

FRENCH REPUBLIC LESS UNEASY.

The Nervousness Over Moroccan Conference Not Nearly So Pronounced.

PRESS IS NOT SO WARLIKE.

Germany Still Refuses to Yield to France's Claim to a Special Position in Morocco.

Paris, Jan. 7.—Public uneasiness over the Moroccan conference has undergone a distinct improvement. This is due mainly to the confident attitude of the officials of the foreign office, who consider the selection by the Italian government of Marquis Visconti Venosta to head its delegation, as strengthening the position of France. It is evident that the officials hold the view that if France can secure the support of the great powers having tangible interests in the Mediterranean and Morocco it will be difficult for Germany to stand against the force of this moral influence. Therefore Italy's choice of the Marquis Visconti Venosta, who was one of the earliest advocates of the Franco-Italian entente, strengthens the government's expectation of the united support of the leading Mediterranean powers.

The martial tone of the press has considerably diminished and the sensational branch of it no longer prints alarmist reports of the frontier preparations. Nevertheless, the public and the press continue, though with greater calmness, to talk of the imperative need of completing military preparations.

Now that the French delegates are preparing to start for Algiers there is evidence of the greatest firmness in upholding the French position, the essential feature of which is that France, through her geographical proximity to Morocco, which is analogous to that of the position of the United States toward Cuba, and through her vast Algerian borders, is justly entitled to have a special and privileged position in Morocco.

Germany, while yielding much, has never clearly yielded to the claim of France to a special position in Morocco. This is the vital issue and the minor questions, regarding police, customs, finance and contraband can be adjusted once it is definitely settled whether France has or has not a special position in Morocco.

If the French position is upheld, the conference, it is expected, will charge France with the police customs and other duties. Against this Germany will seek to secure international control of the police, the customs and other matters, thus giving all nations, including Germany, the same status in Morocco as that of France.

The French delegates will start without the slightest thought of yielding in the essential points of France's privileged position, and therein lies the danger of the Franco-German outlook. The Berlin representative of the Temps says that Germany, following the action of the United States and Great Britain, is sending a squadron to Algiers. The paper says that France thus far has not ordered a squadron to the neighborhood of the conference. It adds that the British squadrons comprising the home and cruiser squadrons will rendezvous in Cadix, near Algiers in the middle of January.

ITALY'S POSITION.
Rome, Jan. 7.—Premier Fortis today received the Marquis Visconti Venosta, who was accompanied by the Marquis San Giuliano, the foreign minister. The three discussed at length the attitude to be taken by the Italian representatives in the Moroccan conference.

Italy's delegates will go to Algiers with full moral and political liberty, animated only by the desire to illustrate the different interests. Italy is acting as an honest "broker" in the hope that the conference may define the international position regarding Morocco, granting to that country its independence and territorial integrity, but insuring to all powers free trade therein on the principle of the open door.

AS COUNT WITTE SEES IT.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 7.—Interviewed by the Official Telegraph agency today Count Witte declared that he did not believe the reports that Germany would resort to an aggressive policy in the Moroccan conference at Algiers.

Throughout Emperor William's remarkable reign, he said, Germany's policy had been consistently pacific. He believed it would remain so, and that the conference would terminate without any untoward incident, particularly between France and Germany. It was his belief that the rumors to the contrary were spread for the purpose of influencing the course of the conference.

Turning to the situation in Russia, Count Witte protested against what he characterized as the unfounded and sensational reports spread in the foreign press and expressed the conviction that Russia would emerge from the present crisis rejuvenated. He concluded by declaring that France continued to display toward Russia sentiments of friendship and good will which Russia reciprocated.

FRENCH BANKERS MAY GIVE RUSSIA AID.
Paris, Jan. 7.—M. Kokovsov, former Russian minister of finance, who came here to negotiate another Russian loan, practically confirms the statement made in these dispatches yesterday that the loan having been postponed, French bankers are now considering the making of temporary advances in order to support the stability of Russian finances. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovsov made a

The Song of the Cradle.
Bye, bye! Hope rises high!
There's a sweet little cradle
Hanging up in the sky;
A dear little life that is Coming to be;
Two soft chubby hands
That will pat and caress;
A pure little soul
That will sing and bless;
A darling to care for,
A baby to love.

One of the grandest agencies which enlighten and comfort Science has discovered to relieve motherhood from excessive suffering is the favorite "Prescription" devised by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y.

This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with natural, healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organs specially concerned in motherhood, and makes the coming of baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain.

"I wish to state that I have used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with very good results," writes Mrs. Katie M. Annis, of Hudson, New Hampshire. "Had been in poor health for over four years and had been twice in the hospital. My husband brought some of your Favorite Prescription, and it has carried me easily through my last two confinements. I am now blessed with two healthy children, and I am sure your medicine has done me more good than all the other treatment I have ever received."

BAD HEADACHES generally arise from bad stomachs. Foul breath, bitter taste, coated tongue, sour eructations or belching, are common symptoms though not all present in every case. One or two small doses, only one or two each day, of old Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, three or four cathartics.

statement in relation to Russia's real financial position. He said: "The budget for 1906 which is about to be presented to the council of the empire comprises an extraordinary budget of $246,000,000, of which only $6,000,000 is covered by the excess of revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $240,000,000 remains to be provided. Three of the most essential items included therein are provisions for the repatriation of the troops in the far east, their maintenance until their return to Russia and the reimbursement of Japan's losses in the Russo-Japanese war. Other smaller extraordinary expenses include the maintenance of the families of the reservists, succor for the victims of the famine, railroad construction, the mobilization of troops owing to the strikes and subventions for the naphtha industry."

M. Kokovsov said Russia could without difficulty issue an internal loan to meet these expenses, but it was considered preferable not to float it until the second half of the year in order not to affect the proper administration of the national resources. Therefore, he said, it was thought desirable to arrange for foreign operation similar to that indicated yesterday, which would be the most normal character. In conclusion, M. Kokovsov said:

"The difficulties through which we have just passed, though grave, were never sufficiently serious to affect Russian credit."

FOUR DEAD ON THE HIGHWAY.

E. Crane Wilson of Chicago With A Bullet Hole in His Head.

INDICATIONS ARE SUICIDE.

His Pet Horse Was Standing by His Side and Greyhound Stood Guard Over Him.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Jan. 7.—The dead body of E. Crane Wilson, a wealthy Chicago man and member of the firm of Wilson Bros., 332-333 Fifth avenue, Chicago, was found upon the highway seven miles east of the city about 6 o'clock this evening, with a bullet hole in his head. The indications point to suicide, although the gold watch and chain he wore are missing.

Mr. Wilson had been staying at the Alta Vista hotel in this city for over a year and left the hotel at 2:30 this afternoon on horseback. His only companion was a greyhound. About 7 o'clock this evening two well-known citizens of this place found the body as they were driving in from the ranch and telephoned the county coroner.

Coroner Law and Under Sheriff Dayton went to the scene of the shooting and found the body of Mr. Wilson lying at the side of the road flat on his back. The bullet had entered the head three inches back of the right ear and lodged under the left eye. Mr. Wilson's pet horse was standing by his side and the greyhound was still guarding the body when the officers arrived.

A bullet wound on the right side of the horse's neck had caused some suffering to the animal and indicates that Mr. Wilson had first attempted to kill his horse and then killed himself.

Mr. Wilson's 35-caliber revolver was found on the ground beneath his right hand with but two cartridges fired and three loaded.

The gold watch and chain and all money were missing, but a pearl shirt stud and pearl cuff buttons were still on the body. It is believed that Mr. Wilson should have had something over $100 in cash as he paid his hotel bill yesterday with a check for $150, receiving $100 in change.

E. C. Wilson was for many years a well known business man in Chicago, but for the past four years he has lived in Colorado, having gone there for his health. At the time of his death he was a stockholder in the company of Wilson Bros. family still occupies the homestead at 403 Drexel boulevard, Chicago.

MRS. GENTRY'S MURDER.
Constantine, Accused of It, Believed to Have a Criminal Record.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Investigation by the police of media reports that Mrs. Arthur W. Gentry had resulted in developments that lead them to the belief that Frank J. Constantine, the man charged with the murder of Mrs. Gentry, had a criminal record previous to the crime. Letters found in the fugitive's trunk, written by him to his mother, New Rochelle, N. Y., seem to indicate that Constantine fled from his home to escape the result of a quarrel with his mother-in-law, who was a wealthy woman who sent him money regularly and the police are now working on the fact that this in money to divert suspicion from himself of other misdeeds.

Efforts to locate the driver of the cab that conveyed Constantine to the pawnshop have been so far unsuccessful and no further trace has been found of the fugitive.

ROBT. SHADWELL KILLED.

Montana Convict With a Bad Criminal Record Probably Murdered.

Butte, Mont., Jan. 7.—Robert Shadwell, with a criminal career extending over several years, was found dead, evidently having been murdered, in the Chinese section of this city this morning shortly before daylight. The body was discovered in an alley by a woman who was on her way to her home, and the body was found to be covered with wounds, apparently having been inflicted with a blunt instrument. A portion of the skull was crushed. It is the theory of the police that the man was killed, either for revenge or during a fight, while in one of the opium dens, and the body then thrown into the alley. That he came to his end while in a partially dressed condition is believed by the police, for his shirt was torn into shreds and his arms thrust into his coat sleeves. The overcoat was wrapped and buttoned about the body, but the sleeves were empty. The face had been washed before the body was thrown into the street. There is no clue to the murderers. Shadwell killed "Red" O'Connor, a sport, during a poker game, Jan. 1, 1898. He was tried three times. The first two trials resulted in verdicts for murder in the first degree, and he was sentenced to a term of four years in the state prison, which he served.

Shadwell was suspected of being one of two bandits who several days ago held up the Axtell saloon at Basin, securing $1,000.

INTERESTING FACTS

For Nearly Every Man, Woman Or Child.

A short time ago we published an article recommending to our readers the new discovery for the cure of dyspepsia, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claim then made was that these wonderful curative properties of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were cautious about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers and were finally induced to give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial, were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases a single package costing but 30 cents at any drug store made a complete cure and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more received we have space to publish only a few of the latest but assure our readers we receive so many complimentary letters that we shall publish each week a fresh list of genuine, unfeigned testimonials and never publish the same one twice.

From James Yemmelier, La Crosse, Wis.: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are doing me more good than anything ever tried and I was so pleased at results that I gave away several boxes to my friends who have also had the same benefit.

From Jacob Anthony, Portmurray, New Jersey: I have taken Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with the best results. I had dyspepsia for 6 years, and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the Tablets seem to take right a hold and I feel good. I am a farmer and lime burner, and I heartily recommend to everyone who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets.

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minn.: I have received surprisingly good effects from Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I gave one-half of my last box to a friend who also suffered from indigestion and she had the same good results.

From Mrs. Agnes K. Ralston, Cadillac, Mich.: I have been taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I am very much better, and feel very grateful for the great benefit I have received in so short a time.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach troubles only, and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia, Sour or Acid stomach, heartburn, bloating or wind on stomach and similar disorders.
