SAVE YOUR HAIR | TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled.

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

The Democratic Caucus.

WASHINGTON, 22.—The results of to-day's joint meeting of the House and Senate democratic caucus committees are generally construed as indicative of any early termination of the extra session, but its length cannot be safely predicted before a decision is made by the joint caucus next week on the important question whether or not general legislation shall be allowed. There does not seem to be much doubt entertained in any quarter that President Hayes will acquiesce eventually, if not immediately, in the modified democratic demand for a repeal of portions of the Federal election law, but as yet this cannot be stated upon authority, and the expectation may very possibly be disappointed.

The committees of the House and Senate democratic caucus, to make recommendations concerning the order of business for the extra session, held a joint meeting, to-day, which lasted five hours and a half, Senator Thurman being President. The first question discussed was whether the political legislation desired by the dominant party in Congress should be affected by the passage of a separate measure or by the incorporation of the repealing clauses in the appropriation bills. It was determined after discussion, on a vote of 13 against 5 negatives, the latter being two senators and three representatives, that the latter course would be the most expedient, especially for the reason that it seemed likely to save time, there being a general desire to finish the necessary business of the session at as early a day as possible. The next question considered was whether the political portions of the appropriation bills should now be passed in the same terms in which they were passed at the last session or whether the repealing clauses, in regard to federal elections, should be modified so as to repeal only those sections which authorize the appointment of chief supervisors and deputy marshals for elections, together with the sections conferring police powers on supervisors, thus continuing the authorization for the appointment of two supervisors of different politics to serve in a testimonial capacity at each poll, as witness of a count of the votes. After an exhaustive discussion, it was decided to recommend the adoption of the modified proposition. The vote was 14 against 4, two senators and two representatives favoring a total repeal. The joint meeting then authorized Senators Thurman, Saulsbury, Bailey and Kernan, and Representatives Chalmers, Springer, Carlisle and Atkins to formulate provisions in accordance with this decision in regard to the election laws, and also provisons for a total repeal of the jurors' test oath, and estimating the authorization of the presence of troops for incorporation in the legislative and army approbration bills, together with such additional provisions as they may deem necessary to secure free and fair elections for representatives and delegates to Congress. They were also especially authorized to consider the propriety of framing a substitute for section 552 Revised Statutes, which prescribes penalties for a violation of the election laws.

Springer's proposition to provide in addition to the repeal of the law concerning the presence of troops at the polls for the enactment of the existing English statute of George I. on that subject, was very favorably received, and the joint sub-committee will probably recommend its adoption. It prohibits any soldier stationed within two miles of a voting place from leaving his quarters on election day except to relieve guard or go to the polls to vote, and requires him in the latter case to return to his quarters immediately afterwards.

The joint sub-committee will meet on Monday and expect to report to the caucus committee on Tuesday.

Rehearing Granted.

The Secretary of the Interior today granted a rehearing as to the correctness of the Minto survey of the western boundary of Jurupa Rancho, comprising seven square leagues in San Bernardino county, confirmed to Abel Stearns. The property has been in controversy many years, and to day's action of the department revives the contest.

The Republicans Will not Yield a Point.

CHICAGO, 22.—Journal's Washington: All the efforts of leading democrats to get republican leaders in the two branches of Congress to consent to some modification of the federal election law, have come to naught Republicans decline absolutely to yield a single point and express a willingness to go to the country at the next election on this direct issue. Failing here the democratic leaders have turned their attention to the President and members of the cabinet, and are asserting to day that the President has indicated a willingness to compromise and not refuse to sign a modified repeal bill. Members of the administration are not of one opinion on this question, and it is now evident that if the President yields in any degree to the democrats and fails to act in union with his party in both branches of Congress, there will be serious trouble in the cabinet, which may lead to an open rupture. The republican party leaders are not pleased at the outlook, and say frankly that if the President makes any terms with the democrats, he endangers the republican victory in 1880, and will create dissension in the republican ranks that do not now exist. Democratic leaders are quite jubilant to-day, and talk as though a partial repeal of the election law is only a question of a few days' time. Several leading republicans will have conference with the President to-day, and urge him not to give his assent to any bill which may change the election laws in the slightest regard.

Great Socialist Meeting.

The socialists had a grand ball tonight, to commemorate, as the programme expressed it, "The dawn of liberty of 1848 and 1871—the Paris Commune." Some 25,000 people, mostly of the class known as communists, crowded into the Exposition building and remained peaceably until the close of the proceedings. There were no speeches, but a liberal display of guns was made, the number of the military being estimated at 500 to 1,000. The object was said to be the raising of money to perfect their organization, military and political.

Theatrical News.

The dramatic world has been very active here during the past week. McCullough, at Haverley's, has done a fine business, which has increased every night and will continue there next week. Lotta has packed Hooley's, in La Cigale, and gives way to Modjeska for a two weeks' run; but the chief attraction was the Strakosch Opera Troupe at McVicker's. It has improved greatly since their last visit and will take its strongest talent to California, the only notable exception being Clara Louise Kellogg, who goes to Europe shortly for the season with Mapleson. Strakosch. The contract with Marie Rose is not yet signed, and a hitch in the proceeding has occurred, which makes it not altogether certain that it will eventually be signed, the difference between Rose and Strakosch being that the former makes her going to California conditional upon her having the exclusive right to appear in the title role of several operas, including Carmen and Aida. Strakosch upon receiving the contract executed by his brother, struck out the objectionable clause, signed it, and telegraphed his action. The answer has not yet been received. In case this contract falls through, it is not improbable that Minnie Hauk may be engaged. Maz is determined not to bind himself by any such arrangement as is proposed by Madame Rose.

The week has been very successful financially, in opera as well as in drama. The variety theatres have done good business also.

Next week "Pinafore" will be given at McVickers. Dion Boucicault appears in "Shaughran" at Haverley's on Monday week. The Union Square Company has engaged for a six weeks' season the same theatre, producing "Mother and Son," "Banker's Daughter," "Danicheff's," and other plays.

WESTERN.

More Trouble in Mexico.

SAN FRANCISCO, 22.—A San Diego special from Tucson, of this date, has reliable news from Sonora this morning: Serna took possession of Alamos, Guaymas, Altar, and Magdalena. President Diaz supports Serna. Marscal holds Hermosillo, Ures and the balance of the State. The informant states facts, but is unwilling to give an opinion as to the result. Communication between Bowen, Magdalena and Guaymas is practically closed.

News from British Columbia.

A Victoria dispatch says: In parliament on Thursday, Mr. Mara asked the leader of the government if it was the intention of government to take action on the railway question during the present session. He believed the house and country would like to know if government intends taking any action during this session, or if they would wait quietly till the 1st of May. Walkem stated in reply that a second telegram had been sent to the Dominion government, asking what had become of the railway petition, and that telegram had also been sent to the imperial government. No answer whatever had been received, but one was expected within a few days. Under the circumstances it was unfair to ask government what action they intended to take. Mr. Mara asked that copies of all telegrams referring to the petition to the imperial government be laid before the house, as it seemed a second one had been forwarded to the Dominion government. On Friday the papers were brought down, when it was ascertained that the secession memorial of the house had not been forwarded to the imperial authorities from Ottawa. As May 1st is the date fixed upon for secession, the Colonist and Secession remarks that the British Columbia government and its supporters are in an awkward fix.

The Chamber afterwards rejected the Bonapartist motion for inquiry into the recent matter concerning five per cent. rents. Leon Say, Minister of Finance, defending himself, repelled the insinuations and calumnies against his part of the affair.

GERMANY.

The Alsace-Lorraine Debate.

BERLIN, 22.—In the debate in the German Reichstag last night, on Herr Schneegan's motion for the establishment of an autonomous government in Alsace-Lorraine, Schneegan pointed out that Bismarck was the responsible minister at present; Reichland lived too far away. The people were exposed to countless grievances from the complex bureaucratic system now prevalent. The presence of the Lord Lieutenant and Secretary of State did not divest Bismarck of the responsibility, and official friction is continual. They wanted the right man in the right place. Under the present system they did not feel themselves citizens of a well-ordered State, but of an unoccupied country. Give them but an independence and they would become not a bone of contention but the bonds of union between two civilized peoples, bridged by which the benefits of both might be exchanged and be the means of international reconciliation.

Bismarck in reply said the remarks of Schneegan made a favorable impression upon him, which would have been better had not his peroration contained an appeal to Paris which could find no echo in Berlin, and an appeal which pictured Alsace-Lorraine as a neutral territory, to which the claims of France would be as justifiable as those of Germany. I only state what I have interceded successfully for with the Emperor, and hopefully with the Bundsrath. In all we concede in the way of autonomy we must consider the safety of Empire, not only in quiet times like the present, but also in less peaceful. I have begun to question whether it is right that to my other duties as chancellor, I should add that of minister of a country of a million and a half inhabitants. I consider it indispensable to the country that it should have social and political basis, and officials through whom the chief power in Berlin may have intercourse with the people. I am in favor of the appointment of a stadtholder with a responsible ministry, as in a grand duchy of similar importance. The military security will remain, as before, in the hands of the empire. The question as to the separation of Alsace from Lorraine should remain open. Perhaps Alsace would be more rapidly and solidly organized if it did not remain homogeneous with Lorraine. The good sense of the population of Alsace would work against the Parisians, between whom and Frenchmen there is a wide distinction, who remain in the province. If Germany was quiet and had patience, this German oak, formerly pulled down by the French and now propped up by Germans, would regain its strength. Let us see that it does.

The speech was loudly applauded.

Opposed to Change of Customs.

The East and West Prussia provincial diets petition against the proposed changes in the customs system. The question is regarded as one of life or death to West Prussia and Danzig.

A CONQUEROR OF CONSUMPTION!

HALL'S BALSAM

FOR THE LUNGS,

ERADICATES

Coughs, Colds, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, and all Diseases of the Breathing Organs.

HALL'S BALSAM

Is the LEADING SPECIFIC for CONSUMPTION.

It soothes and heals the membrane of the lungs, inflamed and poisoned by the disease, and remedies the night sweats and tightness across the chest which accompany it.

CONSUMPTION

is not an incurable malady. It is only necessary to have the right remedy, and HALL'S BALSAM is that remedy.

DON'T DESPAIR OF RELIEF, for this benign specific may cure you, even though professional aid fails.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

Dr. D. D. Wright, of Cincinnati, sends us the subjoined professional indorsement: "I have prescribed Hall's Balsam in a large number of cases and always with success." He adds that "in one case a patient with every appearance of confirmed consumption was restored to his usual health soon after commencing to take the Balsam."

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., writes: "One year ago I was to all appearance in the last stages of consumption and got so low our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours." Mr. Kuhn further states that "after taking nine bottles of HALL'S BALSAM he is now in perfect health, having used no other medicine."

The above brief extracts are taken from a

MASS OF EVIDENCE

which has been accumulating during a period of TWELVE YEARS, thus proving an efficacy in HALL'S BALSAM in all cases where the breathing organs are affected, and showing the estimation in which the remedy is held by the public and medical profession. Sold by all Druggists.

Price $1.00 per bottle.
