

STRENUOUS DAY FOR GENERAL BELL

Time in Salt Lake Well Filled in With Trips of Inspection, Dinners and Speechmaking.

HAS PRAISES FOR SALT LAKE.

Promise Made That Fort Douglas Will Be Made Regimental Post—Leaves for Boise.

Gen. J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff of the U. S. army, departed for Boise last night after a full day in Salt Lake. It followed a hard night and day on the train from Mack, coming out of the Fort Duchesne country. That Gen. Bell is the kind of man Prest. Roosevelt likes is evident from the fact that in the one day at his disposal here, he received a delegation from the Commercial club, another delegation from Gov. Cutler, visited Fort Douglas, inspected the parade grounds, the barracks and the water supply, and then went up Red Butte canyon, returning for lunch with Col. Lockwood.

This afternoon, over, he started the afternoon with a review and inspection of the troops stationed at Fort Douglas, following it with a further inspection of the site on which the post is located, and following this with a trip to Salt Lake where he became the guest of the Commercial club at a "brigade post" dinner. After the dinner he visited Gov. Cutler at his home, where a lawn party was in progress, before taking the 11:45 train for the north.

WILL BE REGIMENTAL POST.

General Bell made a speech at the Commercial club dinner last night, in which he promised that Ft. Douglas would be made a regimental post, and maintained in the new army system of concentration on the regimental unit, "brigade posts" are not known in military parlance," he said. "But the army will be concentrated in regiments, wherever possible." He praised Salt Lake for its wide streets, its beautiful mountain view, its water supply, and its Ft. Douglas for every qualification necessary to a large post, except the possession of sufficient ground on which to hold army maneuvers.

LIST OF GUESTS.

The invited guests at the dinner were Governor John C. Cutler, Senator Read Smoot, Senator George Sutherland, former Senator Thomas Kearns, former Governor Heber M. Wells, Mayor Ezra Thompson, LeRoy Armstrong, A. J. Davis, C. C. Goodwin, E. F. Colburn, O. H. Hewlett, James C. McDonald, William L. H. Johnson, C. N. Strevell, Colonel Benjamin C. Lockwood, Colonel E. A. Wedgewood, F. C. Schramm, C. S. Tingey, H. G. Whitney, Captain John E. Woodward, J. S. Critchlow, Frank Knox, Major John W. Young, Captain J. E. Cathe, Colonel E. A. Wall, L. D. Freed, C. A. Quigley, M. H. Walker, David Keith, C. S. Burton, F. W. Francis, H. Johnson, C. N. Strevell, Leon Sweet, W. J. Halloran, R. E. Miller.

President Halloran acted as toastmaster, and introduced the speakers. Judge C. C. Goodwin, E. F. Colburn, Gen. C. A. Wedgewood, David Keith, Mayor Ezra Thompson, and Gen. Bell, Gov. Cutler was not present, but the lawn party at his home previously arranged in honor of the officers from Ft. Douglas who are soon to leave for the north.

After the departure of Gen. Bell for Gov. Cutler's home, W. J. Halloran announced that the Commercial club, in boosting for a large fort at Ft. Douglas had at last accomplished its end, and that the increase would come and come at once. "Gen. Bell likes Ft. Douglas," he said, "and he is a fair man, and will, I am sure, do all he can for us."

"TRUSTY" ATTEMPTS ESCAPE.

Ed Harris Makes Hard Try at Get Away from City Jail.

Ed Harris, who is undergoing a 30-day sentence at the city jail for petty larceny, made a desperate attempt to get away this morning. His exhortatory conduct since his incarceration on July 13 elevated him to the position of "inside trusty" and just after court adjourned this morning he was given a pair of slippers to empty outside. When he gained the outer yard, Harris made a break and ran out into the alley back of Studebaker's implement house and through another alley. Jailer Wilkinson and Electrician Shaker gave chase, and an exciting run followed. Harris was captured and taken back to jail, where he was put in the dungeon on a bread and water diet for the jailer.

OLD FOLKS AT LAGOON.

Senator Bamberger Entertains at Prettiest Spot in Utah.

Last evening, at the Lagoon, near Farmington, the old folks' central committee, of Salt Lake City, were special guests at a banquet given by the Hon. Simon Bamberger, president of the Salt Lake & Ogden railroad and the Lagoon resort. Mr. Bamberger was so pleased with the way the central committee handled the old folks at his resort this year, as also preceding years, that he felt himself called upon to show his appreciation by tendering this banquet in their honor—a distinction to which the committee had been strangers so far in their history of the past 22 years. Several prominent citizens of Davis county were also invited. A number of after dinner speeches were made in which Mr. Bamberger was highly complimented for his endeavors to make the Lagoon not only a beautiful place, but a clean resort, morally and otherwise, the place having already been designated as the most beautiful spot in Utah. One of the speakers, who had visited Palestine, compared it to the plains of Sharon, lying between the mountains of Judea on the east and the great Mediterranean sea on the west. From the Lagoon, the visitors saw the grand old Wasatch range on the east and the great inland salt sea on the west. Among those who participated in the banquet and who afterwards enjoyed the freedom of the resort to the full extent were Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Savage, William Eddington and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Margets, President Joseph H. Grant and wife, Bishop David Stoker of Bountiful, and wife, Bishop J. H. Robinson of Farmington and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Barnes of Kayville, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bergman, Dr. and Mrs. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Sathierland, and Mr. Herman Bamberger, and others.

TROUPE DOWN BY VICTORIA POLICE

Gaskell, Alias Wilson; Unsuccessfully Invokes Aid of Canadian Officials.

WRITES TO SUPT. HUSSEY.

Reply Received by Sheriff Emery to Effect That Prisoner is Mentally Deranged.

That William J. Gaskell, alias Wilson, is mentally deranged is the opinion of F. S. Hussey, superintendent of the provincial police at Victoria, B. C., as well as the officials of this county who recently committed the man to the state mental hospital at Provo. Gaskell was arrested upon his arrival in the city from Colorado upon a charge of threatening to kill James H. McChrystal and John C. Packard, because of a fancied grievance he had against them concerning some mining property he claimed to own in Tintic. The criminal charge against him was dismissed and a complaint was filed charging him with insanity, which was returned by the court. While in jail Gaskell wrote a letter to Frank Harris, whom he addressed as "Chief Canadian Police," Victoria, B. C. The letter was delivered to the superintendent who returned it to Sheriff Emery with the brief but pointed declaration that Wilson appeared to be mentally deranged. The letters follow:

LETTER TO CANADIAN POLICE.

"Frank Harris, Chief Canadian Police, Victoria, B. C.

Dear Sir: "I write to inform you that I am a British subject held a prisoner in the city jail at Salt Lake City, Utah. I was arrested as I left the train without a warrant held two days and then fetched in police court and charged with a warrant and complaint charging me with making threats against one J. H. McChrystal's life some 10 days before in the state of Colorado. I asked for continuance and I could get a lawyer and communicate with consul. I got an order from the court to write and it was the twenty-first of July. I could not write. I wrote to consul and sealed the letter and forbade them to open it, they informed me that they opened it and the contents were as follows: 'I wrote to you and before would let them read it I tore it up.'"

"The case was set for the ninth of July and on the ninth I was not taken to court so I don't know what became of case. On the eleventh of July I was taken to another court and with having been insane and they tried to put me on trial without witness or lawyer and the case is set for twenty-third of July. The cause of all is to conceal crime here and in Colorado."

"My two associates McChrystal and Carpenter were murdered in Colorado and have tried to hide some money. This arrest is to stop me from doing anything and to keep me from getting to Victoria. McChrystal and Carpenter were after Gordon, the Winnipeg murderer, and some highway robbers. I had Gordon located with one of the burglars that burnt the Coeur d'Alene hotel in Kaslo, B. C., in 1899. They were in Leadville, Colo., and were waiting for McChrystal and Carpenter to come as the officers in Leadville would have turned him loose as they do all criminals that have money or are working for either crowd that wants murder done."

"McChrystal and Carpenter were killed between the 16th and 12th of September, 1901, in Telluride, Colo., and on Sept. 12, two of the gang came to kill me, and as I was too quick they went away, saying, let him go this time. A few days after while I was away from the house where I stayed, a man was killed. This man was arrested—was not served with a warrant or given a hearing; was tried and acquitted and then held three months; tried on same charge and convicted and was kept five years and seven months, and was denied to write to anyone in Canada or to write to consul. I saw some of the gang in Colorado before I left."

"I want to come to Salt Lake City, as some of the crowd will be there and besides I want you to take the case to the British ambassador and see if something can't be done. I know this is the governor of British Columbia. I have property here that is worth between $20,000 and $30,000, and these ruts as fast as I beat one they will start to come so all will go to pay lawyers and court fees. Come so as to be here before the 23rd of July and I can tell you other things. I have traveled in the east."

"I am respectfully yours,

"WILLIAM J. WILSON, "County Jail."

SUPT. HUSSEY'S REPLY.

The letter from Supt. Hussey enclosing Wilson's letter is very brief and to the point. It follows:

"I beg to enclose a letter received at this office from a prisoner in your gaol named William J. Wilson, who appears to be mentally deranged. That two of the gang were correct in his surmise is evidenced by the fact that Gaskell or Wilson was committed to the mental hospital on last Tuesday by Judge Ritchie, after being examined by three medical experts."

FOUND BUNCH OF STAMPS.

Spencer Clawson Returns Roll to Government to Restore to Owners.

When Spencer Clawson went to the postoffice yesterday afternoon to get his mail he noticed, as he opened his box, a roll of green paper lying on the floor. He was curious enough to pick it up, and saw that it was internal revenue stamps of some kind, which he had found yesterday at Hot Springs and has since remained unconscious. The physicians pronounce his case hopeless and say the end may come at any time.

SENATOR PETTUS DYING.

New York, July 27.—A telegram from Hot Springs, N. C., received here today states that U. S. Senator Edmund W. Pettus of Alabama is dying. He became ill when he was on the train for Hot Springs yesterday at Hot Springs and has since remained unconscious. The physicians pronounce his case hopeless and say the end may come at any time.

JAP IS ARRAIGNED.

Preliminary Hearing to be Resumed Monday—Juoz Pleads Not Guilty.

After Juoz, the Jap charged with the murder of a countryman, July 4, pleaded not guilty in Judge Cornish's court at Garfield yesterday the judge called an adjournment until Monday when the hearing will be resumed. If the court attaches have recovered from the effects of the arraignment by that time, Judge Cornish has taken to the bills and the lawyers and clerks and others are taking open air treatment. This all sounds mysterious and rather sensational but when the facts are known all is very simple. The courtroom was filled with Japs yesterday during the progress of the arraignment and the "foreign" odor became more and more noticeable as the hot afternoon hours passed. RAILROAD RATE LAW CONTROVERSY

Warrants Issued for Prest. Finley And Ticket Agent Wilson of The Southern Railway.

U. S. MARSHAL SAVES FORMER

Taken to Federal Courtroom Where He Was Released by U. S. Judge Pritchard.

Asheville, N. C., July 27.—Developments came quick and fast in the railroad rate law controversy today. Warrants were issued for President Finley of the Southern railway, and City Ticket Agent O. C. Wilson of the same road. The warrant for President Finley was placed in the hands of a policeman who went to the Battery Park hotel to serve the papers upon the executive head of the Southern. In the meantime arrangements had been made for habeas corpus proceedings before Judge Pritchard to secure Mr. Finley's release.

When the police officer called at the hotel for Mr. Finley the latter was eating breakfast and requested that he be allowed to finish his meal. His request was granted. In the meantime Mr. Finley's private secretary got into communication with Judge Pritchard who, it is believed, cut his own breakfast short and came down town and issued the writ which was served just as the march to the police court began. The policeman did not succeed in reaching the police court with his prisoner, as he was unable to find the hotel. A deputy U. S. marshal walked into the hotel and took charge of Mr. Finley. The policeman stood aside and Mr. Finley was taken to the federal courtroom, where he will be given liberty by Judge Pritchard.

The warrant against O. C. Wilson, who recently was sentenced to 30 days upon the chain gang for violating the new rate law and who was released on habeas corpus proceedings by Judge Pritchard in the United States court, was served on him before Judge Reynolds, who figured as a witness in the habeas corpus proceedings. Wilson was selling tickets to Lake Toxaway when taken into custody and many passengers, it is said, were compelled to board the train without tickets.

General Counsel Thom and other officials of the Southern, left last night for Asheville to meet with state officials there in an endeavor to arrive at a settlement of the differences. The attorneys who remained here were greatly disturbed by the new turn of events.

CONFERENCE WITH GOV. GLENN.

Raleigh, N. C., July 27.—The Southern railway authorities and attorneys representing it and the Atlantic Coast Line, arrived today from Asheville and sought a conference with Gov. Glenn upon the railway litigation. Gov. Glenn would hold an executive session and Gov. Glenn asked his counsel, Merriman & Merriman at Asheville, to continue everything until Monday if possible, because of the consultation this afternoon.

BERLIN MURDER OF GIRLS STILL AT LARGE.

Berlin, July 27.—The criminal who yesterday stabbed five little girls upon the streets of Berlin, is still at large. The theory of the case is that the man is an epileptic who probably has recovered his normal condition and is now without any recollection of what he did yesterday—that his attitude towards these dreadful acts is that of a complete stranger.

The newspapers publish warnings to parents, that the children are being kept indoors today. Today all policemen, whether they were on duty last night or not, were out on patrol duty by night and day. Between 7,000 and 8,000 guards of the peace are thus doing patrol service.

Five or six men were arrested during the night, but were released this morning.

HEALTH REPORTED.

Twenty-Six Children Born in Salt Lake During the Past Week.

Twenty-six births were reported during the week; 10 males and 16 females. Twelve deaths were reported; seven males and five females. Two were shipped here for burial. There were reported during the week 11 cases of contagious and infectious diseases, consisting of three cases of scarlet fever, one case of whooping cough and severe cases of typhoid fever. At the ending of the week one case of smallpox, nine cases of scarlet fever and three cases of diphtheria remain in quarantine.

PIONEER CELEBRATIONS.

At Preston, Idaho, pioneer day was fittingly celebrated. Never in the history of the city were similar exercises so fully carried out. A special train from points in Cache valley brought thousands into the bustling town of upper Cache. Probably 8,000 or 10,000 people were in town; the hotels, restaurants, lunch counters, lemonade stands and candy parlors did a land office business. The program in the afternoon house at 9 a. m. was a gem. Every number was elegantly sustained. Joshua Hawkes, an old pioneer veteran, gave a splendid address, Mayor Solomon H. Hale responded fittingly and humorously to the toast, "Pioneer Reminiscences," an original poem, depicting pioneer scenes, was composed and read by Watkins L. Roe. Old Father Kershaw, aged 75, gave a lively step-dance. The "Occidentals" of Salt Lake City came down to play a series of three games. The colored boys were there with the goods all the time and kept the "Preston Regulars" going some. In the initial contest Preston won; score 5 to 3. The Occidentals took the second game, score 12 to 9. Preston won the third contest by a very wide margin. The locals will journey to "Zion" next week to play a return game with the Occidentals. Mine, Goda, of Salt Lake gave two very successful balloon ascensions. The horse races in the afternoon were leading features. The exercises of the day concluded with a grand ball in the opera house.

At Alpine the Twenty-fourth was fittingly celebrated. The Sunday school having charge of the program. Salutes were fired at an early hour. At 10 o'clock a very entertaining program was given.

One of the pleasing features of the program was a speech concerning the Alpine flag by Henry Moyle. The banner was made by Mrs. Joseph Walton in the early sixties, from material purchased by her husband, who is now the oldest person in Alpine, being in her eighty-seventh year. The flag is a national banner with a beehive just below the field of blue with the legends, "Our Mountain Home" over the hilly and "Alpine City" beneath it. The flag was taken on numerous trips all over Utah county during the years of the Indian hostility and has been used very frequently during the entire forty odd years.
