

SONG FOR THE 24TH OF JULY, 1862.

TUNE—"Nettle Moore."

It is now just fifteen years
Since a band of Pioneers
First arrived in this same valley where we're met:
They believed with one accord,
They were led here by the Lord,
And they founded what we now call Deseret.

CHORUS.

O, I love you, Deseret;
And I never did regret
That I left my friends and kindred here to come;
For I know that all who strive,
Like good, faithful saints, to live,
Can find happiness in this our mountain home.

'Twas a waste and barren spot,
And in human judgment not
Even a Mormon could therefrom raise any grain:
But the Pioneers were Saints,
So they banished all complaints,
And soon went to work in faith and not in vain.

It is true that crickets came,
To the first-fruits laying claim,
And devoured the growing harvest while 'twas green;
But the Saints still hoped and toiled
(For their faith could not be foiled),
And the blest results around us can be seen.

God has blessed his people's toil,
And, by tillage well the soil,
Almost every kind of vegetation grows:
For in this new land of ours,
We have grain, and fruits, and flow'rs,
And the desert truly blossoms as the rose.

Let us then our voice raise,
In glad songs of thanks and praise,
For this goodly land which God to us has giv'n,
While we wish the Pioneers
May live many happy years,
And at last receive a welcome into heav'n.

HENRY MAIBEN.

NOTICE.

Oh, all ye good people, who value your health,
And think of your comfort as well as your wealth.
Remember that now, just now is the time
To sweeten your houses with whitening or lime;
The cobwebs are hanging to ceiling and wall,
And rooms look quite dismal as winter or fall,
Unless they are washed and made clean and light
With COOPER'S best mixture, or some other white.
The crevices, too, which open so wide,
And make a fit place for vermin to bide,
Can all be well stopp'd and made good and sound,
So that such a nuisance can scarcely be found.
Then, talk no more of your rooms looking bad
When such a good chance is now to be had,
Or having your home brought out to view,
Pretty near as nice as when it was new;
Then, give me a call, before it's too late,
Near the Corner of West and South Temple Street.

COOPER, Second door east of Staines' Nursery, 16th
