

[From the Ogden Junction.]

DIED.

At Eden, Ogden Valley, March 15th, 1871, GEORGE BURKET, in his 83rd year.

The following account of his life was written at his own dictation:

I was born Oct. 18, 1788, in Bedford, Bedford Co., Pennsylvania, United States. My father, George Burket, and my mother, Catharine Swovelin, emigrated from Germany to the United States during the revolutionary war of 1776, and settled in Pennsylvania. I was married to Sarah Smith in 1810, and had by her six children, three of whom joined the Church in Indiana, and three in Jackson county, Missouri. My wife and I joined the Church in 1831, in Randolph county, Indiana. On the 1st of May, 1832, I started, according to the commandments, for Jackson county, Mo.; was then ordained an Elder under the hands of Zebadiah Coltrin and Levi W. Hancock, and was appointed to take charge of a company, who with myself arrived in Jackson county, in August of the same year. I then turned out all my property to Bishop Partidge, who assigned me my inheritance, and requested me to take charge of my property till the difficulties then surrounding the Saints should pass over.

I was driven out of Jackson county in Nov., 1833, and located in Clay county. In June, 1834, Zion's Camp came to my house, and there dispersed. The same night the Camp arrived, seventeen of the brethren were seized with cholera, and five died that night and next morning, who were buried in an adjoining field.

I was through all the troubles in Jackson, Clay, Davis and Far West counties, where I stood true to my brethren and the work of God.

The morning after leaving Nauvoo, I was married to Elizabeth Evans, widow of Thomas Evans (my first wife having died in Augusta, Iowa, a few months previous), with whom I have lived happily and who has been a great comfort and help to me, and a faithful member in the Church.

I did not arrive at Council Bluffs till the spring of 1848. I tarried there by counsel of President Young to get an outfit, and in June, 1852, I started west for Great Salt Lake City, arrived in September, and located on West Jordan, and presided over a branch of the Saints; then moved to Bingham's Fort, in Weber county in the fall of 1855, and to Ogden valley in 1862.

When the Prophet Joseph and his brethren were in Liberty Jail, Clay county, he wrote a letter to me requesting that I should bring a man with me and sign a writ of habeas corpus that their lives might be saved, for, he said, their lives were in danger. I complied with his request, and entered into bonds to release Sidney Rigdon from jail, and would cheerfully have laid down my life to save their lives.

In 1836, I was called by Joseph, in connection with others, and preached the gospel in Illinois baptizing a goodly number, and regulating the affairs of the church in that State; continued my journey to Kirtland, and then returned back to Missouri.

In February, 1839, I was driven out of Missouri, and moved into the State of Illinois. When Nauvoo was founded I immediately moved there, and was at the first General Conference, lived there till 1846, and was ordained a High Priest by Geo. A. Smith and Bishop Miller; was in the battle of Nauvoo in September, and left next morning for the new home of the Saints in the West.

Elder Burkett died in full faith and fellowship in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and highly respected by his numerous friends and acquaintances.
