First Annual Meeting.—The an-

ual meeting of the several committees of ladies on storing grain, on Saturday afternoon, at the Council House, was well attended, the hall being filled.

Besides the ladies, President John Taylor and Bishop Edward Hunter were present, and addressed the assemblage, speaking commendably of the objects of the organization and of the labors of these composing it.

The report, which was read, showed that 10,465 bushels of wheat had been stored, and was stated to be in good condition.

Of the above quantity 2,913 bushels were purchased by the sisters; 50 bushels were purchased with the proceeds of "Sunday eggs," by the ladies of Deweyville.

Besides the wheat stored there is 7,955 pounds of flour on hand for the same purpose. The cash on hand, for the purchase of breadstuffs, amounts to $329 10. There is also a large quantity of merchandise, such as carpets, quilts, socks, etc., made by the sisters, the proceeds from the sale of which are to be applied in purchasing wheat.

Grainstuffs have been finished in the 15th and 17th wards of this City, and others are in process of erection, in other places.

Several settlements have not yet reported.

The assemblage was presided over by Sister E. B. Wells, who addressed the meeting as did also Sisters Eliza Snow, M. I. Horne, Jane S. Richards, and E. A. Whitney.

The meeting adjourned till Nov. 18th, 1878.

District Court.—Monday, November 19th.

Ruth E. Kinsey vs. Missouri Valley Life Insurance Company; case dismissed, by stipulation.

The People, etc., vs. Carl G. Johnson on defendant's motion and the petition of certain citizens of Tooele County, ordered that the time for the payment of judgment entered herein Oct. 19th, 1877, be extended 90 days from this date.

E. M. Wilson vs. J. W. Clappitt et al; motion of plaintiff for judgment on the pleadings; cross motion of defendant for leave to file an amended answer. The latter motion was allowed, upon payment of the costs herein since the service of the summons. Motion for judgment on the pleadings was overruled.

Louis Reggel vs. John Hague et al; judgment heretofore entered by the clerk, Nov. 8th, vacated and judgment now entered by the Court for $336 and costs.

The People, etc., vs. Heller & Garner; the prisoner Garner was admitted to bail heretofore.

Married Life.—You may think you know all about that subject. But perhaps there are some things connected with it which will be made plain by seeing the play of that name performed. It will be presented at the Theatre on Monday evening next for the benefit of the Mount Olivet Cemetery.

The following ladies and gentlemen have consented to take part in the performance: Major and Mrs. Goodspeed, Mrs. James N. Kimball, Miss Perry Kimball and Mr. W. C. Hall, of this city, Adjutant and Mrs. McCammon, Miss Meeks and Captains Warren and Taylor, of Camp Douglas.

Cattle Stealing.—To-day a warrant was issued by Justice Pyper for the arrest of a young man engaged as herdman for Mr. Charles Popper. He is accused of stealing from the premises of Mr. Alma Pratt, a short distance south of the city limits, four head of cattle. The alleged theft was committed on Saturday and Mr. Pratt recovered his animals this morning, from Mr. Popper's herd, in the Jenkins pasture.

Doing Well.—We learn that Col. John R. Winder, who is in Chicago, in the interests of the Deseret Tanning and Manufacturing Association, is succeeding well in accomplishing the object of his trip. He is courteously treated by the proprietors of leading tanning establishments and is enabled to glean much valuable information that will be of great practical use to the Association in this city.

Organizing.—On Sunday, December 2nd, at 2 p.m., the Presidency of this Stake will attend a meeting of the Elders, Priests, Teachers and Deacons of South Willow Creek (Draper), Union and Granite Wards, at the South Willow Creek Ward Meeting-house, for the purpose of organizing the several quorums of the priesthood named.

Shooting.—We learn of a shooting affair that occurred at Farmington yesterday, between Ira Parks and Joseph Chase, who live between that place and Centreville. We understand they emptied their pistols at each other, but being poor marksmen, no damage was done to either.

A family difficulty is said to be the cause.

Cottonwood Wards.—The Elders, Priests, Teachers and Deacons of Big Cottonwood and South Cottonwood Wards are requested to meet with the Presidency of this Stake, on Sunday, Nov. 25th, at 11 a.m. in the Big Cottonwood Ward meeting house, for the purpose of being organized into quorums.

High Council.—All the members of the High Council are requested to meet at the Council House, on Wednesday morning, the 21st inst., at 10 o'clock sharp.

Geo. F. Gibbs, Clerk of High Council.

Out on Bail.—Heller & Garner who were convicted in the District Court, on a charge of cattle stealing, have taken an appeal to the Supreme Court of the Territory. The former was admitted to bail on Saturday, and Garner to-day.

Message.—There is a message at the Western Union Telegraph Office for Frank Brown.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 19.—A special from Alexandria announces that the king of Egypt has accepted the terms of peace proposed by the latter.

A dispatch from Sofia reports that the Russians, on Friday, attacked Eski-Sarai and the Turkish positions at the entrance of the Orchanie defile, and were repulsed with heavy loss. A Vienna correspondent says: It seems to be believed that the Russian army, which Pasha can hold out till the beginning of December.

Russia is urging Serbia to co-operate in the war in view of operations for the relief of Elexia, which Mehmet Ali is expected to commence during the last week in November.

A correspondent at Belgrade telegraphs as follows: Gen. Horvovich has informed the Serbian government that if it wishes to join in the war, it should do so immediately, as the Turkish army is strong, entrenched, mounted with heavy Krupp guns, all along the eastern frontier, and also are concentrating troops near Clissoura and Timova, and may, any day, defend the capital against the Russian military railway from Bender to Galatz has been completed.

A special dispatch, dated Veran Kales, Sunday evening, says the fortress and city of Kara, with 300 cannons, stores, ammunition, etc., fell into Russian hands. The Turks lost killed and wounded 10,000 prisoners, and many flags. The Russian loss is about 2,700. The Russian soldiers made but trifling booty, and spared peaceful citizens and women and children. General Loris Melnikoff directed the battle during the day. The Grand Duke Michael was present also, the former entered the city at 1.10 on Sunday morning.

United States Mail.

The post-office authorities have arranged for three mails a week for the United States, via Queenstown. Further details of the capture of Kara.

A Veran Kales special says Kara was captured by about 15,000 Russians, who climbed steep rocks, ramparts, and walls, and stormed an equal number of desperately fighting Turks in headlong flight over their ditches and parapets. The attack had been originally fixed for the 13th, but was postponed owing to the bad weather. The principal attack was made on the southern fort. Gen. Laszenhoff, who commanded the right wing, consisting of the 40th division, assaulted Fort Hads Pasha, crowning a steep rocky height. Gen. Count Scherbatoff, with a regiment of Moscow grenadiers, and a regiment of the 39th division, attacked Hads Pasha in the center, the Khaulie Tabes, Savari, and Tabas, the three towers and the citadel. The Ardan brigade and another regiment of Moscow grenadiers, under Gen. Koop and Komandor, forming the left wing, assaulted Fort Ingis on the north. The attack began in the center, at 8.30 on Saturday evening, when Count Grabbe led his brigade against the Khan's redoubt, at himself fell dead. At the first onset, pierced by a bullet. Captain Kwadnicki, of the 39th regiment, was the first to enter the redoubt, at 11 o'clock at night, his sword was cut out of his hand and his clothes pierced. The redoubt surrendered early in the morning, and then the three towers almost simultaneously with the capture of the Khan's redoubt. Fort Sanvarti and Fort Hads Pasha were carried by assault by daylight on Sunday. General Laszenhoff's troops had made progress as far as the capture of Fort Karidigh. The other forts, especially Arb Tabas, on the east, and Takmah Tabas, on the west, main- tained a stubborn resistance until eight o'clock, when all the garrisons which could escape fled towards Erzeroum, but these were subsequently overtaken by dragons and Cossacks, and brought back prisoners.
