PROVO BUILDING SOCIETY.

At a meetitng of the Provo Building and Loan society held last evening, the report of the secretary showed that 11 houses have been built by the society for its stockholders during the past year, on which the dues and interest collected wantible second interest collected monthly amount to but little if any more than the rental which would have been paid for similar homes. Thus the stockholder is buying his home with money which he would otherwise pay out for rent, and at the same time living in the home. The work of the society, which has only been organized about a year, is meeting with appreciation from the public, a new issue of stock will soon be made.

There is a number of cases of diphtheria in the county east and southeast of Murray, which are not under quarantine. Strangers who are ignorant of hese conditions enter these places and afterwards are told by the neighbors that these people have diphtheria. It is time the health officers looked into these conditions and quarantined the affected places that the disease might be kept under control.

DEATH OF JOHN L. WILLIAMS.

One of the saddest deaths which has happened in this neighborhood occurred at Bingham Junction a week last Wed-nesday. John Lester Williams, a prom-ising young man, died at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Canning. About three weeks ago he returned from New-house, feeling quite sick, the affliction finally developing into typhoid fever and resulted in his death at 11 o'clock of the above date. That evening his wife gave birth to a baby boy, and for some time her life hung in the balance. She finally rallied, and is now recover-ing slowly. The funeral of Mr. William was held at the West Jordan meet. inghouse on Saturday last. He leaves wife, two children and many sorrow. ing friends to mourn his untimely death.

DROWNED IN SNAKE RIVER. Clarence Walton, who was well

mown throughout Murray, met with a ragic death by being drowned in the inake river on Thursday last. He was ngaged in constructing a bridge across the Snake river at Welser, Ida. A telgram was received at Murray the ternoon of the same day, stating that Walton met his death by failing from the bridge to the river below. The body will be interred in the local cemetery.
