The reason they have such an extended trade and handle so much merchandise s due to the fact of their willingness to sell on such a small margin; also the fair and honest treatment they give to their customers. They are satisfied to do a great deal of work for a small profit. They have recently put in the latest cash and package carrier system in the state, and are well equipped for doing business right and prompt. Peo who contemplate visiting conference would save money by stopping off a day in American Fork, and visit the various departments of this mammoth up to date business house. Those who cannot stop off would do well to write them for price lists.

but the consensus of opinion is that values will go still higher. With cattle and hog quotations at the exceptional heights to which they have attained it seems inconsistent to report a declining mutton market but the range marketing has begun in earnest and puts packers in a some-what dictatorial position. They want mutton but succeed in securing it at the lowest range of the year. Receipts were the heaviest of the season during the past week. Sheep were held over from day to day early in the week but the close of the week's business finds the yards practically clear. The best grades of sheep and lambs declined 16 to 20 cents, choice lambs hav-ing sold at $3.75 to $4.25 on Thursday, prime Utah wethers at $3.10 to $3.30. Country buyers had a good op-portunity to fill orders and availed themselves of it at prices ranging from $2.50 to $2.85 for wethers and $3.00 to $3.25 for lambs. Ewes closed at $2.40 to $2.75 for killers, and $2.90 to $2.50 for stockers. The packing demand continues and the market is in good condition, but there is little encouragement for higher prices until the fall rush shall cease. Receipts of live stock for the past week were 67,000 cattle, 47,000 hogs and 29,500 sheep, against 43,690 cattle, 37,100 hogs and 21,900 sheep for the previous week. Among the sales of Western sheep at
