MOVEMENTS OF SOLDIERS.

Four Companies of Fifteenth to be Removed to Fort Duchesne.

The 12 companies of the Fifteenth infantry will remain at Fort Douglas until March, when two companies of the Second battalion and two of the Third battalion, will be transferred to Fort Duchesne and Whipple Bar-racks; thus leaving two full battalions ricks: thus leaving two full battalions at this post. The men are not opposed to the transfer, as they say there are so many ways of spending soldier pay in Salt Lake that it is almost impos-sible to save money—it ebbs away as fast as paid. But out in the country, where such attractions are reduced to their lowest terms, and some times no terms at all, the men have some interms at all, the men have some in-centive to saving up their pay, and manage to accumulate a little sum against the expiration of their term of service. At the same time, the men-like Fort Douglas,

LOST, FIVE DROWNED.

Norfolk, Va., Jan, 8 .- A broker mes sage received here over the U. S. sea-coast telegraph wires from Cape Hat-teras on the north Carolina coast reteras on the north Carolina coast re-ports the stranding and loss on the treacherous Diamond shoals yesterday of an unknown schooner, out of whose crew of seven men, five perished and two were saved. The message which fails to give the name of the lost vessel, reports her as bound from Long Point, Me., to Charleston, S. C., laden with fish scrap scrap. The captain of the vessel was among those who were lost. The two men who escaped are report-ed to be foreigners who heard those aboard say that the vessel was 42 years

The schooner, according to the dis patch, went to pleces within 30 minutes after she struck on the shoals during the herce gale which swept the coast, registering a wind velocity off Hatteras of 75 miles an hour.

It is declared to have been the worst storm in eastern Carolina since 1859. The wires to Cape Hatteras are not working and fuller information concern-ing the wreck is unobtainable for the present present.

The storm has today completely passed. The launch from the quarantine ship Jamestown, supposed to have been lost in Hampton Roads during yesterday's storm with the coxswain and engineer aboard, was picked up by a passing vessel, the steamship Belvingrove, and the two men were landed safely.

CHICAGO MILLIONAIRE SUED BY WOMAN SPIRITUALST.

Chicago, Jap. 8.-J. H. Lesher, who is a millionaire woolen manufacturer and resident member of the Chicago Athletic club, was made defendant last evening in a separate maintenance suit which in some respects is a parallel to the celebrated Vanderbilt-May Pepper case in New York. The Lesher suit brings out the fact that Mr. Lesher cluims as his wife May Bangs, one of the Bangs sisters, whose "spirit portraits" Dr. I. K. Funk investigated unavailingly. The plaintiff, whom Mr.

Lesher acknowledges as having been sent to Europe by him and having been given by him an interest in one of his enterprises, but whom he declares he never married, is known as Mrs. Belle Scramlin,
