

IN SOCIAL REALMS

SOCIAL CHAT

A notable event of the week was the reunion party at Hotel Utah on Tuesday night, given under the auspices of the Utah Historical Society. The affair was given by the committee, and was attended by a large number of the old-time residents of the state. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

On Thursday evening the engagement of Miss Alta B. Johnson and Dr. J. C. Landenberg was announced. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

On Thursday evening the engagement of Miss Alta B. Johnson and Dr. J. C. Landenberg was announced. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

On Thursday evening the engagement of Miss Alta B. Johnson and Dr. J. C. Landenberg was announced. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

On Thursday evening the engagement of Miss Alta B. Johnson and Dr. J. C. Landenberg was announced. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

On Thursday evening the engagement of Miss Alta B. Johnson and Dr. J. C. Landenberg was announced. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

On Thursday evening the engagement of Miss Alta B. Johnson and Dr. J. C. Landenberg was announced. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

On Thursday evening the engagement of Miss Alta B. Johnson and Dr. J. C. Landenberg was announced. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

On Thursday evening the engagement of Miss Alta B. Johnson and Dr. J. C. Landenberg was announced. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

On Thursday evening the engagement of Miss Alta B. Johnson and Dr. J. C. Landenberg was announced. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

On Thursday evening the engagement of Miss Alta B. Johnson and Dr. J. C. Landenberg was announced. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and was well attended. A large number of the old-time residents of the state were present to enjoy the event.

A pleasant birthday party was celebrated at the home of Mrs. Martina Z. Olson Thursday afternoon in honor of her birthday. Present were a number of her friends and others, among them being Mrs. Annie Zacharias, Mrs. Louise Simon, Mrs. Sophia Z. Barrett, Mrs. Amanda Dahlquist, Mrs. Thilda Carlquist, Mrs. Carrie Lambert, Mrs. Thilda Olson, Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. Kalle Carlqvist, Mrs. Emma Swenson, Miss Hazel Olson, Miss C. Nelson, Mrs. Hanna Hansen, Mrs. Mabel Jensen and many others.

Mrs. Edwin Kimball entertained the members of the American Music society at her home on Tuesday night. The room being beautifully decorated, and a number of delightful compositions of Utah composers being given, among the musicians represented being Willard Welton, J. J. McChesney, Edwin Kimball, DeWay Richards, Mrs. Martha Boyle King, Mrs. Edith Holmstrom, W. C. Chiver, J. J. Stagner, Prof. Anton Pedersen and others.

Mrs. Zella Gallacher entertained a pleasant evening affair on Tuesday night for Miss Nancy Lyman and Culson Smith, the guests being chiefly members of the D. M. V. club, at which Miss Lyman is a member. The room was decorated in pink and white variegations, and the hostess was assisted by Misses Conlan, Chadwick and Nordwell. About 40 enjoyed the evening.

A pleasant affair of the week was the reception given at Social hall on Wednesday night, by the Hawaiian society. The room being beautifully decorated, and a number of delightful compositions of Utah composers being given, among the musicians represented being Willard Welton, J. J. McChesney, Edwin Kimball, DeWay Richards, Mrs. Martha Boyle King, Mrs. Edith Holmstrom, W. C. Chiver, J. J. Stagner, Prof. Anton Pedersen and others.

Mrs. Thad W. Naylor has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lester O. Naylor for a short time.

Mrs. Joseph Rawlins and two daughters, the Misses Alta and Lara Rawlins, who have spent nearly a year traveling abroad, are now in Naples, and will go to Europe the last of this week. They expect to sail for home early in May.

Miss Nell Bennett of Los Angeles is expected during the week to be the guest of Mrs. Charles Cain Cronson.

Mrs. Lee Charles Miller returned Thursday from a delightful two months' trip in Southern California.

Mrs. J. M. Baumgarten is spending some time at Long Beach, Cal., and will return home early in May.

At the University club Easter Monday night, the social committee has made arrangements to give a collation which will be a most enjoyable affair. Invitations have been issued only to the members and their families, J. E. Galt will lead the collation.

Mrs. and Mrs. Karl A. Scheid will entertain at a dinner at their home Wednesday evening, April 23.

Mrs. George T. Brice has issued invitations for a bridge tea, to be given at her home next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Freeman Bassett and Miss Nell Mahan will entertain today at a luncheon in honor of Miss Edwards, at the home of Mrs. Bassett.

One of the largest social affairs for the Easter week will be the charity card party, to be given at the Ladies' Literary club house Tuesday afternoon, April 13, by St. Mark's Hospital association. All those wishing to reserve tables can do so by applying to Mrs. C. H. Pearson. The reception committee will be the officers of the association.

The alumni and all present and former pupils of the Collegiate Institute will celebrate founders' day next Monday with a supper at Guntun Memorial chapel, and a general inspection of the new buildings of Westminster college.

MILLINERY OPENING

Spring and Summer Hats
A showing of the latest and pretties styles.
Prices reasonable.

Mrs. L. Morris
Millinery
65 E. First South, Salt Lake and Murray.

Mrs. Thad W. Naylor has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lester O. Naylor for a short time.

Mrs. Joseph Rawlins and two daughters, the Misses Alta and Lara Rawlins, who have spent nearly a year traveling abroad, are now in Naples, and will go to Europe the last of this week. They expect to sail for home early in May.

Miss Nell Bennett of Los Angeles is expected during the week to be the guest of Mrs. Charles Cain Cronson.

Mrs. Lee Charles Miller returned Thursday from a delightful two months' trip in Southern California.

Mrs. J. M. Baumgarten is spending some time at Long Beach, Cal., and will return home early in May.

At the University club Easter Monday night, the social committee has made arrangements to give a collation which will be a most enjoyable affair. Invitations have been issued only to the members and their families, J. E. Galt will lead the collation.

Mrs. and Mrs. Karl A. Scheid will entertain at a dinner at their home Wednesday evening, April 23.

Mrs. George T. Brice has issued invitations for a bridge tea, to be given at her home next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Freeman Bassett and Miss Nell Mahan will entertain today at a luncheon in honor of Miss Edwards, at the home of Mrs. Bassett.

One of the largest social affairs for the Easter week will be the charity card party, to be given at the Ladies' Literary club house Tuesday afternoon, April 13, by St. Mark's Hospital association. All those wishing to reserve tables can do so by applying to Mrs. C. H. Pearson. The reception committee will be the officers of the association.

The alumni and all present and former pupils of the Collegiate Institute will celebrate founders' day next Monday with a supper at Guntun Memorial chapel, and a general inspection of the new buildings of Westminster college.

Mrs. S. C. Baldwin, who has returned from a visit in Nashville, Tenn., is at home for the present with Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Irvine.

Mrs. Lester of New York, who has spent some time with Mrs. Jennie Cota, will leave this evening for Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Morris have returned, after spending the past two months in southern California.

Mrs. Mattie E. Vogel of Ogden is the guest for a time of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skerton.

Mr. and Mrs. Benner X. Smith have gone east on a short business trip.

Miss Myra Sawyer, who has been a teacher of art at the University of Utah for the past two years, expects to sail from New York, June 8, to spend some time under the leading masters of Paris.

General and Mrs. Manderson and Miss McCook, who have spent a few days here, guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wallace, left Tuesday evening for their home in Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. Albritton and little daughter left Monday evening for their home in Knapville, Mont., after spending the past two months with Mrs. Albritton's mother, Mrs. E. Bonnemont.

Mrs. William Sharp and Mrs. Thomas Davis, who are the guests of Judge and Mrs. Harkness, expect to return to their home in New York soon after Easter.

The many friends of R. B. Tripp of Yankton, S. D., who has spent some time here, will be pleased to hear that he has been made circuit judge of South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Halbert S. Kerr and children, who have recently come from Peru and have spent the past week here with Mr. Kerr's brother, Kenneth C. Kerr, left this week for London.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Helges have returned from spending the winter in California, and are now at home to their friends at 77 G street.

Mrs. O. W. Powers left Goldfield, Nev., Monday evening for Los Angeles and the beaches, where she will spend a few weeks.

Mrs. Thomas Marleneaux and daughter, Dorothy, who have spent the winter in Paris and London, sailed for home March 31.

Society is looking forward to next week when a number of receptions and dances will be given in the city. One of the social events scheduled to take place in the near future is the annual charity ball of the Martha chapter, the time and place will be announced.

Tuesday evening Mrs. A. P. Hibbs was the host of a very pretty arranged surprise party which was arranged by a few of her friends.

Misses Kit Fitzgerald and Francis Joyce have returned home from Washington, D. C., where they have been for the past two months.

Former Gov. W. A. Richards, of Wyoming, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. G. W. McCrorey during the past week.

Samuel Lillard of Provo, was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. W. M. Kendrick during the past week.

Miss Agnes Macdonald of Sacramento has arrived in Ogden to take charge of the Harriann emergency hospital. While here she will make her residence with Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Tyree.

Mrs. A. M. Tribe and children have gone to Los Angeles for a six months' visit.

Mrs. A. P. Hibbs entertained the Halcyon Sewing club on Friday afternoon.

J. H. McCormick, of the Pullman company of Denver, accompanied by his wife and two children, arrived in Salt Lake on Monday evening, and will spend the week and spent three days in Ogden visiting friends.

Miss Bernice Kohn, who has been attending the St. Mary's academy in Salt Lake, is spending the Easter holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kohn of this city.

Prof. George A. Eaton, principal of the Salt Lake High school, spent Wednesday and Thursday in the city visiting old friends.

Albert Kiesel has returned from an enjoyable trip through southern California.

W. A. Hickman entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening at dinner and automobile party.

Misses Margaret and Daisy Irvine left Sunday for Los Angeles and other points of interest. They expect to be absent some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Baker of Tullahoma, Tenn., are in Provo visiting with their many friends. They are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schuyler.

On Friday evening Mrs. H. C. Watkins was pleasantly surprised at her home by the members of the Reserve organization and partners. A delightful social event was passed and all expressed regret to lose Mr. and Mrs. Watkins who are preparing to move to Salt Lake.

Mrs. J. H. Steele of Rugby, Idaho is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sumner in this city for a couple of weeks.

The "Utah" carried a merry party of young married people to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Statten on Provo Bench Friday evening. A very enjoyable evening of games, music and feasting was enjoyed and the hours for morning were approaching when the party said good night to the genial host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Holbrook announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Olo to Mr. W. Dixon of Salt Lake. Marriage to take place the early part of May.

Professor and Mrs. Newton Noyes were the guests of honor at a dinner party, Monday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Noyes. Covers were laid for 10.

Miss Zella Farrer entertained a number of her young friends at a musical and social evening at her home on Monday evening. Refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening passed.

Prof. and Mrs. George H. Brimhall have returned from a pleasant visit in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. E. H. Darling and sister Miss Nellie Schofield have returned after a brief but pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Jennie Ferrin entertained about 30 of her young friends at her home Monday evening at a candy pull. Fun and merriment reigned supreme until a late hour. A delectable lunch was served. Over 100 relatives and friends gathered at the Lake View hall Tuesday evening to do honor to the eighty-fifth birthday anniversary of Bishop Peter Madsen. The evening was passed in short speech, sweet singing and readings. After which an elaborate spread was served. The occasion was one that will long be remembered by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Albert Smoot, who were married in the Salt Lake Temple March 31, returned to Provo Wednesday evening, after a series of dinners and socials given in their honor in Salt Lake City. The popular young couple are now receiving the congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends in this city. Mr. Smoot is the manager of the R. M. B. Telephone Co., in this district, and Mrs. Smoot, formerly Nellie Peterson, has been appointed the position of instructor in Domestic Science in the R. Y. University here.

Messrs. Bert Choules and Albert Dixon have just returned home after having spent the winter in California.

The Priscilla club were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Hannah L. Hicks. A pleasant evening was enjoyed and a delectable lunch served.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Taft announce the engagement of their daughter, Mrs. Ruth, to Lawrence Snow. The marriage to be solemnized in Salt Lake City, April 10.

Misses Rousen and Rebecca Rawlins are visiting relatives and friends in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. John Jackson delightfully entertained the Fifth grade of the Primary association of the Fifth ward at her home Friday afternoon. A delightful time was enjoyed by all and an elaborate lunch served.

Mrs. William Strong, after spending the winter in Heber and a week in Salt Lake, has returned home, declaring her intentions of spending the summer in Provo.

Mrs. Charles Walsh of Seipio, is the guest of Mrs. Will Strong for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion McKee of Heber are visiting in this city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reed Street.

The Review club met for its last session at the home of Miss Josephine Kelling. A very enjoyable time was passed in music and games. The feature of the evening was a gussie.

MRS. JACOB M. DICKINSON.
Wife of the secretary of war.

Mrs. Jacob M. Dickinson, wife of the secretary of war, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harker and Mrs. Upham.

Mrs. Arthur Bird entertained informally at a tea on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. Thomas Davis, the room being brightly decorated with spring flowers, and about 30 present.

Miss Tinsman entertained her bridge club this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Moritz gave a box party at the Salt Lake theater on Monday night in honor of their guest, Miss Edna May of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Greenwald and Mr. Auerbach.

On Monday a number of Salt Lake people will go up to Ogden to attend a large card party to be given by Mrs. Charles Hollingsworth and Miss Minnie Kiesel.

On Monday Miss Louise Jensen and Miss Margaret Evans entertained at a morning card party in honor of Miss Adella Edwards, an April bride, 500 being the amusement, and the prize in the contest going to Miss Jean Glaser, while a guest prize went to the bride-elect. A luncheon followed, the decorations being in violets with tiny chickens as favors, and the place cards done in bride's slippers.

The fourth Monday reception given at the University was under the charge of the Freshman girls, who wore their class colors, gold and brown, while the room was decorated in the university colors. Present during the afternoon were members of various literary clubs of the city, including the Ladies' Literary club, the Authors' and Bay View clubs. The hostesses of the afternoon reception were June Howard, Alice Hurst, Bora Johnson, Mabelle Jones, Bess Judd, Virginia King, Louella Knudson, Vera Knapp, Ruth Langford, Edith Leonard, Jennie Leigh, Edith McFarland, Margaret Mansfield, Katherine Marshall, Margaret Parsons, Myrtle Peterson, Caroline Parry, Caroline Rasmussen, Vera Rich, Winifred Roy, Jennie Ryan, Edna Shepherd, Edith Shaw, Lillian Sney, Hortense Spencer, Gladys Stewart, Laura Sutton, Gertrude Thompson, Lucile Thurman, Virginia Tolhurst, Jean Winder, Zina Wood, Ivy Williamson, Marie Scholten, Gertrude Harney, Myrtle McEwen, Hortense Lockhart, Frances Lewis, Clara Smith, Edithon Bennett, Erna Blumer, Mildred Clark, Bessie Crabtree, Estelle Davis, Rita Durd, Venice Garrison, Edith Harney, Myrtle McEwen, Edith Grant, Lillian Hall and Dale Havenor.

Mrs. C. J. Sallisbury and son, who have spent the past few weeks in Los Angeles, are expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McCormick, who have spent the past two weeks in Honolulu, will sail from there for home April 11.

Mrs. John W. Upham, who has been visiting her parents in Los Angeles, has returned and is again at home at the past.

Mrs. Evelyn Henderson of Ogden, has been spending a day or so in Provo with Miss Mary Hoag.

Miss Palmer of Ely is in Ogden for a short visit with friends.

Miss Pearl Jones of Provo has been in town visiting friends for a few days.

MRS. FRANKLIN MACVEAGH.
Wife of the secretary of the treasury.

Mrs. Franklin Macveagh, wife of the secretary of the treasury, will visit in Los Angeles before coming back to Salt Lake the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fabian left Sunday for Boston, where they will join their daughter, Miss Stella Fabian, to remain several weeks.

Mrs. Robert C. Gemmell is visiting friends in Oakland.

Prof. Dickert is spending a few days in the city at the Dickert home, from Helena, Mont.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Geoghegan and children have returned from an extended stay in California.

Miss Myrtle Rowan, late of Philadelphia, has just returned from a trip through Idaho and Utah, visiting friends formerly of Philadelphia, and is again at Centerville, where she is stopping with Miss Ella Croft. Miss Rowan is anticipating a visit from her mother who is still in Philadelphia. In the near future, Miss Emma Kirk, also from the Pennsylvania city, is at present Miss Rowan's guest.

Mrs. Jacob Spencer is down from Boney, Ida., for a short visit with friends and relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. T. G. Odell have moved from Murray and will occupy the latter of Mrs. George T. Odell for the summer.

Mrs. Harvey Hardy who has been in Nevada for some time past will return about the 1st of May.

Mrs. William H. DeWolfe, of Midford, is the guest for the week of Mrs. Frank T. Roberts, on her way to the far east for a visit of several months with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Mark Jennings, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Peabody, and family for the winter, has gone to Laramie, Wyo., to visit her son, Robert Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Newitt have returned from San Francisco where they have spent the winter with their daughters, Mrs. Grant Smith and Mrs. J. Q. Barlow.

Leont and Mrs. C. B. Elliott, of Port Douglas, expect to have for their guest, their sister, Mrs. Elliott, wife of Judge Elliott, of Minneapolis, who is on her way home after spending the winter in Los Angeles.

Mrs. O. W. Ott will leave soon to visit her parents in Chicago, Ill. Later she will go to the commencement exercises of Wesley college and for the reunion of her class.

Mrs. Louis Seckels and her daughter, Miss Alice Seckels, who have spent the winter in Chicago, Ill., will probably be home early in June.

Mrs. J. W. Hall and her two daughters, the Misses Mildred and Frances Hall, are home for a short visit with friends in Ogden.

WEDDING BELLS

An interesting announcement of the week was that of O. J. Salsbury of the son of Mrs. Margaret Blaine Salsbury of this city and Miss Marian McGivray of Los Angeles, the bride elect being a daughter of Mrs. William Donald McGivray of that place.

The marriage of Miss Nancy Lyman and Colson Smith will take place on April 15.

The wedding of Miss Ruby Taft and Lawrence Snow takes place today.

The engagement of Miss Alta Elizabeth Johnson and Dr. C. E. Carter was announced during the week, the marriage to take place in May.

A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Jessie Chase and William C. Fredrickson the ceremony being performed by Rev. D. M. Heimick at the home of the bride in the presence of a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper followed the bride being effectively decorated in spring roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Trenam announce the marriage of their daughter, Carrie, to C. W. Higgins. The wedding will take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Atkins announce the engagement of their daughter, Lydia, to John D. Carter of San Francisco. The marriage took place in San Francisco on April 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Soden announce the engagement of their daughter, Gurtha, to Arthur A. White. The wedding will take place Wednesday, April 14.

Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas H. Atkins announce the engagement of their daughter, Carrie, to C. W. Higgins. The wedding will take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. David F. Walker of San Mateo, Cal., announce the engagement of their daughter, Althea Margaret to Rulon S. Smoot. The wedding to take place on April 19, 1909.

If you have backache and urinary troubles, you should take Foley's Kidney Remedy to strengthen and build up the kidneys so they will act properly, as a serious kidney trouble may develop. P. J. Hill Drug Co. (the never substitutes), Salt Lake City.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S
ORIENTAL TOILET POWDER
AN IDEAL ANTISEPTIC TOILET POWDER FOR INFANTS AND ADULTS

This is an exquisitely perfumed, antiseptic toilet powder. It is a household necessity for the nursery and the toilet. It is the perfect skin and preserves the delicate texture of the skin. It should be used freely after bathing giving a delightful and refreshing effect.

Prepared by Felix Gouraud, Proprietor of GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM

For sale by
WILLES-HORNE DRUG CO.
No. 3 Main St., by the Monument, SALT LAKE CITY

A Skin of Beauty Is a Joy Forever
DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S
Oriental Cream
OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

FOR THE SKIN AND COMPLEXION

The only toilet preparation in America that has stood the actual test of public approval for over half a century.

GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM Purifies and Beautifies the Skin. Cures Skin Diseases and relieves Sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness, Yellow and Muddy Skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion.

GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM is highly recommended by leading society and professional ladies, and cannot be surpassed when preparing for evening attire.

FOR SALE BY DRUGGISTS AND FANCY GOODS DEALERS
FERD. T. HOPKINS, Proprietor, 37 Great Jones Street, New York

Announcement

Among the new firms on West 3rd South, between Main and West Temple Streets, is the Deseret Jewelry Store owned by Mr. H. Nieme. This firm is now open for business with a complete stock of popular jewelry. All orders receive our personal attention. We guarantee all work and work that leaves our salesroom. Watch and jewelry repaired done by expert workmen.

DESERET JEWELRY STORE
No. 30 West Third South.