tutes Forbid One Man Holding Office in Competing Roads.

When James J. Hill moves Wall street is seized with a tremor of apprehension. The street came near having a fit yesterday, when it was an-nounced that Mr. Hill had quit the Northern Pacific directorate, and then here was another commotion when it wasannounced that Mr. Harriman would esigned from the directory of the Julion Pacific, Both magnates have een taking legal advice and find that the Minnesota law forbids one man holding office in competing railroads.

Harriman, who as a member of the forthern Pacific board, will, it is said. spose of all his interests in the Union acific, in order to remain in the forthern Pacific with the Hill-Morgan combination. It is also said that Har-riman fears to be away from the Hill and Morgan crowd as a fight is looked to be precipitated in which Harriman would undoubtedly be bested by his opponents

PROMOTION FOR WELBY,

Likely to be Made Superintendent

Rio Grande System. A New York dispatch in referring to the Salt Lake trip of General Manager Herbert, of the Rio Grande, intimates that Mr. Welby is likely to be made general superintendent of the Rio Grande system. If the appointment is made, the entire Rio Grande establishment in this city will take a day off and celebrate and paint the town red. Mr. Welby is not only a thorough rallway man, but a very popular official, and his record for the time he has been superintendent of the Western is without a flaw of any kind. He succeeded Mr. Bancroft, who resigned shortly after the completion of the change from the narrow guage regime. Mr. Welby learned his first lessons of law and or-der as a cadet in the British Naval academy at Portsmouth, Eng., of which he Indications point to the unpleasant probability of Garfield remaining closed for another season. This is owing to for another season. the fact that the present narrow guage equipment is inadequate to handle lake traffic, and it is entirely uncertain when the guage will be broadened. The present belief is that it will not be until the Southern Pacific comes south of the lake that anything will be done towards rehabilitating Garfield. Thus are the hopes dashed of those bon viv-Thus ants who were expecting that Garfield would be opened so that they might enjoy bar privileges at the lake.
