Army Officer Discovered "Braking" on The Mexican Central.

First Lleut, Arthur H. Freshwater of B company, Twenty-ninth infantry, stationed at Fort Bliss, Tex,"fell short" in his post exchange accounts recently, and hiked over the Rio Grande river, or as they call it down there, "delotro lado." He was lost to sight until yesterday morning when it was discov that a freight brakeman on the Mexi-can Central yclept "McCail" was none other than the missing army officer. The discovery was made at Jinulco, a distribution is the state of Cacha division station, in the state of Coahuila, and an attempt will be made to extradite the fugitive. The chances sare that the Maxican government will send him back over the border anyhow, as an undesirable citizen, when Uncle Sam will take care of Freshwater. Mexican officials are very accommodating in such matters, and are ready to walve all red tape and tiresome formalities in criminal procedure, as United States government officials along the border are ready to return favors of that character when fugltives are wanted south of the Rio Grande. Lieut. Freshwater is a Pennsylvanian nged 34, and was promoted from a cor-poraley in K troop, Sixth cavalry, to be second Heutenant in the Twelfth in-ferity, five years are, and served in be second neutenant in the Tweit's in-fantry, five years ago, and served in the Fifth and Twenty-eighth infantry regiments before transfer to the Twenty-ninth, in Sept. 1903. He saw service in the Spanish-American war and in the Philippines. The headquar-ters of Freshwater's regiment are at Fort Douglas, Utah, but the officers here know little or nothing about the man. man.
