CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear, and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary. Receive in individual cases Catarrh may arise from a cold, from the sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to dampness, whether in the house or out. It is identified when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces abused. The disease may arise from a constitutional condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eyes and ear are generally involved, and discharge of mucus. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases, frequently extend to the throat, causing irritation and hoarseness, and so acid as to cause roughness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or offensive, as the case may be. The eyes are clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the membrane is dry and feverish, like fever, and in bad cases of long standing the head feels uncomfortable, and a dull pain is experienced to throw it off by blowing, hawking, etc. The head is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and tenacious, which adheres so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge it. Sometimes a portion of it becomes inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter in particles may be found in the corners of the eyes. If the disease becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent paroxysms of sneezing. Frequently, in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected, by catarrhal ulceration, and the secretions of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its progress, every symptom and its directions, have been studied extremely, calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from those cured in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most deplorable and repulsive diseases with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

The Pedestrian Tournament.

LONDON, 28.—In the international walk, at Agricultural Hall, the score at 11 o'clock to-night was as follows: Brown, 110 miles; Vaughan, 110 miles; Crossland, 106; Corkey, 104; Rowell, 100; Barnett, 100; Webster, 96; Hancock, 94; and Crott 94.

The "Princess Alice" Disaster.

The enquiry made by the board of trade into the Princess Alice disaster resulted in the acquittal of the captain and engineers of the Bywell Castle, and censuring the mate of the Princess Alice for carelessness.

Movements of Persian Troops.

A Simla dispatch says: The movements of the Persian troops in the direction of the Afghan frontier, are reported, which will prevent the Ameer from withdrawing the troops from Herati to reinforce Candahr.

Another Strike.

The strike of the Clyde iron workers has commenced. The engineers' society, numbering 3,000 men, also resolved to strike if the reduction of wages be enforced. The firm of John Elder & Co., has decided to discharge 1,200 of their hands. They employ 4,000 men.

GERMANY.

The Socialist Law.

BERLIN, 28.—The Official Gazette announces that in pursuance of the provisions of the socialist law, one association has been closed in Baden, two in Brunswick, four in Westphalia and five in Saxony. The publication of one socialist newspaper has been prohibited in Mecklenburg, one in Baden, and two in Saxony.

TURKEY.

Russian Troops Arriving.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 28.—Minister Layard has received information that that the Russian troops from Rustchuck, Shumla, and Varna continue to arrive at Adrianople and elsewhere in eastern Roumelia.

Depreciation of Currency.

The British and French ministers recommend Safvet Pasha, Grand Vizier, to constitute a commission of foreign merchants and bankers to devise a plan to stop the depreciation of currency, but the Sultan has refused his consent. One hundred piastres in gold cost 307 in paper. The depreciation of currency continues.

The Roumelian Governorship.

The Porte hesitates to appoint a governor for Eastern Roumelia for fear of a conflict between the Russian and Turkish authorities. The Russians have informed the international commission that it is impossible, at present, to restore the Turkish judiciary in Eastern Roumelia. The Russian authorities desire, in the interest of the province itself, to continue in the administration of its affairs as long as necessary.

AUSTRIA.

The Bulgarian Insurrection.

VIENNA, 28.—The Abend Post states that the latest news in regard to the development of the Bulgarian rising is disquieting. The insurrection appears to have successfully resisted the first attempts at forcible suppression, and is rapidly extending. The insurgents are now advancing on Seres. On the other hand, some individual bands have been defeated. The Mahometan element is rising on on all sides to assist the Porte, and a considerable force has been dispatched from Salopica to the insurgent territory. The object of the uprising is unquestionably to realize the idea of Bulgaria reaching the Ægan sea in accordance with the treaty of San Stefano. It, therefore, has a more than local significance and touches questions of an undoubtedly European character.

BRITISH AMERICA.

Snow Storms.

TORONTO, 28.—Snow to the depth of nine inches fell in the northwestern part of Ontario last night, doing great damage to fruit and other trees.

Heavy Failure.

MONTREAL, 28.—Ray & Co., dry goods merchants, have failed; liabilities $300,000. Outside speculations on real estate was the cause.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Sunday School Jubilee.

OGDEN CITY, Utah, October 27, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

Latter-day Israel may feel justly proud of their Sabbath Schools at the present day. To those who compose these most invaluable institutions we may look, not only with hope, but with full assurance that they will in after years hence, assume the positions and fill the vacancies which will be caused by their fathers' departure from this life to work behind the veil, to "proclaim deliverance to the captives, and open the prison doors to those who are bound." These rising generations of Israel will put on the whole armor of faith, and in the strength of the Lord will build up this mighty work, the foundation of which has been laid by their fathers. These iconoclasts will level the images of gold, silver, iron, brass, etc., and as instruments in the hands of God will establish his kingdom in power on the earth. Being thoroughly "rooted and grounded" in the truth, their faith will not waver, but will remain firm as the everlasting hills in the midst of which they dwell.

This has been one of the most interesting days which have transpired in the history of this city. The Sunday schools of the four wards held a concert in the Tabernacle. The scholars of each ward were under the direction of their respective superintendents and teachers. The whole proceedings were conducted under the general supervision of Elder R. Ballantyne, assisted by Elder L. F. Monch. There were present on the occasion, Elder George Q. Canon, President of the Sunday School Union, Elders George Goddard, Wm. Willes and Samuel L. Evans, from Salt Lake City; Elder F. D. Richards, the Presidency of the Weber Stake, the Bishops of this place, and many others. The building was filled to its utmost capacity. The exercises were opened by singing and prayer. Profs. John Fowler and Wm. Pugh were the musical directors. Among the songs, duets, solos, recitations, were the following: "Do they Pray for Me at Home?" the 2nd Ward; solo, by Miss Rosa Pierce; "Song of the Prairie," 1st Ward; "Niagara," David Kay; "Beautiful Dreams," 2nd Ward; "Twenty Impolite Things," 2nd Ward; "Children of Zion," by all the schools; "Strike, Strike for Victory," by 4th Ward; "Sacramental Hymn," by all the schools; "He shall Feed his Flock" (Messiah), by Miss Lizzie Watson; "Fair as the Morning," Goddard and Willes; "Telling On," by the 4th Ward; "To-day," all the schools; "The Prophet," by Mr. Charles W. Hill; "Apostrophe to Death," by Alma D. Chambers, etc., etc.

The answers to questions on "Articles of Faith," "Restoration of the Gospel," &c., were promptly and very correctly given by the schools respectively, as were also the responses to the same questions by all the schools in concert. This part of the exercises evinced great care in training, on the part of the teachers, and careful, attentive study on the part of the scholars. These sacred and important truths are, I believe, indelibly impressed upon the minds of our youth, they cannot be easily effaced. They will grow and increase in strength as these children increase in years, and when they attain to manhood and womanhood, they will love these truths, because by them they are made free. Earnest and encouraging addresses were delivered by Elders G. Goddard, W. Willis, S. L. Evans, George Q. Cannon, F. D. Richards, R. Ballantyne, D. H. Peery, etc. Each speaker expressed the great pleasure he experienced while witnessing the various exercises by the schools to-day. They spoke in high commendation of the labors of the superintendents and teachers; they urged and encouraged them to continue their labors of love in the great work of educating the rising generation in the principles of truth and of duty to God, and to society.

As parents and guardians realize their responsibilities in relation to the present and future status of their children, our Sabbath Schools will continue to receive their fostering care and help, and those who are engaged in such honorable institutions will receive all needful assistance to enable them to prosecute the noble work of preparing our sons and daughters to fulfil the high destiny which awaits them—to be saviors on Mount Zion in the "dispensation of the fulness of times." God speed the cause.

SEMPER.

Thanks to the Brave.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, October 28, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

Please through the columns of your paper allow me to give my heart felt thanks to the fire brigade and to all friends, who so fearlessly risked their own lives, to save the lives of my children and the guests of the house; together with what property it was possible to save from the devouring fire that was doing its best to take life and destroy property, at the Great Western Hotel on Saturday morning.

This, gentlemen, is the only way that I can reward you, viz: By tendering you my heart-felt thanks. Being from home at the time the house took fire, returning by the morning train to see it in ruins, I felt thankful to God and my friends that my children were saved.

Truly yours,

JAMES ROBBINS.

P. S.—I notice in the NEWS of Saturday evening, in the local column, a notice of a fire extinguisher being carried out of the hotel, it was not charged as stated. It had been emptied for the purpose of repairing. J. R.
