

DESERT EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, September 6, 1898.

EVERSON emphatically denies it.

Say he was misquoted by a Presbyterian Minister—General News Items.

Mormon Club, Boyd, L. 2, 1898.

To the Editor:

In an article in yesterday's Salt Lake Tribune, it is said that at the last session of the State Legislature held here Mr. G. A. Everett was called upon, as a matter of courtesy, to the Mormon Church, to make a speech, in which he is quoted as saying that "many of the charges made against the Mormon Church were true." Mr. Everett was emphatically denied having said this by one of the constituents of his constituency at the conclusion of his speech, and said, "You may quote me as I say," "you may quote me as I say." I wonder if our friends in the Legislature, I wonder that we are compelled to say this.

The news of President Woodrow's election has given us great hope and all flags are flying at half mast. It seems especially that he should stand well with our friends. Many people will likely attend the funeral.

Public schools will open here and at Brighamton next Tuesday morning. All peasant schools are now work ahead of ours in opening.

A number of girls belonging to Mr. Shaw's were burned Thursday afternoon, while the room, thereafter, was clean of work. It is said that the fire was started by a spark from a cigarette.

Political action may be seen at the Brighamton polls every day. City workers and children are quite plentiful.

Baptist Stacks woodland circuits are being turned from Mr. E. A. Lee, who will be still more active. This will be greater service than ever this year. If poor, rough and efficient work will make it.
