hair. From "Bendels."

Bridewell Anderson, Mrs. Jack Keith, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Loomis. Miss Oliver was accompanist. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable time spent.

Mr. Otto Stallman entertained at dinner at the Alta club on Thursday night in the green room, covers being laid for six.

Miss Eliza Mangum and Mr. Ray Ashworth of Eureka were married in the Temple on Thursday.

Mrs. Wither Jones left on Thursday to spend the holidays in New York.

Messrs. Emmet Moore and Mark McChrystal will give a dancing party at the Ladies' Literary club tonight in honor of the Ogden football team.

Great interest is taken in the local public debut of Miss Lulu Gates, which will take place Monday evening, Nov. 25th, in the Tabernacle, when she will give a musical recital, in aid of the Tabernacle choir excursion.

On Monday battery B of the N. G. U. gives its ball at the armory.

The first assembly hall of the season will take place next Thursday evening at Christensen's.

The hostesses at the Country club today were—Mrs. Geo. J. Salisbury, Mrs. Geo. W. Wallace, Y. M. C. A. tea, Mrs. Hudson.

Mrs. Mamie Cannon gave a theater party at her home on Thursday night in honor of her daughter Claire's birthday. The following boys and girls were present: Helen Cannon, Liz-ward Mrs. Percy Salder entertained the party at a Dutch supper at her home.

Mrs. Babcock will entertain at dinner next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steiner leave shortly for an eastern trip.

Mrs. Thompson, wife of Colonel Thompson of the Twenty-third Infantry, left on Wednesday for St. Paul. She will later meet her husband, who is returning from the Philippines by the Suez route.

Leut. Lytle has gone east to visit his old home at Battle Creek, Mich.

THEY WILL MAKE WASHINGTON GAY.

Social life at the capital is to be very gay this year according to those in a position to speak authoritatively. Above are the portraits of some of the women who will lead in the season's gayeties. Mrs. Theodore Bingham, wife of the superintendent of public buildings, will entertain extensively in her splendid new home. Mrs. William H. Merriam, wife of director of census, will entertain lavishly. Mrs. Julius C. Burrows, wife of Senator Burrows of Michigan, will soon take her place as a leading Washington hostess. Mrs. Thomas S. Martin, wife of the senator from Virginia, will continue her jolly theater and supper parties which have made her famous with the younger set of the capital.

nati, the latter city being Mr. Galliger's former home.

Mrs. D. J. Sharp entertained at luncheon on Thursday, covers being laid for twelve. The decorations were violets and ferns.

Mrs. Lizzie Collinson and Mrs. Devoir will leave shortly to spend the winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knight will be at home for the winter at the residence of Mrs. McChrystal, 875 east, First South street.

Mrs. Jennie Paul left during the week for a three months' visit in Arizona with relatives.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

The beautiful home of Mrs. William Shaw, No. 3094 Adams avenue, was the scene of one of the most brilliant weddings of the season, when her charming daughter, Miss Margaret A. Leek, was united in marriage with Mr. Harman J. Craven. Promptly at the hour appointed, Miss Pearl Snyder played Mendelssohn's wedding march, and the bride party entered the beautifully decorated parlor. The bride and groom took their places directly under a bow of smilax, roses and lilies, and as the sweet strains of music were dying away, Rev. Goshen, of the Congregational church, performed the ceremony. The bride was dressed in a charming gown of cream silk with chiffon and real lace trimmings. She carried brides roses. Miss Nettie Robins was maid of honor, Miss Lulu Bell, was bridesmaid, and little Janette Leek was ring girl. Mr. George Parker acted as best man. The floral decorations were exquisite, consisting of cut flowers, palms, evergreens, all arranged so as to make a pretty effect. After the ceremony the wedding guests were ushered into the spacious dining room, where a sumptuous wedding supper was prepared. After supper the evening was spent with music and other pastimes. The guests departed at a late hour wishing Mr. and Mrs. Craven much joy and happiness on the sea of matrimony.

The bride is one of Ogden's most charming and talented young ladies, and the groom is a bright, promising young business man; they are both popular in society. Mr. and Mrs. Craven will make Ogden their future home.

Hon. John Sowercroft, accompanied by his wife and daughter, returned home Tuesday evening from an extended pleasure trip to Europe. During the absence they had a very delightful time, until Mr. Sowercroft was taken quite ill, from which misfortune he is still suffering considerably.

Last Saturday evening a very delightful birthday surprise party was given by Mrs. M. A. Harris at her pretty home, No. 2459 Adams avenue. In honor of her son David, who recently returned from a mission to Germany, the occasion being his twenty-first birthday. At an early hour in the evening a large number of his friends gathered at the home to extend their congratulations and spend a few pleasant hours. The evening was spent in vocal and instrumental music, and other pleasures, after which a dainty German lunch was served. There were present, Prof and Mrs. Wm. Z. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Larkin, Misses Nettie McKay, May Brown, Emma Lindsay, Lottie Richards, Cora and Emma Wilson, Ruth Blair, Daisy Stone, Grace and Essie Harris, Messrs. Bruce Brown, C. C. Richards Jr., Alva Scoville, Robt. Wilson, John Wintie, Alma Lindsay and Joel Harris.

Ogden is to have one of the greatest musical treats ever had in the state of Utah on January 29, 1902, when the Chicago Symphony Orchestra will appear in this city. This will be the first time that such an orchestra has appeared in Ogden. About fifteen years ago a similar orchestra appeared in Salt Lake City. The orchestra consists of fifty of the finest musicians in the United States, together with four soloists, a tenor, soprano, cellist and violin. This world renowned orchestra was organized by Prof. Adolph Rosenbecker, who is also its conductor. To Prof. Joseph Ballantyne is due the credit of securing the appearance of this noted combination of musicians, he having met the manager of the organization, Mr. Charles Beach, and not until after three days of almost continuous persuasions did Mr. Beach consent to have the orchestra appear here for one night at the Grand Opera House. It is to be hoped that the music-loving people of Ogden will do all in their power to see that the Grand is filled on the evening of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra's appearance. The regular price of seats will be charged for this grand musical treat.

Tuesday evening next, a grand ball, to be given by Foster's military band, will take place at Dignan's dancing academy. Already the sale of tickets has been very satisfactory. The combined Poot's and Dignan's orchestras will furnish the music for the evening. A most enjoyable time is assured all who attend. The proceeds derived from the ball will go to purchase new instruments for the band.

J. P. Anderson and family, of American Falls, were visiting with friends in Ogden this week.

Charles W. Nibley of Baker City, Oregon, was an Ogden visitor this week.

Monday evening a pleasant surprise party was given at the home of George W. Larkin Sr., in honor of Miss Sarah J. Larkin, by her Sunday school class, and the other teachers of the class. There were present about thirty of the little folks, who enjoyed themselves very much in playing all kinds of games. Miss Pidecock, who was present, entertained the gathering with some sweet guitar solos. A sumptuous spread was prepared in the dining room, after which the invited guests departed. Miss Larkin has been released from the Sunday school work to take up religious class work.

Thursday evening another social club was organized at Dignan's dancing academy to be known as the "Ontario Club," named after a new dance which will be introduced in the club next week. The Wednesday evening ball at the academy was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Meyers of this city are spending a short outing at Seattle, and along the coast.

Mrs. A. R. Smith has returned home from a ten days' pleasure trip to Salt Lake.

George M. Browning was at Lost Creek this week on a hunting trip, in company with Mr. Abbott of Farmington.

A very pleasant farewell reception was tendered Rev. J. W. Taylor and Mrs. J. C. Nye on Adams avenue, on Tuesday evening, between the hours of 8 and 11 p. m. There were present at the reception over seventy-five invited guests, who enjoyed the evening very much, listening to a very fine musical and literary program, which was well rendered. The ladies had prepared delicious refreshments, which were served in the dining room. Many words of regret were spoken by those present because of the departure of Rev. Taylor and his estimable wife from Ogden, where Mr. Taylor has officiated at the First Methodist church during the past year. They will leave Ogden Tuesday next, for Aberdeen, S. D., to which place Rev. Taylor has received a call.

Mrs. J. Henderson and Mrs. J. Boatwright left Ogden Thursday for Milford, are employed by the Oregon Short Line.

Edward Oohlsen, the popular S. P. operator, has gone to the coast on a month's pleasure trip.

Last evening the Fourth ward amusement hall was the scene of a very pleasurable affair, a party given for the benefit of Heber Oborn, who is just recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever. A pleasant program and dancing was enjoyed by the large crowd, which was in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Tribe of this city are visiting with friends at Seattle.

Rev. Clarence T. Brown of Salt Lake was an Ogden visitor this week, the guest of Rev. E. I. Goshen.

E. E. Stewart and wife left this week for Nebraska, to spend a few weeks visiting with Mrs. Stewart's relatives. During their absence Miss Stewart will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Larkin Jr. were Salt Lake visitors this week.

Le Grand Young Esq., of Salt Lake, was an Ogden visitor most of this week on legal business.

PROVO SOCIAL NEWS.

Dr. George H. Brimhall lectured before the Parent's class, Wednesday evening on "The Prodigal Son." The speaker showed that prodigality is the gratification of the animal propensities, and that every deviation from the straight line leading to the highest spiritual development retards the progress of the individual. The individual may retrace his steps, but the time lost and the evil efforts of prodigality can never be regained nor overcome. The great men of history sacred and profane were not prodigal. If there are exceptions their greatness was in spite of and not because of prodigality. Parents can guard against prodigality in their children, by building up a wall of love and companionship around them, providing them with remunerative employment at home, so they will not desire to go away to earn money. Above all let parents be shining examples of truth and purity, teaching their children to know the Gospel, using every endeavor to keep them in the straight line, and the memory of this will often prevent children from yielding to temptation.

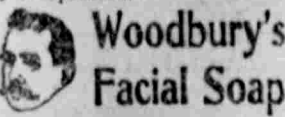

BEAUTIFUL OGDEN HOMES.

RESIDENCE OF HON. A. B. COREY.

The above picture is of the two-story home of Hon. A. B. Corey, proprietor of Corey's Livery Stable, situated on the corner of Jefferson Ave. and Twenty-sixth street, overlooking the lower part of the city. The home is modern in every respect. It was built twelve years ago, and is constructed of pressed brick and red sandstone.

The interior of the home is beautiful and commodious. On entering the home, one passes into a pretty hall, at the left of which are spacious double parlors and dining room, all connected with folding doors so that they can be made into one large apartment for social gatherings. On this floor is also the kitchen. A fine staircase leads from the hall to the second floor, which is divided into four elegant bedrooms and a bathroom. There is also a basement used for furnace room, laundry, etc. The home throughout is elegantly furnished; it is lighted with electricity and heated with hot water radiators. The grounds surrounding the home are beautiful with well kept lawn, flower beds and shrubbery.

removes the blemishes that disfigure the face, neck and hands leaving the skin smooth, firm and white.

Woodbury's Facial Cream uses cheaped soap and leads.

Sold by dealers, 25 cents each. Booklet free. Trial size package of soap and cream 5 cents postpaid.

Andrew Jergens & Co., Sole Agents.

Dept. 114 Cincinnati, O.