J. M. MOORE,
POSTMASTER.

—The Omaha Bee of Oct. 24 says, "Deadwood is chock full and running over with people from all parts of the country. Hotel accommodations are far from adequate, even lodgings in bar room chairs being in high demand. Streets are crowded, and almost impassable, while stores and saloons are doing a rushing business."

DIED.

In Beaver City, on the 12th of April, STEPHEN A. son of James E. and Francis Twitchell, aged seven months and four days.

Also, ibidem, on the 21st of April, MILLIE, daughter of James and Margaret Twitchell, aged two months and four days, both of consanguinity of the lungs.

At Scipio, Millard County, on Wednesday, April 11, of diphtheria, RIKKA MATHILDA, daughter of John P. and Mary (Peterson) Olsen.

Deceased was born March 19, 1871.

At her son's (John Holladay's) residence, Santaquin, April 20, CATHARINE HOLLADAY, of old age.

Deceased was born November 14th, 1797, in Casaw District, South Carolina; married to John Holladay April 16th, 1822; emigrated, with her husband, in the company of the first pioneers in 1824, to Marion County, Alabama, suffering many privations and hardships incident to new country and frontier life; was the mother of twelve children, four sons and eight daughters; heard and embraced the Gospel, early in the Spring of 1844; was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in June, 1844; in March, 1846, with her husband, three sons and five daughters, started west, with a view of meeting with the Saints who had been expelled from Nauvoo, Ill., somewhere on the borders of the Missouri River; passed through Far West, Jackson County, striking the Platte River at Grand Island, and following up that stream to Fort Laramie; hearing nothing from the Church, the company decided to turn and travel south, and travelled about 300 miles, then struck the Arkansas River at Fort Pueblo, and built winter quarters. Many members of the Mormon Battalion wintered at that place, several of whom suffered from privation and sickness, to whom her services were valuable, and are remembered by those who still survive. In the Spring of 1847 the company returned to Laramie, thence taking up the trail of the Pioneers westward, arrived in Salt Lake Valley, June 28th, 1847. In 1851 she, with her husband and children, went in company with C. C. Rich and Amasa Lyman, to San Bernardino, California, remaining there until the 15th day of December, 1857, when she again took up the line of march back to Utah, stopping one year at Beaver. In the Fall of 1858 she moved with her husband and children to Santaquin, Utah Co., in which place she buried her husband Jan. 1, 1862. At the death of her husband she was left with two of her grand-children, W. H. and Louisa Boyle; she kept house for them until they were married and had children of their own growing up. She then gave up keeping house in 1870, and went to her son's to live John D. Holladay; when her health permitted she visited amongst her children, grand and great grand-children, who were always glad to see her, and give her a kind welcome. She lived and died a faithful Latter-day Saint, bearing a strong testimony to the truth of the work of God in the last days. She retained the full use of her reason and memory to the end of her life. She had filled in the measure of her being on the earth, as a Saint, wife, and mother, and died in the faith of the gospel, and with an earnest of a glorious resurrection.—COM.

E. L. PLANT:

Dear Sir—I have much pleasure in bringing to your notice a cure of St. Vitus's Dance performed on my nephew after being under you five weeks, and desire to recommend others that are afflicted to come to you without delay. My nephew is 11 years old, and had been afflicted 18 months. Any doubting, a line to me will receive prompt attention.

HENRY POINTON,

The Gospel of Merit.

Where there is so much rivalry as in the manufacture of family medicines, he who would succeed must give positive and convincing proof of merit. This is an age of inquiry. People take nothing for granted. They must know the "whys" and "wherefores" before acknowledging the superiority of one article over another. Among the few preparations that have stood the test, those manufactured by R. V. Pierce, M. D., of the World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y. have for many years been foremost. The truth of any statement made concerning them can be easily ascertained, for Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are now prescribed by many physicians in curing obstinate cases of Catarrh and incipient Consumption. The Discovery has no equal in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchial and Nervous Affections. It allays all irritation of the mucous membrane, aids digestion, and when used with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets readily overcomes torpid liver and Constipation, while the Favorite Prescription has no rival in the field of prepared medicine in curing diseases peculiar to females. If you wish to "know thyself" procure a copy of "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," an illustrated book of nearly 1000 pages, adapted to the wants of every body. Price $1.50, postage prepaid. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. dsw

Substitutes in the Dental Ranks

Are not desirable; therefore keep the natural teeth sound and pure with that wholesome vegetable elixir, SOZODONT. Do this, and they will last as long as the breath lasts, and the breath itself will never be tainted. d s & w

Reasons Why.

The reasons why Dr. Price's Flavoring Extracts, Lemon, Vanilla, etc., are superior to all others is because they are prepared from choice selected fruits and aromatics without coloring or poisonous oils, all the flavoring principles are retained unchanged by chemical action, highly concentrated, requiring less to flavor. 2
