Gibson Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—Walter M. Gibson, ex-prime minister of the Hawaiian Islands under King Kalakaua, died in this city last evening of consumption. His health had been gradually failing since his arrival here in July last. The body will be embalmed and taken to Honolulu for interment.

Won't Let Them Meet.

LONDON, Jan. 22. — Socialists attempted to hold a meeting at Trafalgar Square to-day, but were prevented from doing it by the police, who arrested two of them.

They Serenaded.

DUBLIN, Jan. 22.—An attempt was made last night to serenade Willord Blunt, who was confined in prison at Galway. The police interfered and ordered the musicians away. Later thereupon they embarked upon boats and had a torchlight procession on the river beneath the walls of the prison. The seamen of the war ship Banterer gave chase, but failed to capture the serenaders.

Enthusiasm Over O'Brien.

DUBLIN, Jan 22.—General enthusiasm has been caused by William O'Brien's release from Tullamore jail last night. Bonfires and beacon lights illuminated large districts in the south of Ireland.

A Fatal Explosion.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—The boiler of the tug Zuwave exploded in the harbor today. John Connolly, engineer, Patrick Healy and John McKenny, firemen, and Bernard Roney, steward, were all shockingly scalded, most of them probably fatally.

Business For Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 22.—The Senate has no programme of action the coming week beyond the consideration and if possible the passage of the deficiency and educational bill. Should there be time to spare, it is likely to be consumed in consideration of miscellaneous matters on the calendar.

The regular order will probably give way tomorrow for a speech from and later in the week for speeches from senators Palmer and Ingalls. Senator Frye's subject is not certainly known but it is assumed he will speak upon the question of the fisheries. Senator Palmer will address the Senate on the bill to regulate immigration and Senator Ingalls will speak generally.

Aside from the extradition treaties the Senate has little to do in Senate session.

The Thœbe-Carlisle contest is expected to take precedence of all other business in the House, since it is the present determination of Crisp, who has charge of the report of the elections committee, to insist that it shall be disposed of before anything else is done. Should the republican minority persist in it is doubtful whether a quorum can be secured, and the indications are that several days will elapse before the matter is finally settled.

Wilkins is earnestly desirous of securing further consideration for the national bank bill. The yeas and nays being ordered upon its engrossment, and third reading, and its fate depends upon the success of Mr. Wilkins' efforts to reach an agreement with its opponents.

The pension appropriation bill has already been reported and the appropriations committee will endeavor to have it considered before the end of the week.

ANOTHER CHANCE

For Balfour to Get in His Work.

DUBLIN, Jan. 22.—Kilrush was illuminated this evening and the streets were crowded with people. A government proclamation prohibiting the meeting announced to be held here today was publicly burned. All the bonfires and blazing tar barrels were extinguished by the police.

There was a conflict at Kilkee between the police and people and one policeman was severely injured.

O'BRIEN

who is almost prostrated with emotion, intends to attend a banquet given in his honor by his electors and then rest for a few weeks in accordance with his doctor's advice. In an interview today, he said: "I felt so well on leaving prison that I have overtaxed my strength, and as a result I am sleepless and worn out. The National League," he continued, "instead of being effaced, as the coercionists prophesied, was more firmly rooted than ever. The action of the land commissioner has been equivalent to censuring the moderating plan of campaign. Balfour found that the league could only be suppressed by the suppression of society. The action of the government in showed that the hopes of muzzling them by means of intrigues at Rome had been frustrated. It was an attempt to outrage the people into an exhibition of violence as a set-off against Balfour's wanton brutality. If Mr. Blunt had never revealed Balfour's intentions toward the Parnellites, the course pursued by the chief secretary was evidence enough." He believed Balfour would push matters to extremeties until public opinion daunted him.

BALFOUR,

he said, had not even mustered courage to cough at 1,500 of the 1,800 branches comprising the league and 300 other branches. Although subjected to almost incredible police persecution, they still exercised an influence as powerful as it had ever been,

Narrow Escape.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—The steamer Indiana, from Philadelphia, at Queenstown today, reports that on the 14th instant, fire broke out among the cotton in her after hold, but the flames were finally quenched. There was great excitement among those on board during the fire.

What Corbin Says.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 22.—President Corbin, of the Reading Railroad, in answer to the various communications from people along the line of his road, made a long statement in regard to the recent trouble. He says in part that they have never made any objection to labor organizations; so long as the men perform the duties they owe to this company properly, we shall stand by them whether they be union or non-union men. The trouble on our road is ended and will never be opened up again.

Fatal Prize Fight.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—A fatal prize fight occurred at Fort Hamilton this morning. The fight was between two third-class feather-weights pugilists known as Billy Dempsey and "Swipes the Newsboy," and was fought at Nick Thompson's Hotel in the presence of a number of sporting men. Dempsey appeared to be in poor condition at the start and during the first round fell heavily forward, as was then supposed in a fit. A physician was summoned, but the man died within fifteen minutes. The spectators hastily fled, and Dempsey's antagonist is supposed to have left the state to avoid arrest. The proprietor of the hotel says he does not know who the spectators were. Dempsey's identity cannot be ascertained, though rumor has it that he was a pressman on a New York evening paper. He was about 22 years old and leaves a wife and infant child. The body will remain at the hotel until an inquest can be held.

SOME DETAILS.

"Swipes the Newsboy," is a typical newsboy in appearance, says he is 19 years old and lives at the Newsboys' Home. According to his story a New York sporting man named Eddie McDonald asked him to go down to Fort Hamilton last night to see a prize fight. When he got there he was told he was to be one of the principals and was introduced to Dempsey as his opponent. The fight was to be for $60 and a gold watch, and to was occur in the basement of "Red" Leary's old resort in the Live Oak Hotel. "Swipes" says no blows were struck and that Dempsey fainted almost immediately after entering the ring.

THE BODY

was tonight removed by permission of the coroner by relatives, to an undertaker's establishment in Brooklyn.

"Swipes'" story is borne out by the fact that Dempsey's body shows no marks. An autopsy will be held tomorrow.

LATER.—"Swipes" has surrendered himself to the police of Brooklyn and been locked up. It is probable all the others concerned in the fight will be arrested.

THE FIRE FIEND

Pursuing His Calling on a Large Scale.

HOLYOKE, Mass., Jan. 21.—The east wing of the Holyoke Envelope Co.'s mill was burned today. Loss, $325,000. The Envelope Company will lose about $200,000, insured for one half. The loss of the Holyoke Water Power Company on the building is about $75,000, and the whole mill is insured for $100,000. B. F. Perkins' machine works adjoining, lose $26,000 more. The Filter Company lose $10,000. The Envelope Company had about a hundred thousand worth of stock and finished goods on hand. They had nearly 200 tons of paper and about 20,000,000 of envelopes in the mill. There were 50 envelope machines and 20 printing presses in the building besides other valuable machinery.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—About forty people barely escaped being burned to death this morning in a fire that destroyed the greater part of a big apartment and store building at the southeast corner of Oakwood Boulevard and Cottage Grove Avenue. Not one of the forty had time to give the slightest attention to dress, and many, including several ladies, were dragged out by the firemen into the frosty air unconscious. Miss Abbie Berdsall, a teacher, was found lying in a foot of water in a cellar, two hours after the fire started. She had become suffocated and lost her way in the smoke. Her recovery is not expected. T. D. McKillip, a gentleman rooming in the building, is also in a precarious condition, the result of injuries received in making his escape. A few of the people had to be taken out of the upper windows by MEANS OF LADDERS.

A. P. Tregent with his wife and baby were forced to climb away from the flames to the roofs of the house next to the burning block. Wallace L. De Wolf, a local lawyer, owned the building. His loss is $30,000, fully insured. About $10,000 worth of furniture and clothing, half insured, belonging to nine families, was destroyed, and $10,000 additional damage, also partly insured, was inflicted on the stock of the several storekeepers occupying the ground floor.

BODIES RECOVERED.

TOWER, Minn., Jan. 22.—Search for the bodies of those burned in the boarding house fire was continued today and five more were taken out of the ruins. This makes nine altogether. All are too badly disfigured to be recognized. It is thought some bodies may be entirely consumed. Jack Collins, of Superior, Wisconsin, left his room before his comrade, but did not get out. It is believed his remains were among those found to-day. Henry Boerdocker arrived here Friday evening and is believed also to be one of the victims.

A Tough Case.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—Michael Lynch, the ex-convict who shot and killed policeman Holleran, the officer whose testimony sent him to the penitentiary for burglary, was today adjudged guilty of murder and his punishment fixed at 35 years in jail. When the verdict was read the prisoner's face seemed to turn black, the veins on the forehead swelling and the lines about his hard mouth compressed tightly. Then he laughed a sickly laugh and turned to his pretty sister, who was crying bitterly, and said a few words of consolation, then with a bitter look of hatred towards States Attorney Longnecker, he said: "I'll fix you if I ever get a chance." Lynch expected an acquittal on the ground of self defense.

Total Exchanges.

BOSTON, Jan. 22.—A special to the Post from managers of the leading clearing houses in the United States shows the gross exchanges for the week ending January 21, were $911,354,318, a decrease of 8.6 per cent from the corresponding period of last year.

An Insanity Case.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Victorie Riedle, a German woman 33 years of age, is detained aboard the steamship Westernland. She is insane, and waits the arrival of her brother, who lives in Chicago. The steamship people says that Father Ghestner, pastor of the Roman-Catholic church in St. Louis, had charge of the woman when the steamer left Antwerp. She is evidently of good family. If her brother is not heard from by Saturday she will be returned to Europe.

MARSEILLES, Jan. 22.—The Compagnie General Transatlantique is dismissing its foreign workmen and has ordered that none shall hereafter be employed. It is reported that other companies will adopt a similar course.

Dead.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Kate Claxton's father, Spencer Wallace Cone, died yesterday at the residence of his son-in-law, Charles A. Stevenson, at Herchmont Manor, aged 62 years. He had suffered from paralysis for several years.

Won't Consent.

ST PETERSBURG, Jan. 22.—The war minister, fearing disaffection, opposes the advice of Count Tolstoi to enforce a new and stringent police system in the Don Cossack country.

Opposed To It.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 22. — The French and Russian ambassadors here resent the decision of the Porte to employ Germans to assist the governors of the provinces in developing agriculture and mining. It is expected they will make a formal complaint.

A German Festival.

BERLIN, Jan. 22.—The Emperor and Empress drove to the castle today to attend the festival of coronation orders. The usual ceremonies were performed. Prince William presided at the banquet which followed and toasted the old and new knights on behalf of the Emperor. The crown prince of Greece and Princess William were in the procession to the chapel. The Emperor conferred the grand cross of the order of the Red Eagle on Count Von Halfeldt, German ambassador at London. He also bestowed the second class decorations of the same order upon the archbishop of Posen and the second class decorations of the Order of the Crown upon Bishop Kopp.

ADVERSE RUMORS

about the crown prince have not been confirmed. On the contrary, advices from San Remo say his health is good and that he drove out this morning and took a walk in the afternoon.

On a Tour.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A vestibule train of fourteen coaches from Boston with excursionists from the Eastern States, 78 of whom are bound for California and 71 for Mexico, arrived here this morning. The tourists are greatly pleased with the trip so far, having enjoyed their stop over at Cincinnati, Mammoth Cave, Montgomery and New Orleans.

A FROLIC

Which Nearly Results Fatally.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—The agonized cries of four young men, who after dark found themselves slowly floating out in Lake Michigan on a huge cake of ice, brought scores of people to the pier at Thirty-third Street. The four young fellows, Peter Paulson, Thomas Ash, James Johnston and J. M. Whiteside had been out for a holiday frolic, and not till 7 o'clock, when they began to return, did they suspect that the thaw had parted the ice from the shore and was breaking up and drifting away. A sheet of water 50 feet wide lay between them and land and the gap was under the influence of a sharp wind that began to cover them with spray, while the rising waves dashed off great sections of the ice floe upon which the lives of the quartette depended. For over an hour men, women and children on the shore watched the helpless four running frantically about on the ice and faintly heard their hoarse shouts for assistance. Whiteside, who was unable to swim, restrained his companions with difficulty from jumping into the freezing flood and attempting to swim ashore. When finally a boat had been brought from the nearest point a long distance up town it was found to be and the police who manned it had to put back. By this time Whiteside was nearly crazed from cold and fright and the others were in little better condition. The police, not without peril to themselves, managed, however, to take them off safely at last. They were at once carried to their homes and put to bed exhausted, but supremely happy.

GRADUALLY WIDENING

MEXICAN MATTERS.

That Mortgage Bank, Etc.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 21.—Reports of the suspension of negotiations between the New York Syndicate seeking to get control of the Mexican mortgage bank are denied by Sebastian Comocho, president of the institution, and L. M. Muriand, representing the New York people. The object of the syndicate is to make the bank a more energetic and useful institution, and in particular to avail themselves of the right the bank possesses to issue certificates of merchandise values. It is proposed to issue certificates for bar silver on precisely the same plan as that adopted by the Western National Bank of New York, and it is understood that persons interested in the Western National Bank are behind this movement. Encouragement is given to the plan by the government here. It will put in the way of the syndicate in getting control of the Mortgage Bank, which has an authorized capital of $30,000,000. Several of the leading shareholders desire the success of the syndicate and the points of difference have been mostly adjusted. If this plan is carried out, American capital will gain predominance for the first time in a bank on Mexican soil. There is some opposition to the scheme, grounded on the apprehension that the bank, by issuing bar silver certificates, will gain control of the exchange business between this country and the United States and Europe.

An announcement of the reduction of freight rates on the Vera Cruz railway, owing to competition by built here, will be officially made during the week. If this reduction is followed by an increase of business, another reduction, it is expected, will be made, averaging 18 per cent.

A very large number of American tourists are here.

Honoring Byron's Memory.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—Greek journals are enthusiastic over Byron's centenary. The statue of the poet at Missoloughi was covered with wreaths of flowers and evergreens. The centenary was celebrated in Vienna by a performance of "Manfred" with Schumann's music in the Opera House. Special service was held in the Greek Church in London.

At Albuquerque (N. M.) Jan. 17, a bold and successful "hold-up" by two footpads was made at 9:30 p. m. H. W. Eck, an Atlantic and Pacific clerk, had just left his desk at the office and was on his way home. When about a square off he was startled by the command, "Hold up your hands?" Up went his hands. He was searched and about $320 in cash taken. He had a gold watch in one of his vest pockets, but wearing no chain the footpads did not deem it profitable to look through the vest. The thieves made their escape.

C. Smith & Co's Drug Store. (5)

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Mordis, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abcess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at A. C. Smith & Co's Drug Store. (5)

How's Your Liver?
Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.
NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.
As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.
