By the Committee on Education:

ARTICLE XI.—EDUCATION.

SEC. 1. The legislature shall provide for a uniform system of public schools, the supervision of which shall be vested in a State superintendent and such other officers as the legislature shall prescribe. The superintendent shall be chosen by the qualified electors in the State in such manner as the legislature shall provide; his powers, duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 2. The legislature may establish free schools; provided, that no sectarian or denominational doctrines shall be taught in any school supported in whole or in part by public funds.

SEC. 3. All legislation in regard to education shall be impartial, guaranteeing equal rights and privileges to all persons, irrespective of race, color or religion.

SEC. 4. The proceeds of all lands that have been or may be granted by the United States to this State for the support of schools, shall be and remain a perpetual fund, the interest of which, together with all the rents of the unsold lands, and such other means as the legislature may provide, shall be appropriated to the support of the public schools throughout the State.

SEC. 5. The University of Deseret shall be the University of this State, and be under the control of the legislature; the proceeds of all lands that have been granted by Congress for university purposes, shall be and remain a perpetual fund, the interest of which, together with the rents of unsold land, shall be appropriated to the support of said university.

SEC. 6. No religious sect or denomination shall control or appropriate to its own use any of the public school or university funds of this State.

SEC. 7. The legislature shall foster and encourage moral, intellectual and scientific improvement. They shall, whenever it may be practicable, make suitable provisions for the blind and mute, and for the organization of such institutions of learning as the best interests of general education in the State may demand.

By the Committee on Militia:

ARTICLE XII.—MILITIA.

SEC. 1. The militia of the State shall be composed of all able-bodied male citizens between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five years, except such as are, or may hereafter be, exempt by the laws of the United States or of this State, and shall be armed, equipped and disciplined as the legislature may provide by law.

SEC. 2. All officers of the militia shall be elected by persons liable to military duty, in such manner as the legislature may provide. Staff officers shall be chosen from officers of the line.

By the Committee on Public Institutions:

ARTICLE XIII.—PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS.

SEC. 1. Institutions for the care and benefit of the insane, blind, deaf, and dumb, and such other benevolent institutions as the public good may require, shall be fostered and supported by the State, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 2. A State prison shall be established and maintained in such manner as may be prescribed by law, and provisions shall be made by law for the establishment and maintenance of a house of refuge for juvenile offenders.

SEC. 3. The respective counties of the State shall provide, as may be prescribed by law, for those persons who, by reason of age and infirmity, or misfortunes, may have claim upon the sympathy and aid of society.

After the reading of the committee reports presented some discussion arose as to having the amendments printed; without having arrived at any conclusion, the Committee of the Whole arose, the vote being 36 to 28.

The Convention resumed its sitting. The Committee of the Whole reported having read all the reports handed in for information only. The Convention then took a recess until 2 p.m.

This afternoon the Committee on Judiciary made its report, which was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The Convention then went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Woolley in the chair.

The report of the Committee on Judiciary was then read, as follows:

ARTICLE VI.—JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

SEC. 1. The judicial power of this State shall be vested in a supreme court, circuit courts, and such inferior courts as shall be established and whose jurisdiction shall be determined by law.

SEC. 2. The supreme court shall consist of a chief justice and two associate justices, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 3. The justices of the supreme court shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State at the general election, and shall hold office for the term of six years from and including the first Monday in January next succeeding their election; the senior justice in commission shall be chief justice; and in case the commissions of any two or more of said justices shall bear the same date, they shall determine by lot who shall be chief justice.

SEC. 4. The supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction in all cases arising under the laws of the State, including special proceedings. The court shall have original jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, quo warrant and habeas corpus, and also writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its appellate jurisdiction. Each of the justices shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the State upon petition by or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writs returnable before himself or the supreme court, or before any circuit court in the State, or before any judge of said courts.

SEC. 5. The State shall be divided into a convenient number of judicial circuits, in each of which shall be elected, by the electors thereof, one judge, who shall be the judge of the circuit court therein, and whose term of office shall be four years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. Until otherwise provided by law, there shall be four circuits, as follows: The counties of Weber, Box Elder, Cache, Rich, and Morgan, shall constitute the first circuit; The counties of Salt Lake, Summit, Davis and Tooele shall constitute the second circuit; the counties of Utah, Juab, Emery, Sanpete, Sevier, Millard, Wasatch and Uintah shall constitute the third circuit, and the counties of Beaver, Iron, Washington, Kane, Garfield, San Juan and Plute shall constitute the fourth circuit.

SEC. 6. The circuit courts shall have both chancery and common law jurisdiction and such other jurisdiction, both original and appellate, as may be prescribed by law; provided, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the legislature from conferring limited common law or chancery jurisdiction upon inferior courts.

SEC. 7. The judges of the circuit courts may hold court for each other, and shall do so when required by law.

SEC. 8. The judges of the supreme and circuit courts shall be ineligible to election to any other than a judicial office for to hold more than one office at the same time.

SEC. 9. No person shall be eligible to the office of supreme or circuit judge who is not a male citizen of the United States, and has not attained the age of twenty-five years, and who, except at the first election, has not been a resident of this State at least two years next preceding his election.

SEC. 10. The judges of the supreme and circuit courts shall each receive for his services a salary to be fixed by law, which shall not be diminished for the term for which he shall have been elected.

SEC. 11. The legislature shall determine by law the places in each circuit at which the circuit courts shall be held, and fix the terms thereof.

SEC. 12. The supreme court shall be always open for business, except in cases of adjournment, which, in no case shall exceed thirty days, nor shall any adjournment be taken while business requires the court to be in session. Its sessions shall be held at the seat of government.

SEC. 13. The style of all process shall be "The State of —," and all prosecutions shall be conducted in the name and by the authority of the same.

The reading of the committee reports by sections was then taken up and proceeded with.

The Committee on Ordinance and Bill of Rights made a further report prescribing that the legislature should provide for minority representation in the legislative body.

At 3 p. m. the Convention went into caucus for thirty minutes.

In 1866.

Sister Margaret Scott of Willard, a notice of whose death appeared in the News a few days ago, embraced the Gospel in the year 1866, instead of 1886, as stated in the notice. We make the correction by request.

Death of Samuel Hart.

A large number of the friends of Samuel Hart, of East Bountiful, are not aware that he died on Wednesday, June 23d, from general debility. He was in his 66th year, and was a native of Bristol, England. We have been requested to make this note in order to acquaint his numerous friends with the fact of his demise.

A Farmington Man Bound Over.

Yesterday afternoon, James Lland of Farmington was arrested on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. This morning he had a hearing before Commissioner McKay, who found that there was probable cause to believe him guilty and fixed his bail at $1,000. His alleged plural wife was put under $200 bonds as a witness.

Pleasant Reunion.

Yesterday being the anniversary of the organization of the Ladies' Relief Society of the Eleventh Ward, a large number of its members celebrated the occasion in the genial shade of Liberty Park. The time was very pleasantly spent in singing, various amusements, an enjoyable picnic and in social chat. This Society, under the able management of Sister McMaster, president, and Sisters Sears and Lawton, counselors, is proving a great blessing to the poor and needy of the Eleventh Ward, many of whom are made happy and comfortable, through its benevolence.

The ladies were taken to and from the Park in a large and commodious car under the courteous direction of Mr. Orson Arnold, Jr.

Died To-day.

On Thursday we gave an account of an operation for lithotomy performed in this city by Dr. W. F. Anderson, on Thomas Robertson, of Orderville. The prospect for the recovery of the patient seemed good until about six o'clock this morning when a sudden and unfavorable change in his condition took place, and at about noon he breathed his last.

Deceased held the office of High Priest, and was a member of the High Council of Kanab Stake. He leaves two wives and thirteen children. He was baptized in his native country, Scotland, in 1848; came to Utah in 1853, and was aged nearly sixty-two years. He took an active part in the pioneer labors and Indian troubles of Southern Utah, and was ever at the post of duty.

Slaughter House Burned.

Yesterday afternoon, between three and four o'clock, the slaughter house of Wm. Wood, the butcher, situated about two miles west of the city, was discovered to be on fire. A number of neighbors assembled and endeavored, but without success, to put the fire out. They managed to save all the beves on the premises, but the slaughter house, stable, pig pens, cattle pens and other structures were burned, including seven sheep, five lambs, a number of pigs, a quantity of tallow, hides, skins, tools, etc., and a stack of hay.

A little boy, son of Elias Morris, Esq., ran into the burning stable and tried to save a harness. He failed in this but succeeded in saving Mr. Wood's vest, in the pocket of which was a gold watch worth $125. The boy deserves credit for his activity and pluck. Mr. Woods feels very grateful for the assistance that was rendered. His loss is about $2,000, and his insurance will cover about half of it. A lot of lucern in winrows on the farm of Elias Morris adjoining the burning premises, was saved only by great effort, and the throwing of water on portions of it nearest the fire.

This is the third time Mr. Woods has been burned out. The fire was started this time by the boiling over of some greasy hog feed, which ignited, and as the wind was blowing strongly at the time, the flames quickly became uncontrollable.

Fine Work.

The recent repainting of the Deseret National Bank building by Mr. W. C. Morris is a subject for more or less comment, a great many expressing a dislike for the color, claiming that it is not attractive, etc. A chat with the painter himself and some other artists revealed a different frame of thought, however, if not to some extent causing dissenters to take another view and modify their conclusions in the light of explanation. It was not intended to be showy or glaring, but to be neat and represent as far as paint can an appearance of sturdiness and stability, while not being destitute of pleasant features to the eye. This has certainly been accomplished and the building by such means looks every inch a solid monetary receptacle and business establishment.

The same gentleman has nearly completed a thorough retouching of the exterior of Z. C. M. I., and it must be seen to be appreciated. Gold has been placed upon the fillets of the fluted columns, while the flutes have been somewhat darkened to throw the gilt into greater prominence, and the effect is delightful; the same is true of the capital, dentals, and in fact all the raised and panel work on the front, the entire task comprehended as a whole being a decided assistance to the architectural design by materially emphasizing the bold reliefs and subduing the backgrounds. The general appearance of the mammoth establishment is so greatly improved that even he that runs cannot fail to notice it. We have some first-class artists in Utah, and the world will know it some time if it does not now.

LONDON, July 1.—A fire was discovered June 26th in the cargo of the North German Lloyd steamer Fulda at Bremen, from New York. The discovery was made after the steamer had left Southampton. It required twelve hours hard work to quench the flames and it was necessary to jettison twenty-two chests of tobacco and forty bales of cotton from between decks. The other cargo in the compartments was damaged by fire.

BEXSON, Ariz., July 1.—Capt. Coy, the well known mariner, returned yesterday from the Santa Rita Mountains. He reports a terrible waterspout on the Valli ranch near there, Monday afternoon. He and his partner heard a terrific roar, resembling the sound of an earthquake. They ran to the bluff overlooking the Valli Clewega, and beheld a monster waterspout coursing its way down the Clewega Valley. The valley, which is fully half a mile wide, was covered with water to the depth of fifteen feet. As the torrent swept through the valley it carried everything before it. Cattle therein were lifted up, some being landed upon high banks, but most of them being carried forward and drowned. Hundreds of cattle thus perished. The water must have come upwards of 50 miles, as it overflowed the hotel and railroad track at Panama before it exhausted itself.

LONDON, July 1.—The forthcoming marriage of the Emperor of China is officially announced. His wife has been selected. The festivities will cost £1,000,000. Numerous changes are expected in the Imperial government.
